me, my own be-lov-ed, What e-ver cares be-set thee; And when thou hast the falsehood proved, Of those with smiles who met thee: While o'er the sea, think, love, of me, Who ne-ver can for - - get thee; Let mem'ry trace the trysting - - place, Where I with tears re-gret thee.

Bright as yon star, with-in my mind, A hand un-seen hath set thee; There hath thine im - - age been en - shrin'd, Since first, dear love, I met thee; So in thy breast, I fain would rest, If, haply, fate would let me— And live or die, wert thou but nigh, To love or to regret me!
