

D A I N T Y D A V Y.

BY drinking drive dull care away,
     Be brisk and airy,
     Never vary
 In your tempers, but be gay ;
     Let mirth know no cessation :
 We all were born, mankind agree,
 From dull reflection to be free,
 But he that drinks not, cannot be :
     Then answer your creation.

When Cupid wounds, grave Hymen heals,
     Then all our whining,
     Wishing, striving,
 To embrace what beauty yields,
     Is left when in possession ;
 But Bacchus sends such treasure forth,
 Possession never palls its worth,
 We always wish'd for't from our birth,
     And shall for ever wish on.
