Andantino

Un poco vivace.

The musical score is written for guitar in 2/4 time. It features a melody line and a bass line. The lyrics are: "When I was a schoolboy aged ten, Oh! mighty little greek I knew; With my short strip'd trowsers and now and then, With stripes upon my jacket too! When I saw other boys to the playground run, I threw my old Gra - dus by, And I left the task I had scarce begun, "There'll be time enough for that" said I. "There'll be time enough for that" said I."

Dynamic markings include p (piano), f (forte), pp (pianissimo), and mf (mezzo-forte).

2nd VERSE.

When I was at college my pride was dress, And my groom and my bit of blood; But as for my study, I must confess, That I was content with my stud: I was deep in my tradesmen's books, I'm afraid; Tho' not in my own, by the bye; And when rascally tailors came to be paid, "There'll be time enough for that" said I. "There'll be time enough for that" said I.

3^d VERSE.

I was just nineteen when I first fell in love, And I scribb'd a deal of rhyme, And I talk'd to myself in a shady grove, And I thought I was quite sub_lime: I was torn from my love! 'twas a dreadful blow, And the La_dy she wiped her eye; But I didn't die of grief Oh dear me no, "There'll be time enough for that" said I. "There'll be time enough for that" said I.

4th VERSE.

The next was a lady of rank, a Dame, With blood in her veins you see; With the leaves of the Peerage she fann'd the flame, That now was consum_ing me: But tho' of her great de_ _scent she spoke, I found she was still very high; And I thought looking up to a wife no joke, "There'll be time enough for that" said I. "There'll be time enough for that" said I.

5th VERSE.

My next penchant was for one whose face, Was her for_tune, she was so fair! Oh! she spoke with an air of en_chanting grace, But a man cannot live upon air; And when po_verty enters the door, young love, Will out of the case_ment fly; The truth of the proverb I'd no wish to prove, "There'll be time enough for that" said I. "There'll be time enough for that" said I.

6th VERSE.

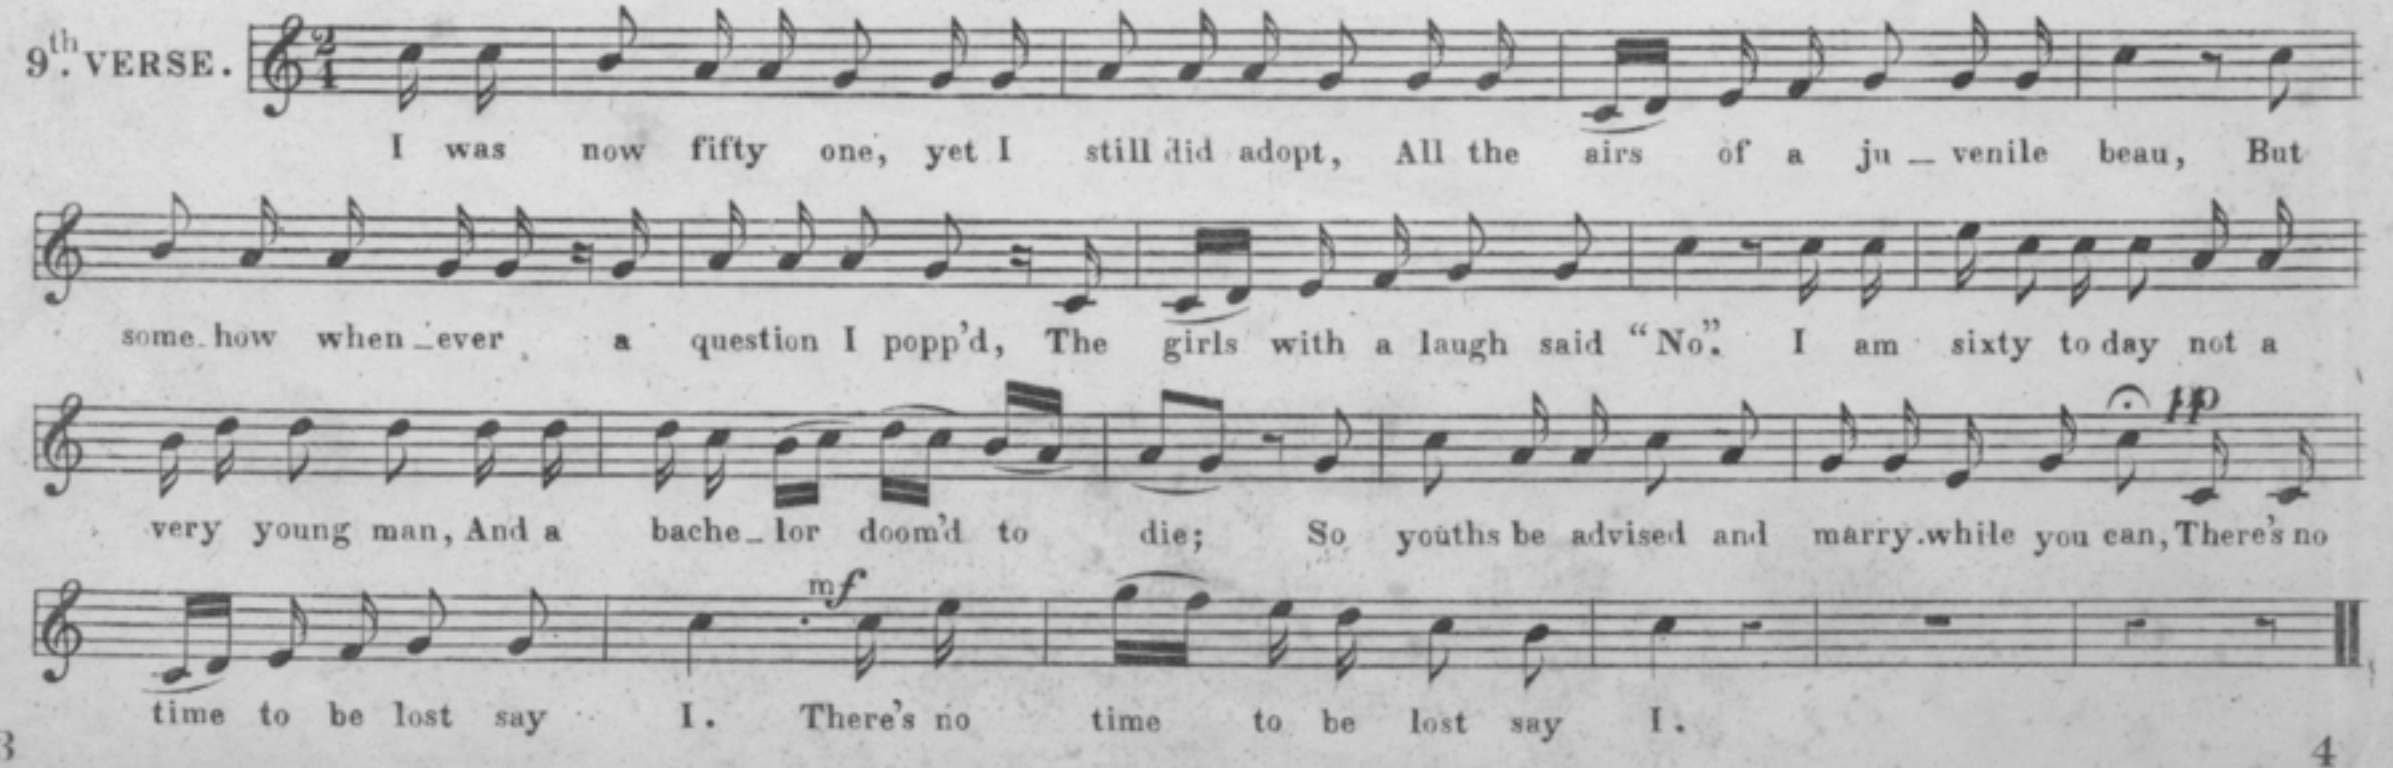

My next was a La_dy who lov'd romance, And wrote ve_ry splendid things; And she said with a sneer when I ask'd her to dance, "Sir I ride upon a horse with wings" There was ink on her thumb when I kissed her hand, And she whisper'd "If you should die, I will write you an e_pitaph gloomy and grand, There'll be time enough for that" said I. "There'll be time enough for that" said I.

7th VERSE.

I left her and sported my figure and face, At O_pe-ra par_ty and ball; I met pretty girls at ev'ry place, But I found a de_fect in all! The first did not suit me I cannot tell how, The se_cond I cannot say why; And the third, bless me I will not marry now, "There'll be time enough for that" said I. "There'll be time enough for that" said I.

8th VERSE.

I look'd in the glass, and I thought I could trace, A sort of a wrinkle or two; So I made up my mind that I'd make up my face, And come out as good as new. To my hair I imparted a little more jet, And I scarce could suppress a sigh, But I cannot be quite an old Bachelor yet, "No there's time enough for that" said I. "No there's time enough for that" said I.

9th VERSE.

I was now fifty one, yet I still did adopt, All the airs of a ju_venile beau, But some how when_ever a question I popp'd, The girls with a laugh said "No." I am sixty to day not a very young man, And a bache_lor doom'd to die; So youths be advised and marry while you can, There's no time to be lost say I. There's no time to be lost say I.
