2nd Verse.

If it ev - er prove false to its own glorious trust, May its foes . drag it down with con-tempt to the dust; But as long as 'tis true to the blazon it holds, Shall the arm of Om-ni-potence bear up its folds. (CHORUS,) And this flag, 3rd Verse.

Here at home, with one sky and one land, let it be But the flag of one people, har - mo - nious and free; From the north to the south, from the east to . the west, With no treason to part us, no war to mo - lest. (CHORUS) And this flag, 4th Verse.

So a - broad on all seas and all shores let it shine, As the symbol of manhood re - deem'd and di - vine; That the down-trodden nation's in triumph may rise, With their feet on their chains and their brows to the skies. (CHORUS) And this flag,

In the Name of Jehovah.
