

55
Certificate dated 14 September 1846
Publication deposited same day.

21.

LADY AWAKEN,

A Serenade

Composed & Inscribed to

MISS E. L. WARING

of Prince George's Co. Md.

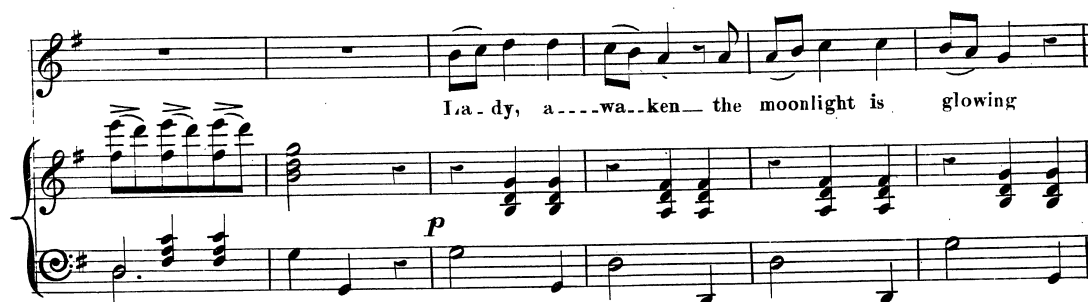

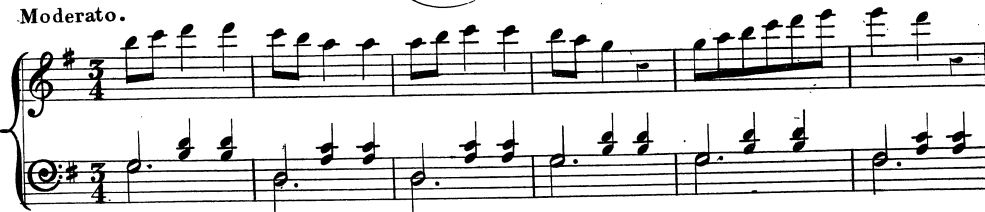

BY

J. H. HEWITT.

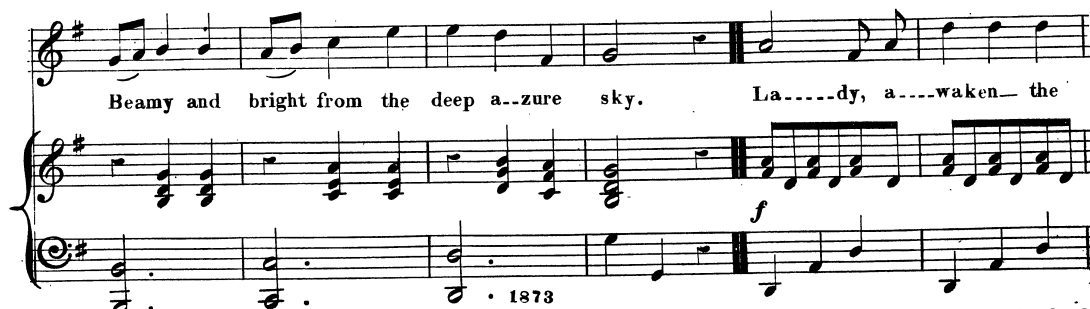

Baltimore, Published by G. Willig Jr.

Moderato.

PIANO

La-dy, a-wa-ken the moonlight is glowing Beamy and bright from the deep a-zure sky. La-dy, a-wa-ken the

• 1873

Entered according to Act of Congress in the Year 1844 by G. Willig Jr. in the Clerks Office of the District Court of Maryland.

night breeze is blowing Kit-----ful and fresh from its chambers on high.

La-dy, a-----wa-ken that moonlight may see Its beauty and softness reflected from thee.

2.

Lady, awaken— the night dew is steeping
 Softly and sweetly the meadows afar;
 Lady, awaken— the night wave is sleeping
 Oh! wake thee, and list to thy lover's guitar.
 Lady, awaken &c.

3.

Lady, awaken— the night bird is chaunting
 Fondly and wildly his sweet serenade;
 Lady, awaken— thy presence is wanting
 To bless this enchantment before it shall fade.
 Lady, awaken &c.