PREFACE.

I. MUSIC.

In this work, which the Committee appointed by the Assembly of 1878 to prepare a new Hymn Book have now the satisfaction of giving to the public, the Hymns are provided with fixed Tunes, in accordance with all but universal practice. But to admit of choice to a certain extent, and so to meet as far as possible diversity of judgment, it has been deemed expedient to arrange the hymns metrically. A copious topical index has been furnished to guide in the selection of hymns. The hymns are printed with expression marks, * as a general guide in singing. It is hoped that care will be taken to avoid exaggerated or mechanical effects, and to secure a just and expressive rendering of the music. It is in this direction that there is the greatest need for improvement in the service of praise. The tunes have been selected with much care, and with due regard to the diverse attainments and tastes of congregations. For the selection and adaptation of the music the Committee are responsible, though they have taken advantage of suggestions made by musical friends; and it is hoped that the collection of tunes, large and varied as it is, will give general satisfaction.

In the preparation of the harmonies, the Committee have enjoyed the great benefit of the musical skill and experience of EDWARD J. HOPKINS, Esq., Mus. Doc., Organist to the Honourable Societies of the Inner and Middle Temple, who has spared no pains to make the work worthy of its object. Many of the tynes have been harmonized by him, and the harmonies of others have been more or less revised. Copyright tunes, numbering above a hundred, appear invariably as written by the composers. The tunes from the 'Scottish Psalmody' appear as given in the Revised Edition with a few slight changes. In selecting these, the Committee have aimed at introducing such tunes as seemed most likely to be useful and acceptable, häving regard at once to the forms of the melodies, the harmonies, and the adaptations ; and, though Dr. HOPKINS is not responsible for the settings of these tunes, he has expressed a favourable opinion of the larger number of them.

The Committee have pleasure in stating that they are indebted to Dr. HOPKINS, not only for the preparation of harmonies, but for his kind permission to use his own tunes, of which they have freely availed themselves; and also for new compositions, including three tunes, three sentences, and anthem music for the Te Deum composed expressly for this work, with a view to furnish a musical setting of this ancient hymn within the capabilities of congregational singing. The anthem music for the Hymnal of the Canadian Presbyterian Caunch lately published, the music of which was prepared under his direction.

. The Committee gladly acknowledge their obligations to various gentlemen who

II. IIYMNS.

THE hymns are, chiefly out of regard to musical considerations, arranged metrically. To compensate for any loss of facility in the use of the book which might be better secured by a different arrangement,—for example, the more common topical one,—a copious subject index has been furnished, by means of which it is hoped ministers and others will be able easily to find what they want. Certain of the hymns, consisting for the most part of single stanzas, are of the nature of doxologies: these are dispersed throughout the book instead of being classed by themselves; but they will be found indicated as a distinct class in the subject index. The collection includes about twenty paraphrases, or parts of paraphrases, which being found in most hymnals it was deemed advisable to introduce into this work also.

In the large-type edition (words only) will be found a body of notes on the hymns, giving useful information about their authorship and literary history, as also concerning any changes in the text which, for various reasons, it has been deemed expedient to make. Such alterations are as a general rule undesirable, but the Committee believe that they will be found fewer than in most books, and trust that on the whole those made may appear reasonable. They have pleasure in stating that for these 'Notes' they are indebted to the Rev. James Bonar of Greenock, a member of the Committee, who has devoted much time and pains to the work connected with the preparation of the Hymn Book, and brought to it an amount of knowledge possessed by no other member. His labour has been altogether exceptional in amount and value,--the drawing up of the subject index, the selection of hymns for the young, and the general editing of the Hymn Book having been very much left in his hands. It is believed that the confidence reposed in him will be justified by the intrinsic value and the accuracy of the work for which he is more especially responsible.

'The Committee have only to add that it has been their earnest desire to do the very utmost towards making this Hymn Book worthy of its great purpose,—the advancement of God's glory in the praise of the sanctuary; and if that end be in any measure served they will consider their work abundantly rewarded.

If any copyright has been covertifyingly infringed, the Committee sincerely apologize for the unintentional transgression. They heartily thank the following authors or proprietors of copyright for kind permission to employ the undernoted hymns:--

- f 1 JESUS shall reign where'er the sun Does his successive journeys run; His kingdom stretch from shore to shore, Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
  - 2 For him shall endless prayer be made, And praises throng to crown his head; His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise With every morning sacrifice.
  - 3 People and realms of every tongue Dwell on his love with sweetest song; And infant voices shall proclaim Their early blessings on his name.
  - 4 Blessings abound where'er he raigns: The prisoner leaps to lose his chains; The weary find eternal rest; And all the sons of want are blest.
- ff 5 Let every creature rise, and bring Peculiar honours to our King, Angels descend with songs again, And earth repeat the loud Amen.

In shining letters, 'God is love;' And nerves the feeble arm for fight: He bears our sins upon the tree. It takes its terror from the grave, He brings us mercy from above. #### Hymn 8

To the foregoing Tune.

- mf 1 O HAPPY day, that fixed my choice On thee, my Saviour and my God! Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its raptures all abroad.
  - 2 O happy bond, that seals my vows To him who merits all my love!I.et cheerful anthems fill his house, While to that sacred shrine I move.
- mp 3 'Tis done! the great transaction 's done! I am my Lord's, and he is mine;
- m He drew me, and I followed on, Charmed to confess the voice Divine mf4 Now rest, my long-divided heart. Fixed on this blissful centre, rest; With ashes who would grudge to part, When called on angels' bread to feast?

mf 5 High heaven, that heard the solemn vow,

That vow renewed shall daily hear,

ł

Till in life's latest hour I bow,

And bless in death a bond so dear.

- m 1 A LIFILL child the Saviour came, The Mighty God was still his name; And angels worshipped, as he lay The seeming infant of a day.

- m 3 We bring them, Lord, and with the sign Of sprinkled water name them thine: Their souls with saving grace endow: Baptize them with thy Spirit now.
  - 4 O give thine angels charge, good Lord Them safely in thy way to guard; Thy blessing on their lives command, And write their names upon thy hand.
  - mf 5 O thou, who by an infant's tongue Dost hear thy perfect glory sung,
  - May these, with all the heavenly host. f Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

NOBFOLK.

- 1 JESUS, where'er thy people meet, There they behold thy mercy-seat;
   Where'er they seek thee thou art found, And every place is hallowed ground.
  - 2 For thou, within no walls confined, Inhabitest the humble mind; Such ever bring thee where they come. And, going, take thee to their home.
- m 3 Dear Shepherd of thy chosen few, Thy former mercies here renew; Here to our waiting hearts proclaim The sweetness of thy saving name.
  - 4 Here may we prove the power of prayer To strengthen faith and sweeten care, To teach our faint desires to rise, And bring all heaven before our eyes.
- mp 5 Lord, we are few, but thou art near, Nor short thine arm, nor deaf thine ear;
   mf O rend the heavens, come quickly down, And make a thousand hearts thine own.

Hymn 15

C. H. Rinek.

WALDECK. KEY E.

LONG

- mf 1 O LOVE how deep! how broad! how high! m 4 For us he prayed, for us he taught, It fills the heart with ecstasy. That God, the Son of God, should take Our mortal form, for mortals' sake.
- m 2 He sent no angel to our race. Of higher op of lower place, But wore the robe of human frame. And he himself to this world came.
  - 3 For us baptized, for us he bore His holy fast, and hungered sore; For us temptations sharp he knew. For us the tempter overthrew.

- For us his daily works he wrought .---By words and signs and actions thus Still seeking, not himself, but us.
- p 5 For us to wicked men betrayed. [arrayed. Scourged, ruocked, in crown of thorns He bore the shameful cross and death: For us at length gave up his breath.
- m 6 For us he rose from death again: For us he went on high to reign: For us he sent his Spirit here To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.
- mf7 To him whose boundless love has won Salvation for us through his Son.
- To God the Father glory be, f Both now and through eternity.

Hymn 16 ANGELS' SONG. Orlando Gibbons, 1600-22. KEY G.

- m 1 ARM of the Lord, awake, awake! Put on thy strength, the nations shake, mf And let the world, adoring, see Triumphs of mercy wrought by thee.
  - 2 Say to the heathen from thy throne, 'I am Jehovah, God alone;'
- f Thy voice their idols shall confound, And cast their altars to the ground.

2

- m 3 Let Zion's time of favour come: O bring the tribes of Israel home: And let our wondering eves behold Gentiles and Jews in Jesus' fold.
- mf 4 Almighty God, thy grace proclaim In every clime of every name:
- Let adverse powers before thee fall, f And crown the Saviour Lord of all.

ANGELUS.

- mp 1 ASLEEP in Jesus! blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep, A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes.
  - 2 Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet To be for such a slumber meet,
- uf With holy confidence to sing That death hath lost his venomed sting
- m 3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest, Whose waking is supremely blest; No fear, no woe shall due that hour That manifests the Saviour's power.

- mp 4 Asleep in Jesus! O for me May such a blissful refuge be!
   m Securely shall my ashes he,
- Waiting the summons from on high.
- 5 Asleep in Jesus! time nor space Debars this precious hiding place; On Indian plains, or Lapland snows, Believers find the same repose.
- p 6 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee Thy kindred and their graves may be;
- m But thine is still a blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep.

mp1 TAKE up thy cross, the Saviour said, If thou wouldst my disciple be. Deny thyself, the world forsake. And humbly follow after me.

2 Take up thy cross; let not its weight Fill thy weak spirit with alarm:

m His strength shall bear thy spirit up, [arm, And brace thy heart, and nerve thine mp3 Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame. Nor let thy foolish pride rebel: Thy Lord for thee the cross endured. To save thy soul from death and hell.

m 4 Take up thy cross then in his strength, And calmly every danger brave: "Twill guide thee to a better home. And lead to victory o'er the grave.

Dr. Miller, 1:07.

- p 1 Twas on that night when doomed to m 4 Then in his hands the cup he raised, The eager rage of every foe. fknow That night in which he was betrayed, The Saviour of the world took bread,
- mp 2 And, after thanks and glory given To him that rules in earth and heaven. That symbol of his flesh he broke, And thus to all his followers spoke :--
- m 3 'My broken body thus I give For you, for all; take, eat, and live; And oft the sacred rite renew. That brings my wondrous love to view."
- And God anew he thanked and praised: While kindness in his bosom glowed, And from his lips salvation flowed.
- 5 'My blood I thus pour forth,' he cries. 'To cleanse the soul in sin that lies: In this the covenant is sealed, And Heaven's eternal grace revealed.
- mf6' With love to man this cup is fraught: Let all partake the sacred draught: Through latest ages let it pour In memory of my dying hour.'

m 1 LORD of the Sabbath, hear our vows,
 On this thy day, in this thy house;
 And own, as grateful sacrifice,
 The songs which from the desert rise.

2 Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love;

- nf But there 's a nobler rest above: To that our labouring souls aspire, With ardent pangs of strong desire,
- m 3 No more fatigue, no more distress;
   Nor sin nor hell shall reach the place;
   No groans to mingle with the songs
   Which warble from immortal tongues:
  - 4 No rude alarms of raging focs; No cares to break the long repose; No midnight shade, no clouded sun, But sacred, high, eternal noon.
- mf 5 O long-expected day, Begin! Dawn on these realms of woe and sin!
- d Fain would we leave this weary road, And sleep in death, to rest with God.

- m 1 COME, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, And lighten with celestial fire: Thou the anointing Spirit art, Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.
  - 2 Thy blessed unction from above Is comfort, life, and fire of love: Enable with perpetual light The dulness of our blinded sight.
  - 3 Anoint and cheer our soiled face With the abundance of thy grace: Keep far our foes; give peace at home: Where thou art guide no ill can come.
  - 4 Teach us to know the Father, Son, And Thee of Both, to be but One; That, through the ages all along, This may be our endless song: -
    - f 'Praise to thy eternal merit, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.' Amen.

VENI CREATOR.

- mf 1 LORD of the harvest, once again
  - We thank thee for the ripened grain, For crops safe carried, sent to cheer Thy servants through another year, For all sweet, holy thoughts supplied By seed time and by harvest-tide.
- m 2 The bare dead grain, in autumn sown. Its robe of vernal green puts on;
- mf Glad from its wintry grave it springs,
   Fresh garnished by the King of kings;
   So, Lord, to those who sleep in thee,
   Shall new and glorious bodies be.
- m 3 Nor vainly of thy Word we ask
  A lesson from the reaper's task:
  So shall thine angels issue forth;
  The tares be burnt; the just of earth,
  Playthings of sun and storm no more,
  Be gathered to their Father's store.
  - 4 Daily, O Lord, our prayer is said, As thou has taught, for daily bread; But not alone our bodies feed, Supply our fainting spirits' need;
- c O Bread of Life, from day to day, Be thou our comfort, food, and stay.

Hymn 50

To the foregoing Tune.

mp1 Lord, I have sinned; but O forgive, Nor cast me quite away; Restore my soul, and bid me live, And be my future stay.

- 2 O let me from my fall arise More watchful and more strong;
- c Light up my dim and tearful eyes, And fill my mouth with song.
- m 3 On Christ's prevailing sacrifice
   I all my hopes recline.
   A broken spirit thou dost prize,
  - And such, O Lord, he mine!
  - 4 Give me a meek, dependent hears, For all my days to come; Nor let thy Spirit e'er depart, Till I am safe at home.

- m 1 O FOR a heart to praise my God, A heart from sin set free,
  A heart that always feels thy blood So freely shed for me;
- mp 2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek, My great Redeemor's throne,
   Where only Christ is heard to speak, Where Jesus reigns alone;
  - 3 A humble, lowly, contrite heart, Believing, true, and clean,
- m Which neither life nor death can part
   From him that dwells within;
  - 4 A heart in every thought renewed, And full of love divine,
- c Perfect and right and pure and good, A copy, Lord, of thine!
- mf 5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
   Come quickly from above;
   Write thy new name upon my heart,
   Thy new, best name of love.

| $m_P$ 2 For ever on thy burdened heart   | wf 4 O give us hearts to love like thee,   |

| m Yet no ungentle, murmuring word        | Far more for others' sins than all         |

 In us, thy brethren, see
 That gentleness and grace that spring
 From union, Lord, with thee.

Hymn 90 SPORE From L. Spohr KEY G. mp 1 APPROACH, my soul, the mercy seat, p = 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin, Where Jesus answers prayer; By Satan sorely pressed, There humbly fall before his feet, By war without and fears within, For none can perish there. I come to thee for lest. mp 2 Thy promise is my only plea; m 4 Be thou my shield and hiding place. With this I venture nigh: That, sheltered near thy side, Thou callest burdened souls to thee, mf I may my fierce accuser face. And tell him thou hast died. And such, O Lord, am J. р f = 5 O wondrous love! to bleed and die.

To bear the cross and shame, That guilty sunners, such as I, Might plead thy gracious name.

mp1 GREAT King of nations, hear our prayer, ]mf When dangers, like a stormy sea. While at thy feet we fall, Beset our country round. And humbly, with united cry, с To thee we looked, to thee we cried, To thee for mercy call. And help in thee was found. The guilt is ours, but grace is thine: p 3 With one consent we meekly bow O turn us not away. Beneath thy chastening hand, But hear us from thy lofty throne, And, pouring forth confession meet. And help us when we pray. Mourn with our mourning land: 2 Our fathers' sins were manifold, · With pitying eye behold our need, And ours no less we own: As thus we lift our praver .--mf Yet wondrously from age to age 'Correct us with thy judgments, Lord; Thy goodness hath been shown : Then let thy mercy spare.' c

- d How fast they fade away!
- mf O for the pearly gates of heaven! O for the golden floor! O for the Sun of Righteousness That setteth never more!
- mp 2 The highest hopes we chorish here. How fast they tire and faint! How many'a spot defiles the robe That wraps an earthly saint!

- mf O for a heart that never sins! O for a soul washed white !
  - O for a voice to praise our King. Nor weary day or night!
- m 3 Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope. And grace to lead us higher :
- mf But there are perfectness and peace Beyond our best desire.
- mp O by thy love and anguish, Lord, O by thy life laid down,
- m O that we fall not from thy grace. Nor cast away our crown!

The sweetest name on earth. cf 5 Jesus! the name I love so well, m 2 It tells me of a Saviour's love, The name I love to hear; Who died to set me free: It tells me of his precious blood, No saint on carth its worth can tell, The sinner's perfect plea. No heart conceive how dear. 3 It tells me what my Father hath m 6 This name shall shed its fragrance still In store for every day, Along this thorny road, And; though I tread a darksome path, Shall sweetly smooth the rugged hill Yields sunshine all the way. That leads me up to God. mf 7 And there, with all the blood-bought throng, From sin and sorrow free, I'll sing the new eternal song Of Jesus' love to me. Nomn 103 To the foregoing Tune. mf 1 O CHRIST, our hope, our heart's desire, mf 3 But now the bonds of death are burst, Redemption's only spring, The ransom has been paid, Creator of the world art thou, And thou art on thy Father's throne, Its Saviour and its King. In glorious robes arrayed. mp 2 How vast the mercy and the love m 4 O may thy mighty love prevail Which laid our sins on thee, Our sinful souls to spare; And led thee to a cruel death, O may we come before thy throne. To set thy people free. And find acceptance there. mf 5 O Christ, be thou our present joy. Our future great reward: Our only glory may it be

To glory in the Lord.

mp1 O LORD, my best desire fulfil, mf 3 No! rather let me freely yield And help me to resign What most I prize to thee, Life, health, and comfort to thy will, Who never hast a good withheld, And make thy pleasure mine. Or wilt withhold, from me. m 2 Why should I shrink at thy command, m 4 Thy favour, all my journey through, Whose love forbids my fears. Thou art engaged to grant: Or tremble at the gracious hand What else I want, or think I do, That wipes away my tears? "Tis better still to want. mp 5'But, ah!' my inward spirit cries. 'Still bind me to thy sway.

Else the next cloud that veils the skies Drives all these thoughts away,' mp1 VAIN are the hopes the sons of men Upon their works have built: Their hearts by nature are unclean, Their actions full of guilt.

2 Silent let Jew and Gentile stand. Without one vaunting word. And, humbled low, confess their guilt Before heaven's righteous Lord, mp 3 No hope can on the law be built Of justifying grace: The law that shows the sinner's guilt Condemns him to his face.

mf 4 Jesus, how glorious is thy grace! When in thy name we trust, Our faith receives a righteousness That makes the sinner just.

Hymn 111

To the foregoing Tunc.

mp O MAY we stand before the Lamb, When carth and seas are fled. And hear the Judge pronounce our name With blessings on our head.

m

- Seeking for some great thing to do, Or secret thing to know; I would be treated as a child, And guided where I go.
- 4 Wherever in the world I am, In whatsoe'er estate, I have a fellowship with hearts To keep and cultivate; And a work of lowly love to do For-the Lord on whom I wait.
- mf 8 In-a service which thy will appoints There are no bonds for me; For-my inmost heart is taught the truth That makes thy children free; And-a life of self-renouncing love Is-a life of liberty.

Is happy anywhere.

And an earnest need for prayer;

But-a lowly heart, that leans on thee,

- f 1THOU as t gone up on high To mansions in the skies, And round thy throne unceasingly The songs of praise arise: .But we are lingering here, mp
- With sin and care oppressed; Lord, send thy promised Comforter, т
- And lead us to our rest.
- Thou art gone up on high; mf 2 But thou didst first come down, p Through earth's most bitter agony To pass unto thy crown : 7

- And girt with griefs and fears p Our onward course must be; с But only let that path of tears
  - Lead us at last to thee.
- mf 3 Thou art gone up on high ; But thou shalt come again. ſ With all the bright ones of the sky Attendant in thy train: O by thy saving power тp So make us live and die
- That we may stand, in that dread hour, С At thy right hand on high.

KEY F.

- mf 1 For all thy saints, O Lord,
   Who strove in thee to live,
   Who followed thee, obeyed, adored,
   Our grateful hymn receive.
- mp 2 For all thy saints, O Lord, Accept our thankful cry,
   Who counted thee their great reward, And strove in thee to die.
- m 3 They all, in life and death,
   With thee, their Lord, in view,
   Learned from thy Holy Spirit's breath
   To suffer and to do.

4 Thy mystic members fit To join thy saints above, In one unmixed communion knit, And fellowship of love.

 m 5 For this thy name we bless, And humbly beg that we May follow them in holiness, And live and die in thee.

Hymn 131

To the foregoing Tune

- m 1 O WHAT, if we are Christ's, Is earthly shame or loss?
- mf Bright shall the crown of glory be, When we have borne the cross
- p 2 Keen was the trial once, Bitter the cup of woe, When maityred saints, baptized in blood.
  - Christ's sufferings shared below.
- mf 3 Bright is their glory now, Boundless their joy above,
   Where, on the bosom of their God, They rest in perfect love.
- m 4 Lord, may that grace be ours, Like them in faith to bear All that of sorrow, grief, or pain May be our portion here.

mf 5 Enough, if thou<sup>a</sup> at last The word of blessing give, And let us rest beneath thy feet, Where saints and angels live.

- p 1 FAR from my heavenly home, Far from my Father's breast, Funting I cry, 'Blest Spirit, come, And speed me to my rest'
  - 2 Upon the willows long My harp has silent hung;
    How should I sing a cheerful song Till thou inspire my tongue ?
  - 3 My spirit homeward turns,
    And fain would thither flee,
    My heart, O Zion, droops and yearns,
    When I remember thee
- mp 4 To thee, to thee I press, A dark and toilsome road;
  - c When shall I pass the wilderness, And reach the saints' abode '
- m 5 God of my life, be near;
   On thee my hopes I cast;
- c O guide me through the desert here, And bring me home at last.

- m 1 SWFFT feast of love divine!
   Tis grace that makes us free
   To feed upon this bread and wine,
   In memory, Lord, of thee.
- mp 2 Here every welcome guest Waits, Lord, from thee to learn The secrets of thy Father's breast, And all thy grace discern.
  - 3 Here conscience ends its strife, And faith delights to prove The sweetness of the bread of life, The fulness of thy love.
  - 4 That blood that flowed for sin In symbol here we see, And feel the blessed pledge within That we are loved of thee.
- m 5 O, if this glimpse of love Is so divinely sweet,
- mf What will it be, O Lord, above, Thy gladdening smile to meet,
- f 6 To see thee face to face, Thy perfect likeness wear, And all thy ways of wondrous grace Through endless years declare!

On Jewish altars slain, On that dear head of thme, Could give the guilty conscience yeare, While as a penitent I stand And there (onfess my sin. - 2 Songs of praise awoke the moin, When the Prince of Peace was boin; Songs of praise arose, when he Captive led captivity.
- mp 3 Heaven and earth must pass away,
- mf Songs of praise shall crown that day; God will make new heavens, new earth, Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
- mp 4 And can man alone be dumb, Till that glorious kingdom come?
- inf No' the Church delights to raise Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.
  - 5 Saints below, with heart and voice, Still in songs of praise rejoice, Learning here, by faith and love, Songs of praise to sing above.
  - 6 Borne upon their latest breath, Songs of praise shall conquer death,
  - f Then, amidst eternal joy, Songs of praise their powers employ.

- mp | WHEN this passing world is done, When has sunk yon glaring sun,
- m When we stand with Christ in glory, Looking o'er life's funished story,
- mf Then, Lord, shall I fally know, Not till then, how much I owe.
- m 2 When I stand before the throne Dressed in beauty not my own, When I see thee as thou art, Love thee with unsinning heart.
- mf Then, Lord, shall I fally know, Not till then, how much I owe.

- mf 3 When the praise of heaven I hear,

   Loud as thunders to the ear,

   Loud as many waters' noise,

   Sweet as harp's melodious voice,

   f

   Then, Lord, shall I fully know,
- mp4 Even on earth, as through a glass, Darkly, let thy glory pass;
- m Make for viveness feel so sweet, Make thy Spirit's help so meet:
- mf Even on earth, Lord, make me know Something of how much I owe.

Not till then, how much I owe.

- m 5 Chosen not for good in me,
   Wakened up from wrath to flee,
   Hidden in the Saviour's side,
   By the Spirit sanctified,
- mf Teach me, Lord, on earth to show, By my love, how much I owe.

| From thy riven side which flowed,    | Could my tears for ever flow,     |

  Helpless, look to thee for grace;
  Foul, I to the fountain fly;
  wash me, Saviour! or I die.

   When I soar through tracts unknown, See thee on thy judgment throne,

Learn of him to bear the cross.

mp 3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb; There, adoring at his feet, n/ 1 As with gladness men of old Did the guiding star behold; As with joy they hailed its light, Leading onward, beaming bright; So, most gracious Loid, may we Evermore be led to thee. m 2 As with joyful steps they sped,

Saviour, to thy lowly bed,
There to bend the knee before
Thee, whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy seat.

- m 3 As they offered gifts most rare
  At thy cradle rude and bare;
  So may we with holy joy,
  Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
  All our costhest treasures bring,
  Christ, to thee, our beavenly King.
- p 4 Holy Jesus, every day Keep us in the narrow way; And, when earthly things are past,
- c Bring our ransoned souls, at last, Where they need no star to guide, Where no clouds thy glory hide.
- f 5 In the heavenly country bright Need they no created light; Theo its light, its joy, its crown, Thou its sun which goes not down; There for ever may we sing Halleluyahs to our King.

- m 1 Gob of mercy, God of give, Show the bughtness of thy face; Shine upon us, Saviour shine, Fill thy Church with h th divine, And thy siving health extend Unto earth's remotest end
- mf 2 Let the people price thee, Lord; Be by all that have adored; Let the nations shout and sing (flory to their Saviour King;
- M At thy fect their tribute pay, And thy holy will obey
  - f 3 Let the people prace thee, Lord; Earth shall then her fruits afford, God to man his Blessing give, Man to God devoted hve, -
  - f All below and all above, One in joy and light and love.

mp1 JESUS, Lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearcr waters foll,
While the tempest still is high:
p Hide me, O my Saviout, hide,
Till the storm of his is past:

- c Safe into the haven guide;
- . O receive my soul at last'

mp 2 Other refuge have T none; Hangs my helpless soul on thee;

Leave, ah ' leave me not alone, Still support and comfort me.

- All my trust on thee is stayed;
   All my help from thee I bring;
   Cover my defenceless head
   With the shadow of thy wing.
- mf 3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want; More than all in thee I find; Raise the fallon, cheer the famt, Heal the sick, and lead the blind. Just and holy is thy name. I am all unrighteousness: р False and full of sin I am, Thou art full of truth and grace. m inf 4 Plenteous grace with thee is found. Grace to cover all my sin: Let the healing streams abound, Make and keep me pure within. f Thou of life the fountain art: Freely let me take of thee; Spring thou up within my heart. Rise to all eternity.

Hymn 188

To be sung to either of the foregoing l'unes.

mf PRAISE the Lord, his glories show,
Saints within his courts below,
Angels round his thione above,
Praise him, all that share his love
Earth, to heaven exait the strain,
Send it, heaven, to earth again;
Age to age, and shore to shore,
Praise him, praise him, evermore. Amen.

- mf 1 HALL, the day that sees him rise, Ravished from our wishful eyes! Christ, awhile to mortals given, Re-accends his native heaven.
- f There for him high triumph waits: Lift your heads, eternal gates! Wide unfold the radiant scene! Take the King of Glory in!
  - Circled round with angel powers,
     Their triumphant Lord and ours, Conqueror over death and sin, Take the King of Glory in !
- mf Him though highest heaven receives, Still he loves the earth he leaves; Though returning to his throno, Still he calls mankind his own.

- m 3 See, he lifts his hands above; See, he shows the prints of love; Hark, his gracious lips bestow Blessings on his Church below;
- mf Still for us his death he pleads; Prevalent, he intercedes; Near himself prepares our place,-Harbinger of human race.
- m 4 Lord, though parted from our sight, High above yon azure height, Grant our hearts may thither rise, Following thee beyond the skies.
- mf There we shall with thee remain, Partners of thy eudless reign,
- c There thy face unclouded see, Find our heaven of heavens in thee.

Hymn 190

To the foregoing Tune.

f 1 HARK, the song of Jubilee! Loud as mighty thunders' roar, Or the fulness of the sea.
When it breaks upon the shore. Hallelujah! for the Lord God Omnipotent shall reign; Hallelujah! let the word Echo round the earth and main.

- f 2 Hallelujah! hark, the sound, From the depths unto the skies, Wakes above, beneath, around, All creation's harmonies. See Jehovah's banner furled,
  - Sheathed his sword; he speaks-- tis
  - And the kingdoms of this world [done; Are the kingdoms of his Son.

- mf 1 IF God himself be for me, I may a host defy;
  For, when I may, before me
  - My foes confounded fly.
  - 2 This I believe, yea, rather Of this I make my boast, That God is my dear Father, The Friend who loves me most;
  - 3 And that, whate'er betade me, My Saviour is at hand, Through stormy seas to guide me, And bring me safe to land.

- mf 4 I build on this foundation, That Jesus and his blood Alone are my salvation, The true, cternal good.
  - m 5 His Holy Spirit dwelleth
     Within my willing heart,
     Tames it, when it rebuileth,
     And soothes the keenest smart.
- mp6 And, when my soul is lying Weak, tumbling, and oppressed. He pleads with groans and sighing That cannot be expressed.
- m 7 To mine his Spirit speaketh
   Sweet words of soothing power,
   How God, for him that seeketh
   For rest, hath rest in store.
- mf 8 There God himself prepareth My heritage and lot, And, though my body weareth, My heaven shall fail me not.

To the foregoing Tune

- f 1 HALL to the Lord's Anointed, Great David's greater Son! Hail, in the time appointed, His reign on earth begun!
- mf He comes to break oppression, To set the captive free, To take away transgression, And rule in equity.
  - He comes with succour speedy To those who suffer wrong,
    To help the poor and needy,
  - And bid the weak be strong; To give them songs for sighing, Their darkness turn to light, Whose souls, condemned and dying, Were precious in his sight.
- m 3 By such shall he be feared, While sun and moon endure, Beloved, obeyed, revered;
- mf * ror he shall judge the poor, Through changing generations, With justice, mercy, truth, While stars maintain their stations, Or moons renew their youth.
- m 4 He shall come down like showers Upon the fruitful earth, And love, joy, hope, like flowers, Spring in his path to birth.
- and Before him, on the mountains, Shall peace, the herald, go: And righteousness, in fountains, From hill to valley flow.

- m/ 5 Arabia's desert ranger
  To him shall bow the knee,
  The Ethiopian stranger
  His glory come to see;
  With offerings of devotion,
  Ships from the isles shall meet,
  To pour the wealth of ocean
  In tribute at his feet.
  - 6 Kings shall fall down before him, And gold and incense bring; All nations shall adore him, His praise all people sing:
- f For he shall have dominion O'er river, sea, and shore, Far as the eagle's pinion Or dove's light wing can soar,
- m 7 For him shall prayer unceasing And daily vows ascend, His kingdom still increasing, A kingdom without end.
  The mountain dews shall nourish A seed, in weakness sown, Whose fruit shall spread and flourish, And shake like Lebanon.
  C 8 On some first sinteriore
- f 8 O'er every foe victorious, He on his throne shall rest, From age to age more glorious,
- All blessing and all-blest.
  - The tide of time shall never His covenant remove; His name shall stand for ever;
    - That name to us is Love.

- m 1 O THAT the Lord's salvation Were out of Zion come, To heal his ancient nation, To lead his outcasts home '
  p How long the holy city Shall heathen feet profane? Return, O Lord, in pity,
  - Rebuild her walls again.
- mp 2 Let fall thy rod of terror, Thy saving grace impart, Roll back the veil of error, Release the fettered heart.
- mf Let Israel, home returning, Her lost Messiah see; Give oil of joy for mourning, And bind thy Church to thee.

With his own blood he bought her. c And soon the night of weeping pAnd for her life he died. Shall be the morn of song. mf 2 Elect from every nation. mp4 'Mid toil and tribulation. Yet one o'er all the earth, And tumult of her war. Hencharter of salvation She waits the consummation One Lord, one faith, one birth: Of peace for evermore: One holy Name she blesses, Till with the vision glorious ţ Partakes one holy food. Her longing even are blest. And to one hope she presses And the great Church victorious With every grace endued. Shall be the Church at rest.

mf 5 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won.
O happy ones, and holy ! m Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with thee.

Hymn 218

f 1 O DAY of rest and gladness! O day of joy and light! O balm of care and sadness, Most beautiful, most bright! m On thee the high and lowly, Through ages joined in tune, pc Sing, 'Holy, holy, holy!' To the great (dod Triune.

To the foregoing Tune. m 2 On thee, at the creation, The light first had its birth; mf On thee, for our salvation, Christ rose from depths of earth; On thee our Lord victorious The Spirit sent from heaven; And thus on thee most glorious A triple light was given. m 3 Thou art a port protected From storms that round us rise, A garden intersected With streams of Paradise: Thou art a cooling fountain In life's dry dreary sand: mf From thee, like Pisgah's mountain, We view our promised land. m 4 To-day on weary nations The heavenly manna falls; To holv convocations The silver trumpet calls. mf Where gospel light is glowing With pure and radiant beams, _ And living water flowing With soul-refreshing streams. m 5 New graces ever gaining From this our day of rest, We reach the rest remaining To spirits of the blest. To Holy Ghost be praises.

To Father, and to Son; The Church her voice upraises To these, blest Three in One.

m 1 SWEFT the moments, sich in blessing, Which before the cross I spend, Life and health and peace possessing From the sinner's dying Friend.

mp2 Truly blessed is this station, Low before his cross to lie. While I see divine compassion Beaming in his languid eye.

mf 3 Here it is I find my heaven, While upon the Lamb I gaze; Love I much? I'm much forgiven: I'm a minacle of grace. mp 4 Love and grief my heart dividing.

With my tears his feet I'll bathe, m Constant still in faith abiding. Life deriving from his death.

m 5 May I still enjoy this feeling, In all need to Jesus go, Prove his wounds each day more healing, And himself more deeply know.

  - 4 One the object of our journey, One the faith which never tires, One the carnest looking forward, One the hope cur (dod inspires;

   With one Father o'er us shining In his love for evermore.

Feed me till I want no more.

- 2 Open now the crystal torontain, Whence the healing stream doth flow; Let the fire and cloudy pillar Lead me all my journey through. Strong Deliverer, Be thou still my strength and shield.
- p 3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
  Bid my anxious fears subside:
  m Death of death, and hell's Destruction,
  Land me safe on Canaan's side:
- f Songs of praises I will ever give to thee.

Hymn 280

m 1 O SAVIOUR, I have nought to plead, In earth beneath or heaven above, But just my own exceeding need, And thy exceeding love.  m 2 The need will soon be past and gone, Exceeding great, but quickly o'eı;
 mf The love unbought is all thine own,

And lasts for evermore.

> m 1 BREAD of the world, in mercy broken, Wine of the soul, in mercy shed, By whom the words of life were spoken, And in whose death our sins are dead, - mp2 Look on the heart by sorrow broken. Look on the tears by sinners shed: And be thy feast to us the token m That by thy grace our souls are fed.

- The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide !
  - When other helpers fail, and comforts flee, Help of the helpless, O abide with me!
- p 2 Swift to its close ebbs out hfe's little day : Eath's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
- ('hange and decay in all around I see: m O thou who changest not, abide with me!
  - 3 Not a brief glance I beg, a passing word; But, as thou dwell'st with thy disciples, Lord,
    - Familiar, condescending, patient, free, Come, notto sojourn, but abide, with me !
- mp4 Come not in terrors, as the King of kings. But kind and good, with healing in thy mf wings,

٤,

- $m_{1}$  ABIDE with me ! fast falls the eventide :  $m_{2}$  Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea:
  - m Come, Friend of sinners, thus abide with . me!
    - 5 Thou on my head in early youth didst smile.
      - And, though rebellious and perverse meanwhile. Thou hast not left me, oft as 1 left thee:
      - On to the close, O Lord, abide with me!
    - 6 I need thy presence every passing hour:
    - What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
    - Who like thyself my guide and stay can be?
    - Through cloud and sunshine. O abide with mat
  - mf7 I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless;
    - Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness:
    - Where is death's sting ? where grave, thy victory ? I triumph still, if thou abide with me.
  - mp8 Keep thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
  - c Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
  - mf Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
  - m In life and death, O Lord, abide with me!

- mp 1 THOUGH troubles assail, and dangers affricht. Though friends should all fail, and foes all unite, Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide, mf
  - The Scripture assures us the Lord will provide.
  - m 2 The birds without barn or storehouse are fed; From them let us learn to trust for our bread.
  - His saints what is fitting shall ne er be denied, So long as 'tis written, 'The Lord will provide.' mf
  - m 3 We may, like the ships, by tempests be tassed On perilous deeps, but cannot be lost; Though Satan enrages the wind and the tide,
  - The promise engages the Lord will provide. mf
  - m 4 His call we obey, like Abraham of old, Not knowing our way, but faith makes us bold;
  - For, though we are strangers, we have a good guide, And trust, in all dangors, the Lord will provide. mf

Hvmn 290

To the foregoing Tune.

- mp 1 I ONCE was a stranger to grace and to God; I knew not my danger and felt not my load; Though friends spoke in rapture of Christ on the tree. Jehovah Tsidkenu was nothing to me.
  - 2 Like tears from the daughters of Zion that roll, I wept when the waters went over his soul; Yet thought not that my sins had nailed to the tree Jehovah Tsidkenu —'twas nothing to me.
  - 3 When free grace awoke me, by light from on high, Then legal fcars shook me, I trembled to die; No refuge, no safety, in self could I see;
- Jehovah Tsidkenu my Saviour must be. mf
- m 4 My terrors all vanished before the sweet name;
- My guilty fears banished, with boldness I came To drink at the fountain, life-giving and free; C
- Jehovah Tsidkenu is 411 Chings to me.
- p 5 Even treading the valley, the shadow of death.
- This watchword shall rally my faltering breath: m, For, when from life's fever my God sets me free.
- Jehovah Tsidkenu my death-song shall be. mf

- mf 1 O BRING to Jehovah your tribute of praise, The guard of your life, the guide of your ways; The Lord of creation, he sits on his throne: The gold and the silver he claims as his own.
- m 2 Whate'er you possess, 'tis proof of his love, The gifts from beneath, the gifts from above; He gave you your treasures, the corn, oil, and wine, The pearl of the ocean, the gem of the mine.
- mf 3 But, high above all, he gave you his Son,
- To die in your stead, for sin to atone: m No mine's golden treasure, no pearl of the sea, From thraldom redeemed you; his blood set you free.
- mf 4 The source of all grace, he needs not your aid; The world and its wealth at his footstool are laid; The beasts of the forest acknowledge his claim; The fowls of the mountains, he knows them by name.
- mp 5 Then what can you give, who have nought to bestow, But-a heart full of sin, and a life full of woe? The cross of his sorrows he calls you to bear ; The wants of his peopledie bids you to share.
- m 6 Then yield to the Lord the gifts of his hand ; "Tis his to dispense, 'tis his to command :
- To the poor and the needy your treasures impart, C And give to your Saviour the love of your heart.

- m 1 LEAD, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom, Lead thou me on !
- p The night is dark, and I am far from home, Lead thou me on!
- m Keep thou my feet; I do not ask to see The distant scene,—one step enough for me.

mp 2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou Shouldst lead me on;

I loved to choose and see my path; but now Lead thou me on!

I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears, Pride ruled my will: romember not past years.

mf 3 So long thy power hath blessed me, sure it still Will lead me on,

O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till The night is gone;

And with the morn those angel faces smile Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

Dread not his rage and power;

- m What though your courage sometimes faints.
- mf His seeming triumph o'er God's saints Lasts but a little hour.
  - 2 Be of good cheer; your cause belongs To him who can avenge your wrongs; Leave it to him, our Lord: Though hidden yet from all our eyes, He sees the Gidgon who shall rise To save us and his Word.
- 3 As true as God's own word is true, .
   Nor earth nor bell with all their crews.
   Against us shall prevail.
   A jest and byword are they grewn;
   God is with us, we are his own;
   Our victory cannot fail.
- mf 4 Amen! Lord Jesus, grant our prayer; Great Captain, now thine sem make bare:

Fight for us once again :

ff So shall thy saints and martyrs raise A mighty chorus to thy araise, World without end, Amen. به د ب

 And free us from all ills
 In this world and the next.

  mf I shall behold his face,
  1 shall his power ad re,'
  And sing the wonders of his grace
  - For everyore.

- m 4 The goodly land I see, With peace and plenty blest, A land of sacred liberty, And endless rest;
   mf There milk and honey flow, And oil and wine abound, And trees of life for ever grow, With mercy crowned.
- f 5 There dwells the Lord our King, The Lord our Rightoousness:
  Triumphant o'er the world and sin, The Prince of Peace, On Zion's sacred height, His kingdom still maintains, And, glorious with his saints in light, For ever reigns.
- f 6 The whole triumphant host Give thanks to God on high: 'Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost !'
  - They ever cry. Hail, Abraham's God, and mine! I join the heavenly lays; All might and majesty are thine And endless praise.

mp 1 GREAT God! and wilt thou condescend To be my Father and my Friend? I a poor child, and thou so high, The Lord of earth and air and sky.

- 2 Art thou my Father? Caust thou bear To hear my poor imperfect prayer? Or wilt thou listen to the praise That such a little one can raise?
- m 3 Art thou my Father? Let me be A meek, obedient child to thee, And try, in word and deed and thought, To serve and please thee as I ought.
  - 4 Art thou my Father? I'll depend Upon the care of such a Friend, And only wish to do and be Whatever scemeth good to thee.
- mf 5 Art thou my "Father?" Then at last, When all my days on earth are past, Send down and take me in thy love To be thy better child above.

- m 1 WE are but little children weak,
   Nor born in any high estate;
   What can we do for Jesus' sake,
   Who is so high and good and great?
  - 2 O, day by day, each Christian child Has much to do, without, within, A death to die for Jesus' sake, A weary war to wage with sin.
- mp 3 When deep within our swelling hearts The thoughts of pride and anger rise, When bitter words are on our tongues, And tears of passion in our eyes,
  - m 4 Then we may stay the angry blow, Then we may check the hasty word, Give gentle answers back again, And fight a battle for our Lord.
- mf 5 With smiles of peace, and looks of love, Light in our dwellings we may make, Bid kind good-humour brighten there,
- And still do all for Jesus' sake.
- m 6 There's not a child so small and weak, But has his little cross to take,
   His little work of love and praise
   That he may do for Jesus' sake,

- How sweet the breath, beneath the hill, Of Sharon's dewy rose !
- mf 2 Lo, such the child whose early feet The paths of peace have trod, Whose secret heart, with influence sweet. Is upward drawn to God.
- mp 3 By cool Siloam's shady rill The lilv must decay. The rose that blooms beneath the hill Must shortly fade away.
- (mp4 And soon, too soon, the wintry hour Of man's maturer age Will shake the soul with sorrow's power And stormy passion's rage.
  - m 5 O thou whose infant feet were found Within thy Father's shrine, Whose years, with changeless virtue Were all alike divine,---[crowned,
    - 6 Dependent on thy bounteous breath. We seek thy grace alone,
      - In childhood, manhood, age, and death, To keep us still thine own.

Hymn 341 HORSLEY. William Horsley, Mus. Doc KRY ED. mp 1 THERE is a green hill far away, m 3 He died that we might be forgiven, Without a city wall, He died to make us good, That we might go at last to heaven, Where the dear Lord was crucified, Who died to save us all. Saved by his precious blood, p 2 We may not know, we cannot tell 4 There was no other good enough What pains he had to bear, To pay the price of sin ; mp But we believe it was for us He only could unlock the gate He hung and suffered there. Of heaven, and let us in. . m 5 O dearly, dearly has he loved,

m 5 O dearly, dearly has he loved, And we must love him too, And trust in his redeeming blood, And trust in his works to do.

   HUSHED was the evening hymn,

   The temple courts were dark,

   The lamp was burning dim

   Before the sacred ark,

   m
   When suddenly a voice divine
- Rang through the silence of the shrine.
- mp?? The old man, meek and mild, The priest of Israel, slept;
   His watch the temple child, The little Levite, kept;
- m And what from Eli's sense was sealed The Lord to Hannah's son revealed.
- O give me Samuel's car, The open ear, O Lord, Alive and quick to hear Each whisper of thy word, -Like him to answer at thy call, And to obey thee first of all.
- 4 O give me Samuel's heart, A lowly heart that waits Where in thy house thou art, Or watches at thy gatese By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of thy will.
- m 5 O give me Samuel's miud,
  A sweet, unmurmuring faith,
  Obedient and resigned
  To thee in life and death,
  That I may read with child-like eyes
  Truths that are hidden from the wise.

DIJON

Typ 1 GENTLE Jesus, meek and mild, Look upon a little child, Pity my simplicity, Suffer me to come to thee.

- 2 Fain I would to thee be brought; Blessed Lord, forbid it not; In the kingdom of thy grace Give a little child a place.
- m 3 Lamb of God, I look to thee; Thou shalt my example be; Thou art gentle, meek, and mild; Thou wast once a little child.

In the early songs they raise.

- m 4 Fain I would be as thou art; Give me thy obedient heart; Thou art pitiful and kind, Let me have thy loving mind.
- mp 5 Loving Jesus, gentle Lamb,
  In thy gracious hands I am;
  Make me, Saviour, what thou ait;
  Live thyself within my heart.
- mf 6 I shall then show forth thy praise, Serve thee all my happy days; Then the world shall always see Christ, the Holy Child, in me.

Take me to thy heavenly home.

m 1 AGAIN the monu of gladness, The morn of light, is here; And earth itself looks fairer, And heaven itself more near; The bells, like angel voices, Speak pcace to every breast; And all the land lies quiet To keep the day of rest. Refrain.

> Glory be to Jerus ! Let all his children say; 'He rose again, he rosr again, ٠ On this glad day /

m 2 Again, O loving Saviour, The children of thy grace Prepare themselves to seek thee Within thy chosen place. mf Our song shall rise to greet thee, If thou our hearts wilt raise: If thou our lips wilt open, Our mouth shall show thy praise. 3 The shining choir of angels That rest not day or night. The crowned and palm-decked martyrs, The saints arrayed in white. The happy lambs of Jesus In pastures fair above,-These all adore and praise him Whom we too praise and love. 4 The Church on earth rejoices To join with these to-day; In every tongue and nation She calls her sons to pray; Across the Northern snow-fields, Boneath the Indian palms, She makes the same pure offering, And sings the same sweet realms. f 5 Tell out, sweet bells, his praises! Sing, children, sing his name! Still louder and still further His mighty deeds proclaim, f Till all whom he redeemed Shall own him Lord and King, Till every knee shall worship, And every tongue shall sing, 'Glory be to Jesus! Let all creation say: He rose again, he rose again, On this glad day!'

EVANGEL.

| # 1 TELL me the old, old story     | p 5 Tell me the story softly,   |
|------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Of unseen things above,            | With earnest tones and grave;   |
| Of Jesus and his glory,            | Remember, I 'm the sinner       |
| Of Jesus and his love.             | Whom Jesus came to save.        |
| $p \ge T$ ell me the story simply, | mp 6 Tell me the story always,  |
| As to a little child;              | If you would really be,         |
| For I am weak and weary            | In any time of trouble,         |
| And helpless and defiled.          | A comforter to me.              |
| at 3 Tell me the story slowly,     | m 7 Tell me the same old story, |
| That 1 may take it in.             | When you have cause to fear     |
| That wonderful redemption,         | That this world's empty glory   |
| God's remedy for sin!              | Is costing me too dear.         |
| •                                  | 1                               |

4 Tell me the story often, For I forget so soon; The early dew of morning Has passed away at noon.

mp1 LORD, a little band and lowly,

We are come to sing to thee;

- p Thou art great and high and holy; O how solemn we should be!
- Fill our hearts with thoughts of Jesus, And of heaven, where he is gone;
   And let nothing ever please us
   He would grieve to look upon.
  - 2 For we know the Lord of Glory Always sees what children do, And is writing now the story Of our thoughts and actions too. Let our sins be all forgiven; Make us fear whate'er is wrong; Lead us on our way to heaven, There to sing a nobler song.

Scattered gleanings we may gather, Though we are but young and few; Little clusters Help to fill the garners too. 2 Toiling early in the morning, Catching moments through the day, Nothing small or lowly scorning, While we work, and watch, and pray, Gathering gladly Freewill offerings by the way.

m 3 Up and ever at our calling,

- d Till in death our lips are dumb,
- c Or till, sin's dominion falling, Christ shall in his kingdom come,
- mf And his children Reach their everlasting home.
- m 4 Steadfast then in our endeavour,
  - Heavenly Father, may we be !
- mf And for ever and for ever
  - We will give the praise to thee,
- f Hallelujah
  - Singing all eternity.

- m 1 THERE came a little Child to earth And the angels of God proclaimed his birth,
- mp Out on the night, so calm and still,
- m For they knew that the Child on Bethlehem's hill
- mf 2 Far away in a goodly land, Children with crowns of glory stand, In white more pure than the spotless snow; In the psalm which the angels sang long ago
- m 3 They sing how the Lord of that world so fair And that they might a crown of glory wear And in mortal weakness, in want and pain,
- c That the children of earth might for ever reign
- f 4 He has put on his kingly apparel now, And he leads to where fountains of water flow And for evermore, in their robes most fair Those ransoned children his praise declare

Long ago; High and low. Their song was heard; Was Christ the Lord.

Fair and bright, Robed in white, And their tongues units On that still fight.

A child was born, p Wore acrown of thorn; Came forth to die, With film on high.

In that goodly land; That chosen band; And undefiled, Who was onte a child.

GOSHEN.

- m 1 GREAT Shepherd of the sheep,
  Who all thy flock dost keep,
  Leading by waters calm,
  Do thou my footsteps guide
  To follow by thy side;
  Make me thy little lamb.
- p 2 I fear I may be torn
  By many a sharp-set thorn,
  As far from thee I stray;
  My weary feet may bleed,
  For rough are paths which lead
  Out of thy pleasant way.
- m 3 But, when the road seems long, Thy tender arm and strong The weary one will bear;
- mf And thou wilt wash me clean, And lead to pastures green, Where all the flowers are fair;
  - 4 Till-from the soil of sin Cleansed and made pure within---Dear Saviour, whose I am, Thou bringest me in love To thy sweet fold above, A little snow-white lamfr.
