MY bonny Lizae Baillie,
 I'll row ye in my plaidie,
 And ye maun gang alang wi' me,
 And be a Highland lady.

“ I am sure they wad nae ca’ me wise,
 Gin I wad gang wi’ you, fir ;
 For I can neither card or spin,
 Nor yet milk ewe or cow, fir.”

“ My bonny Lizae Baillie,
 Let nane o’ these things daunt ye ;
 Ye’ll ha’e nae need to card or spin,
 Your mither weel can want ye.”

Now she’s cast aff her bonny shoen,
 Made o’ the gilded leather ;
 And she’s put on her Highland brogues,
 To skip amang the heather.

And she’s cast aff her bonny gown,
 Made o’ the silk and fattin ;
 And she’s put on a tartan plaid,
 To row amang the braken.

She wad nae ha’e a Lawland laird,
 Nor be an English lady ;
 But she wad gang wi’ Duncan Græme,
 And row her in his plaidie.
