POLYPHONIES VOCALES DE LA RENAISSANCE

Luca Marenzio (1553-1599)
Vaghi e lieti fanciulli

à six voix

A musical score for six voices, likely a madrigal, from the 'Secondo libro de madrigali a sei voci' by Angelo Gardano, published in Venezia in 1584. The score consists of six staves, each with a different vocal range: soprano (V), alto (A), tenor (S), bass (T), basso continuo (B), and basso continuo (B). The music is in common time, with a treble clef for the top three voices and a bass clef for the bottom three voices. The key signature is B-flat major. The vocal parts are written in black ink on five-line staves. The lyrics are written below the vocal parts, with some words underlined. The score includes several measures of music, with the vocal parts often overlapping or providing harmonic support.

A musical score for voice and piano. The vocal part is in soprano clef, and the piano part is in treble clef. The score consists of five systems of music. The first system starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and common time. It contains lyrics: "e lie - ti fan-ciul - li," followed by a measure of rests, then "Gui - da - te dol - ci a-mo - ro - set - ti bal - li," and another measure of rests. The second system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and common time. It contains lyrics: "lie - ti fan - ciul - li," followed by a measure of rests, then "e lie - ti fan - ciul - li," and another measure of rests. The third system starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and common time. It contains lyrics: "lie - ti fan-ciul - li," followed by a measure of rests, then "e lie - ti fan - ciul - lin" (with a fermata over the final note), and another measure of rests. The fourth system starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and common time. It contains lyrics: "Gui - da - te dol - ci a-mo - ro - set - ti bal - li," and another measure of rests. The fifth system starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and common time. It contains lyrics: "3" (with a fermata over the note), and another measure of rests.
