

W^o 61

Recd: July 19 11
Lee Walker
Prop.

✓ THOU ART THE FOUNT OF ALL MY JOY

Music Composed

BY A. SCHMITZ

Words translated from the Provençal

BY W. L. T.

RESPECTFULLY

DEDICATED TO

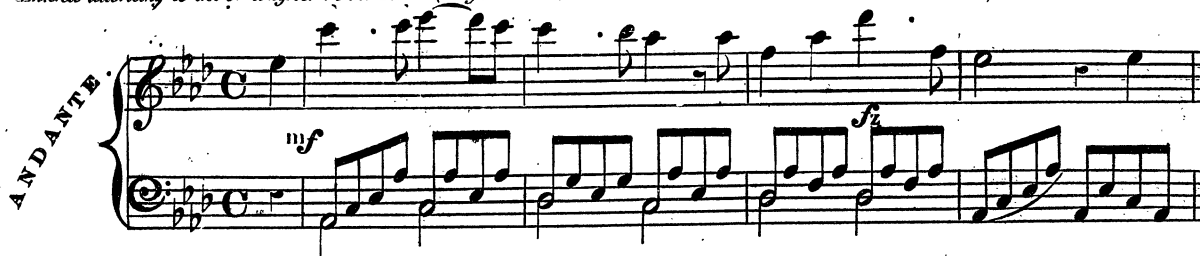

MISS R. ROSS.

of Tennessee.

Philadelphia LEE & WALKER 120 Walnut St.
New Orleans W. T. MAYO N^o 5 Camp St.

Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1848 by Lee & Walker in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Penn^a.

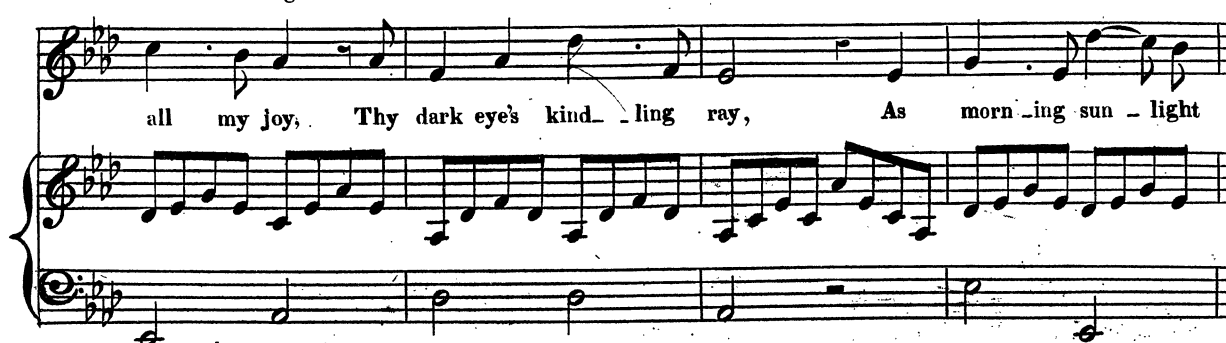

ANDANTE

2^d Verse . But of the spring's free of _ _ fer-ing. No wave _ let flows for me; To might of mine the 68

11
Khan
Prop

morn. neer yields its gladning brill - ian - cy, A strong - er spell will bid that strain, A to my soul, Doth chase its grief a - way; Thy voice is all of me - lo - dy, That lay of love im - part; May thine then be the sun - ny lot, Where heart dwells but with earth re - tain - eth now, To cheer the heart that wor - ships thee, Its dream of heaven ritard.

heart. May thine then be the sun - ny lot, Where heart dwells but with thou. To cheer the heart that wor - ships thee, Its dream of hea - ven ad libitum.

p f sf

heart.
thou.

Cres - cen - do. ritard. pp

