

The Attaché

Edited by Robert A. Hudson

Words & Music by John H. Hewitt

Animato Scherzando

7

7

1. Oh! where is my lov - er? tell me, I
2. He says he's at - ta - ché to some for -
3. Some say he's a swin - dler, and lives by

Chords: F, F dim, F, F, F, F dim, F

14

14

pray? Has an - y one seen him pass - ing this way? He's eign count, And speaks bro - ken En - glish as sure - ly he ought; He his means, Au fait at a flirt with a miss in her teens; But

Chords: F, F, C7, Bb/C, C7(omit 5), F

19 F F dim F F F F dim F F F

tall and he's slen - der, and dress - es quite neat, High crown on his sings so di - vine - ly such pa - thos such grace, That mu - sic's soul this is all scan - dal by en - vy be - gan, I know that my

24 C7 F Bb C7(omit5) F Bb Bbdim Bb Bb

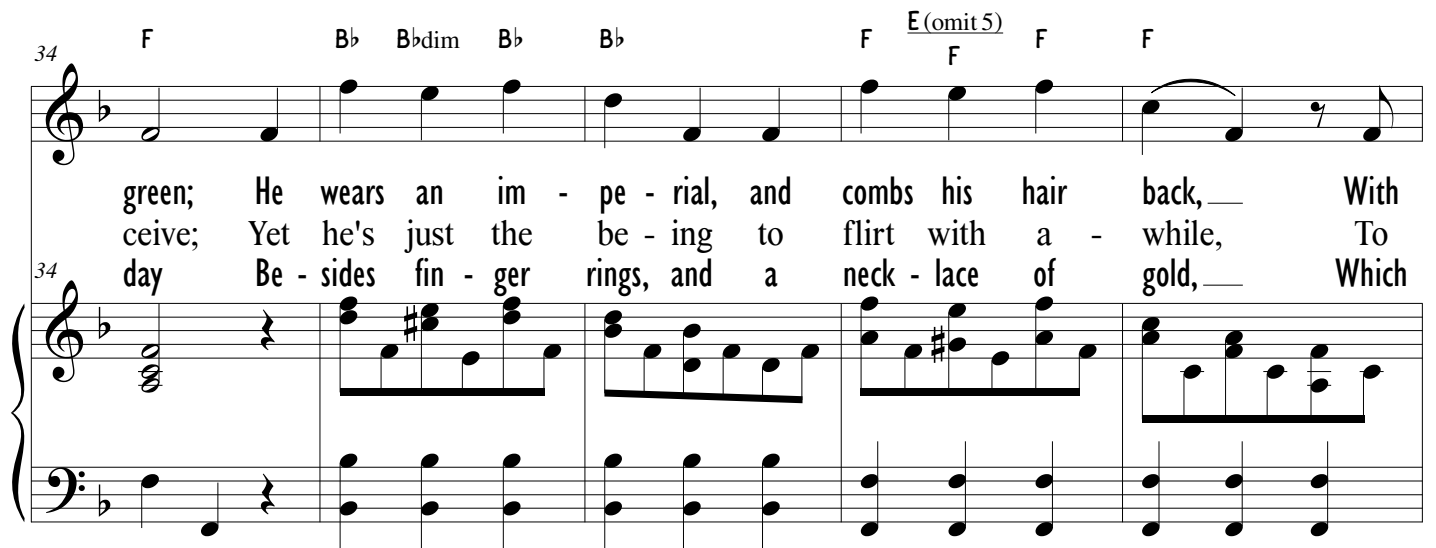

head and high heels on his feet. Can no one in - form me if breathes from each twist of his face. He told me he loved me that lov - er's a ver - y nice man. If an - y - one's seen him, I

29 F F dim F F F C7 F Gm/Bb C7

such they have seen? With striped vel - vet waist-coat and spec - ta - cles
I don't be - lieve, For such a nice fel - low is bound to de - wish he would say, For he bor - rowed ten dol - lars off me yes - ter -

34 F B \flat B \flat dim B \flat B \flat F E (omit 5) F F

green; He wears an im - pe - rial, and combs his hair back, — With ceive; Yet he's just the be - ing to flirt with a - while, To day Be - sides fin - ger rings, and a neck - lace of gold, — Which

39 F C7 F G \flat /B \flat C7 F

down on his chin and mus - tache quite black.
make the belles jeal - ous and old peo - ple smile.
some peo - ple tell me this morn - ing he sold!

ff

D.S.

45

45

