

I WILL LOVE THEE TO THE LAST.

Sung by

M^r FRAZER, M^r D.W. KING, M^r F. GARDNER

M^r A. GIUBILEI, M^r WILSON, M^r PERRING, and

M^r HARRISON.

The Words by

CHARLES JEFFERYS,

The Music by

W. H. MONTGOMERY.

Ent. Sta. Hall.

Pr. 2/-

LONDON,

C. JEFFERYS, 21, SOHO SQUARE.

Where may be had all the Popular Compositions by MONTGOMERY.

Including the BALLADS

MY COTTAGE ORNE. LAUGH LADY LAUGH. THE OLD FIR TREE. &c.

VALSES _ LA MELODIE. & L'HARMONIE. &c.

"I WILL LOVE THEE TO THE LAST, MARY."

The Words by CHARLES JEFFERYS

The Music by W. H. MONTGOMERY.

Più Andante. p leg:

When the Moon is on the waters I will dim - e - - - rall^o p hasten, love, to thee, For of all Earth's fairest daughters Thou the dearest art to me: Tho' rude winds may ruffle Ocean Still my bark shall tempt the sea, And in strains of pure devotion, I will sing Love's song to thee: When my star of Hope was waning There was Colla voce.

Sos:

one, but one, heart true And which shar'd, without complaining All the ills my bosom knew, It was thine, my gentle Mary, Thou wert

Sos: e con espress.

I will love thee to the last, Mary.

all the world to me, And how - e - ver Fortune va - ry, I will still be true to thee I will still be true to thee, Ma - ry.

Sost.

Cresc. lan - do. Col voce.

I'll be true to thee.

pp

Thou wert dear to me in Childhood When the rosebud on its tree, As it

p

I will love thee to the last, Mary.

blossom'd in the wild_wood Was an emblem, Love, of thee: In thy youth thou wert still dearer: With the dawn of Reason came Thoughts that brought thee to me nearer, Tho' they bore not yet Love's name: But thy col voce.

Sos

wo-man-hood un-fold-ing Won the secret from my heart, And my

I will love thee to the last, Mary.

life was in thy holding, For 'twas death from thee to part I have lovd thee, gentle Mary, I have lovd thee thro' the Past, And, how - e - ver Fortune

Sos: e con espress. Sos:

va - ry, I will love thee to the last, And, how - e - ver Fortune

Ca - lan - do

vary, I will love thee to the last.

ad lib. Col voce. pp

I will love thee to the last, Mary.