P R E F A C E.

In the following adaptation of Chants to the Canticles and Psalter, in order to consult all tastes, Three Series of Chants are provided.

1. Series No. I. consists of the Ancient Chants of the Church. These may be sung either in unison, with the short score as an organ accompaniment; or in harmony, the parts of which have been made as vocal as possible.

2. Series No. II. consists of Anglican Single Chants. In this Series, founded on the traditional use of Westminster, most of the older Chants were originally composed for the Psalms to which they are here affixed.

3. Series No. III. consists of Double Chants, including some few which may be considered somewhat florid, but are both popular and good of their kind.

4. To meet the requirement of a change of Chant where there is a change of subject, whether in the same Psalm or in two consecutive Psalms, each Series, where necessary, contains a succession of Chants, major or minor, adapted in key to follow each other.

5. Wherever a changeable Chant is employed for this purpose, the minor form—whether it be the one first used or not—is the one given, the signature of the major form being added at the end : but this change should be attempted only by skilled choirs.

6. In order to give the greatest variety in the least space, no Chant, except in the case of the first Series, has been inserted in the Psalter more than once. By this means a choice of two hundred and fifty old standard Chants is provided ; to which fifty modern Chants, by living composers, are added in an Appendix.

7. With regard to the pointing of the words of the Psalms, so perplexing a variety has arisen from existing pointed Psalters having been arranged upon no definite principle, that it seemed advisable to recur to, at once, and to carry out, consistently and uniformly, the old and original principle laid down in the model verse given by Dr. Boyce. (' Cathedral Music,' Vol. I. p. 2).

O come let us sing un-|to the | Lord || let us heartily rejoice in the strength of | our sal-|va-|tion.

The fewest syllables possible, consistently with their correct accentuation, are given to the varied notes of the Chant ; also it is observable, that the musical treatment of the word "salvation," is that which is usually adopted for it, and for other words of analogous form, in Services and Anthems, where the composer, unbiassed by conventionalism, follows his natural taste. Besides, the revival of this, the oldest form of adaptation of English words to the Anglican Chant (for it is the adaptation employed by Tallis) is the more desirable, as it corresponds so closely with their previous adaptation to the Ancient Chants, as to render the same printed arrangement of the Psalter equally available for both species.

In conclusion, it must be allowed that, as it has been most truly observed, "to point the Psalter for the purposes of chanting is an undertaking of extreme difficulty and delicacy. Not only is a thorough appreciation of the spirit and emphasis of the words among the necessary requirements, but, at the same time, a knowledge of the nature and accent of the Chants to be used is quite indispensable, as well as that familiarity with the best methods of setting words to music, which none but a practised musician possesses, and the most refined niceness of taste. . . . A quick and inconsiderate criticism is to be deprecated." *

Had it occurred to Dr. Elvey to return to the principle laid down by Dr. Boyce, little would have been left for succeeding Editors to accomplish.

* Preface to Dr. Stephen Elvey's Psalter.

APPENDIX.

ALPHABETICAL AND HISTORICAL INDEX.

EXPLANATION.

(') The acute accent is placed on the accented syllable to be sung to the first note of the Chant after the reciting note.

This accented syllable and those that follow are divided into three portions for the middle, and five for the close of the verse, for the corresponding notes, of which a Chant ordinarily consists.

To effect this with precision, the following marks are adopted—

- (-) The hyphen separates two syllables of one word, to be sung to different notes.
- (~) The tie unites two syllables of different words, to be sung to one minim (or its equivalent).
- (..) Two points indicate two minims (or their equivalent), to be sung to one syllable.
- (^) The circumflex accent marks the last syllable, of the words sung to the reciting note, which ought to be accented.

N.B. In those Chants where the reciting note is followed by an unaccented or passing note, if this note is to be assigned to a separate syllable or syllables, they are marked off from the preceding syllable or word by a point (.); but if the last syllable sung to the reciting note bears the circumflex accent, this syllable will be sung to the reciting note and the unaccented note also.

Glory be to the Fa¹ ther,.....and to the So²n : and.....to the Ho³-ly Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ev - er shall be : world - with - out end. A - men.

The marks pp, p, mf, f, ff in the margin are intended only approximately to indicate piano and forte, &c., but always to mark the transition of sense from one paragraph to another, and therefore a suitable occasion for a change of stop on the organ.

With the same view (viz., to mark the transitions of sense), 2d Pt. is intended to show where, if a double Chant be used, the second part of it should be employed, out of its natural order.

The first bar in the series No. I. is to be used only to the first verse of the Psalms; but may be used to every verse of the Canticles on Sundays and Festivals.

In those Chants in series No. I., where two double bars occur in the middle of the Chant, the first is to be used when more than one syllable is assigned to the last bar, and the second when only one syllable is assigned to it.

The minims with united stems, while they show the notes that are to be sung to the same syllable, indicate a slight acceleration of time upon the strict minim.

It should be borne in mind that, as chanting is only musical declamation, strictness of time should always give way to the proper, deliberate accentuation and punctuation of the words; especially where three syllables (though short and unaccented) are assigned to one note (Ps. vii, v. 14, Ps. xxvii, v. 15.) Even the commas should be observed, and at all other stops the breath taken also, as in reading. The bars, in fact, are employed more to indicate the correct accent of the notes, and to facilitate the adaptation to the words, than to mark a rigorous exactitude of time.

Cheerful Psalms should be chanted more briskly than those which are Penitential.

THE CANTICLES,
ETC.

MORNING PRAYER.

¶ Then shall be said or sung this Psalm following: except on Easter-Day, upon which another Anthem is appointed; and on the Nineteenth day of every Month it is not to be read here, but in the ordinary Course of the Psalms.

VENITE, EXULTEMUS DOMINO. Psal. xciv.

f O'COME, let us sing ún-to the Lord:
let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our sal-vä-tion.

Let us come before his présence with thanks-giving: and shew oursêlves glád
in him with Psalms.

For the Lórd is a gréat God: and a gréat Kíng above äll gods.

In his hand are all the cörners of the earth: and the strength of the hîlls is hîs äl-so.

2d Pt. The sea is hîs, and hê made-it: and his hânds prepar-ed the dry land.

mf O come, let us worship, and fäll down:
and kneel before the Lórd our Mä-ker.

For hê is the Lórd our God: and we are the people of his pasture,* änd the sheép of his hand.

To day if ye will hear his voice, hârden p
not your hearts: as in the provocation,
and as in the day of temptätion ín the
wil-derness;

When your fâthers témp-t-ed me: prøved
mé, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I grieved with this generä-tion, and said: It is a people that do err in their hêarts, for they hâve
not known my ways.

Unto wôm I swäre in my wrath:
that they shôuld not én-ter into my rest.

Glory be to the Fâther, änd to the ff
Son: änd to the Ho-ly Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is nów,
and év-er shall-be: wörld without end.

EASTER DAY.

¶ At Morning Prayer, instead of the Psalm, O come, let us sing, &c., these Anthems shall be sung or said.

f CHRIST our'pâssover is sacrific-ed
for-us: thêrefore lét us keep the feast;
mf Not with the'old leaven, nor with the léaven of má-líce-and wickedness: but with the unleavened bréad of síncé-ri-ty and truth. [1 Cor. v. 7.]

f CHRIST being'raised from the déad
dî-eth-no more: death hath no môre domín-ion o-ver him.

p For in'that he died, he dîed unto sîn
once: but in that he líveth, he lív-eth
un-to God.

Like-wise'reckon ye also yourselves to be déad indéed unto sîn: but alive unto Gôd through Jê-sus Christ our Lord. [Rom. vi. 9.]

CHRIST is'risen from the dead: and f becôme the first-fruits-of them that slept.

Fôr'sínce by mán came death: by man p
came álso the resurrec-tion of the dead.

Fôr'as in Ádam éll die: even so in Christ shall ál be made a-live. [1 Cor. xv. 20.]

Glo-ry'be to the Fâther, and to the ff

QUICUNQUE VULT.

WHO-SO'EVER will be saved : before all things it is necessary that he hold the Cath-olic Faith.

Which Faith except every one do keep whole and un-de-filed : without doubt he shall pe-rish év-er-last-ing-ly.

mf And the C^otholick F^aith is this : That we worship one God in Trⁱnity, and Trⁱn-ity-in U-ni-ty.

N^either confound-ing the Persons : nôr di-vîd-ing the S^ub-stance.

For there is one Person of the Father, anôther of the Son : and anô-ther of the Ho-ly Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghôst, is all one : the Glory equal, the M^ajesty c^o-e-t^er-nal.

S^uch as the Father is, s^uch is the Son : and s^uch is the Ho-ly Ghost.

The Father uncre^ate, the S^on uncre-ate : and the Hô-ly Ghôst un-cre-ate.

The Father incomprehensible, the S^on in-c^om-pre-hensible : and the Holy Ghôst in-c^om-pre-h^en-sible.

The Father e-t^ernal, the S^on e-t^ernal : and the Hô-ly Ghôst e-t^er-nal.

f And yet they are not thrée e-t^ernals : b^ut ône e-t^er-nal.

As also there are not three incomprehensibles, nor thrée un-cre-ated : but one uncreated, and ône in-c^om-pre-h^en-sible.

mf So likewise the Father is Almⁱghty,

the S^on Al-mighty : and the Hô-ly Ghôst Al-migh-ty.

And yet they are not thrée Al-mighties : b^ut ône Al-migh-ty.

So the Father is G^od, the S^on is God : and the Hô-ly Ghost is God.

And yet they are not thrée Gods : b^ut ône God.

So likewise the Father is L^ord, the S^on mf Lord : and the Hô-ly Ghôst Lord.

And y^et not thrée Lords : b^ut ône f Lord.

For like as we are comp^elled by the mf Chris-tian verity : to acknowledge every Person by hims^elf : to be G^od and Lord ;

So are we forbⁱdden by the C^o-tholick Re-ligion : to say, There be thrée G^ods, or thrée Lords.

The F^ather is made of none : neither cre^a-ted, nôr be-g^ot-ten.

The S^on is of the F^a-ther-a-lone : not made, nor cre^at-ed, b^ut be-g^ot-ten.

The Holy Ghost is of the F^ather and of the Son : neither made, nor created, nor beg^ot-ten, b^ut pro-c^eed-ing.

So there is one Father, not three f Fathers ; one S^on, not thrée Sons : one Holy Ghôst, not thrée Ho-ly Ghosts.

And in this Trinity none is a-f^ore, or mf a-f^oter other : none is gr^eater, or l^ess than-a-nôth-er ;

But the whole three Persons are c^o-e-t^er-nal-to-gether : and c^o-e-qual.

So that in all things, as is a-foresaid :

AT MORNING PRAYER.

the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity : is to be wor-ship-ped.

f He therefore that will be saved : must thus think of the Trin-ity.

mf Furthermore, it is necessary to éverlast-ing sal-va-tion : that he also believe rightly the Incarná-tion of our Lord Je-sus Christ.

For the right Faith is, that we believe and con-fess : that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Sôn of Gód, is God and Man ;

God, of the Substance of the Father, begóttén before the worlds : and Man, of the Substance of his Mô-ther, bôrn in the world :

Perfect Gód, and pér-fect Man : of a reasonable soul and hú-man flesh sub-sist-ing ;

Equal to the Fâther, as touch-ing his Godhead : and inferior to the Fâther, as touch-ing his Mân-hood.

Who although he be Gód and Man : yet he is not twó, but óne Christ ;

One ; not by conversion of the Gódhead in-to flesh ; but by táking of the Mân-hood in-to God ;

One altogeth-er ; nôt by confú-sion of Substance : bú-ty by ú-nity of Për-son.

For as the reasonable soul and flesh is óne man : so Gód and Mân is óne Christ ;

Who súffered for our sal-va-tion : descended into hell, rose agáin the thírd day from the dead.

He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Fâther, Gód Al-mighty : from whence he shall come to júdge the quick and the dead.

At whose coming all men shall rise agáin with their bodies : and shall gíve ac-count for their ówn works.

And they that have done good shall go into lífe év-er-lasting : and they that have done évil in to év-er-last-ing fire.

This is the Cá-tholick Faith : which except a man believe faithfully he cán-not be sáv-ed.

Glory be to the Fâther, and to the ff Son : and to the Ho-ly Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is nów, and év-er shall be : wórd with-out end. A-men.

PSALMS OF DAVID.

THE FIRST DAY.

MORNING PRAYER.

No. I. 1.

No. II. 1.

No. III. 1.

PSALM i. Beatus vir, qui non abiit, &c.

mf BLESS-ED¹ is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners : and hath not sāt in the seat of the scorn-ful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord : and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the wa-ter-side : that will bring forth his fruit in due sea-son.

4 His leaf also shall not wither : and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall pros-per.

f 5 As for the ungodly, it is not so with them : but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment : neither the sinners in the congregation of the right-eous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous : and the way of the ungodly shall per-ish.

PSALM ii. Quare fremuerunt gentes ?

f WHY do the heathen so furiously rage to-gether : and why do the people ima-gine a vain thing ?

2 The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take coun-sel-to-gether : against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

3 Let us break their bonds a-sunder : and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them to scorn : the Lord shall have them in de-ri-sion.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath : and vex them in his sore dis-plea-sure.

6 Yet have I set my King : upon my holy hill of Si-on.

7 I will preach the law, whereof the Lord hath said unto me : Thou art my Son, this day have I be-got-ten thee.

8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine in-heritance : and the utmost parts of the earth for thy pos-ses-sion.

9 Thou shalt brüise them with a rod of iron : and break them in pieces like a pot-ter's ves-sel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings : be mf learned, ye that are judg-es of the earth.

11 Serve the Lord in fear : and rejoice unto him with rever-ence.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the right way : if his wrath be kindled, (yea, but a little,) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

No. I. 2.

No. II. 2.

No. III. 2.

PSALM iii. Domine, quid multiplicati?

p LORD, how are they increased that trou-ble me : many are they that rise a-gainst me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soul : There is no help for him in his God.

mf 3 But thou, O Lord, art my de-fender :
thou art my worship, and the lift-er up
of my head.

4 I did call upon the Lord with my voice : and he heard me out of his ho-ly hill.

5 I laid me down and slept, and rose up a-gain : for the Lord sus-tain-ed me.

6 I will not be afraid for ten thousands of the people : that have set themselves
a-gainst me round a-bout.

f 7 Up, Lord, and help me, O my God :
for thou smitest all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone ; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungod-ly.

mf 8 Salvation belongeth un-to the Lord :
and thy blessing is up-on thy peo-ple.

PSALM iv. Cum invocarem.

p HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness : thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble ; have mercy up-on me, and hear-en unto my prayer.

mf 2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honour : and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after leas-ing?

3 Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man that is godly :
when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not : commune with your own heart, and in your cham-ber, and be still.

2d Pt. 5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness :
and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There be many that say : Who will pro-show us a-ny good?

7 Lord, lift thou up : the light of thy countenance upon us.

8 Thou hast put gladness in my heart :
since the time that their corn, and wine, and oil, in-creas-ed.

9 I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest : for it is thou, Lord, only,
that makest me dwell in safe-ty.

PSALM v. Verba mea auribus.

PONDER my words, O Lord : my con-sider my me-di-ta-tion.

2 O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King, and my God : for un-to thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voice shalt thou hear betimes, O Lord : early in the morning will I direct my prayer un-to thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art the God that hast no plea-sure in wickedness : nei-ther shall a-ny evil dwell with thee.

5 Such as be foolish shall not stand in thy sight : for thou hatest all them that work vanity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leas-ing : the Lord will abhor both the blood-thirsty and de-ceit-ful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thine house, even upon the multitude of thy mercy : and in thy fear will I worship
to-ward thy ho-ly tem-ple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies : make thy way
plain be-fore my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in his mouth : their inward parts are very wickedness. [10 Their

PSALM vi. Domine, ne in furore.

mf O LORD, rebuke me nôt in thine
in-dig-nation : neither chästen me
in thy displëa-sure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lörd, for I am weak : O Lord, hëäl me, for my bönes are vëx-ed.

3 My soul älsö is söre troubled : but,
Lörd, how löng wilt thou pun-ish me ?

4 Turn thee, O Lörd, and delf-ver-my soul : O säve me för thy mër-cy's sake.

5 For in dëäth no man remëm-bereth thee : and who will give thee thänks in
the-pit ?

6 I am weary of my groaning ; every night wash I my bed : and wäter my cöuch with my tears.

7 My beauty is göne for vë-ry trouble :
and worn away because of äll mine
ën-emies.

8 Away from me, all yê that work f vanity : for the Lord hath hëärd the voicë of my wëep-ing.

9 The Lörd hath hëärd my-pë-tition :
the Lörd will-re-cieve my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be conföunded, and söre vexed : they shall be turned back, and pût to shäme sud-den-ly.

PSALM vii. Domine, Deus meus.

mf O LORD my God, in thêe have I put my trust : save me from all them
that pèrsecute me, and de-liv-er-me;

2 Lest he devour my soul, like a lion,
and tear it-in pieces : whîle there-is nône
to-help.

p 3 O Lord my God, if I have done any stich thing : or if there be any wick-edness
in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that dealt friend-ly with-me : yea, I have delivered him that without any cause is-mine ên-emy;

mf 5 Then let mine enemy pèrsecute my soul, and take-me : yea, let him tread
my life down upon the earth, and lây mine hôn-our in the dust.

f 6 Stand up, O Lord, in thy wrath,
and lift up thyself, because of the indignâ-tion of mine enemies : arise up for me in the jûdgment that thôu hast commâd-ed.

7 And so shall the congregation of the pèople cômè a-bout-thee : for their sakes
therefore lift up thy-sêlf again.

8 The Lord shall judge the people ; give sêntence with me, O Lord : according to my righteousness, and according to the înnocency that is in me.

9 O let the wickedness of the ungôdly
cômè to-an end : bût guide thou the just.

10 Fôr the right-eous God : trieth the
vé-ry hearts and reins.

11 My hêlp côm-eth-of God : who p
presêrveth thém that-are trîe of-heart.

12 God is a righteous Jûdge, strông, and patient : and Gôd is provôk-ed eve-ry day.

13 If a man will not tûrn, he will whét his sword : he hath bent his bôw, and made it rêa-dy.

14 He hath prepared fôr him the în-struments-of death : he ordaineth his ârrows against the per-secu-tors.

15 Behold, he tràvailleth with mischief : f
he hath conceived sorrow, and brougt fôrth un-gôd-liness.

16 He hath graven and digged up a pit :
and is fallen himself into the destrûction
that he made for ô-ther.

17 Fôr his travail shall cômè upon his ôwn head : and his wickedness shall fall on-his ôwn pate.

18 I will give thanks unto the Lord, according to his righteousness : and I will prâise the Nâme of the Lord most High.

PSALM viii. Domine, Dominus noster.

f O LORD our Governour, how excellent is thy Nâme in âll the world : thou that hast sêt thy glô-ry abôve the-heavens !

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strêngth, because of-thine enemies : that thou mightest still the ênemy, and the avêng-er.

mf 3 For I will consider thy heavens,
êven the wôrks of thy fingers : the moon
and the stârs, which thôu hast ordain-ed.

4 What is mân, that thou art mind-ful of-him : and the sôn of man, that thou vi-sitest him ?

5 Thou madest him lôwer thán the angels : to crôwn him with glô-ry-and wôr-ship.

6 Thou makest him to have dominîon of the wôrks of-thy hands : and thou hast put âll things in subjec-tion under his feet ;

7 All shêep and oxen : yêa, and the
bêasts of the field ;

8 The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea : and whatsoever walketh
through the pâths of the seas.

9 O Lord our Governour : how excellent f
is thy Nâme in âll the-world !

PSALM ix. Confitebor tibi.

f I WILL 'give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart : I will speak of all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glâd and rejoice in thee : yea, my songs will I make of thy Nâme, O thou most High-est.

mf 3 While mine enemies are dr-ven back : they shall fall and përiah at thy prë-sence.

4 For thou hast maintâined my right and my cause : thou art sët in the thrône that judg-est right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the hëathen, and destroy'd the un-godly : thou hast put out their nâme for ë-ver and ë-ver.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are cöme to a perpët-ual end : even as the cities which thou hast destroyed ; their memörial is pë-rished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever : he hath also prepared his sêat for judg-ment.

8 For he shall jûdge the wörl'd in righteousness : and minister true judg-ment ün-to the pëo-ple.

9 The Lord also will be a defënce for the op-pressed : even a refuge in düe time of tröu-ble.

10 And they that know thy Name will püt their trust in thee : for thou, Lord, hast never failèd thém that sêek thee.

11 O praise the Lord which dwell-eth in f Sion : shëw the people of his dö-ings.

12 For, when he maketh inquisition for blöod, he remém-bereth them : and forgëtteth nót the com-plaint of the poor.

13 Have mercy upon me, O Lord ; p consider the trouble which I sùffer of thém that hate me : thou that liftest me up from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew all thy praises mf within the pörts of the daugh-ter of Sion : I will rejoice in thy sal-vä-tion.

15 The heathen are sunk dōwn in the pît that they made : in the same net which they hid prîvily, is their foot tä-ken.

16 The Lord is knōwn to ex-ecute judgment : the ungodly is trâpped in the wörk of his öwn hands.

17 The wicked shall be tûrned in-to hell : and all the people that for-gët God.

18 For the poor shall not alway bë for-gotten : the patient abiding of the mëek shall not pë-rish for ë-ver.

19 Up, Lord, and let not män have the f üp-per hand : let the hëathen be judg-ed in thy sight.

20 Püt them in fear, O Lord : that the heathen may knōw themselves to be but men.

PSALM X. Ut quid, Domine?

my WHY standest thou so fâr off, O Lord :
and hidest thy face in the nêedful
time of trôu-ble ?

2 The ungodly for his own lûst doth per-secute the poor : let them be taken in
in the crafty wiliness that they have-i-ma-gin-ed.

3 For the ungodly hath made boast of his ôwn hêart's de-sire : and speaketh good of the còvetous, whom Gód ab-hôr-reth.

4 The ungodly is so proud, that he câreth nót for God : nêither is Gód in all his thoughts.

5 His wâys are ál-way grievous : thy judgments are far above out of his sight, and therefore defiêth he ál his e-ne-mies.

6 For he hath said in his heart, Tush,
I shall nêver be cást down : there shall
nô harm háp-pen un-to me.

7 His mouth is full of cûrsing, deceit,
and fraud : under his tongue is ungodliness,
and va-ni-ty.

8 He sitteth lurking in the thievish côrn-ers of the streets : and privily in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent ;
his eyes are sêd a-against the poor.

9 For he lieth waiting secretly, even as a lion lûrketh he in his den : thât he may ra-vish the poor.

10 Hê doth rá-vish the poor : when he gêtteth him ín-to his net.

11 He falleth dôwn, and hûm-bleth himself : that the congregation of the poor
may fáll into the hands of his câp-tains.

12 He hath said in his heart, Tûsh, Gód hath-for-gotten : he hideth away his face, and hê will nê-ver sêe it.

13 Arise, O Lord God, and líft úp thine f
hand : fôr-gêt not the poor.

14 Wherefore should the wicked blasphême God : while he doth say in his heart, Tush, thôu God cá-rest-not fôr it.

15 Sûrely thôu hast seenv-it : for thou behôldest ungod-li-ness and wrong.

16 That thou mayest take the mâtter
ín-to-thine hand : the poor committeth himself unto thee ; for thou art the hêlper
of the friend-less.

17 Break thou the power of the ungodly
and ma-licious : take away his ungodliness,
and thôu shalt find none.

18 The Lord is Kíng for é-ver and ever : and the heathen are pêrished out of the land.

19 Lord, thou hast heard the desêre
of the poor : thou preparast thy heart, and thine ears hêar-keneth thêre-to ;

20 To help the fatherless and pòor ín-to their right : that the man of the earth be no môre ex-ált-ed against them.

PSALM xi. In Domino confido.

mf IN the LÔrd put I my trust : how say
I ye then to my soul, that she should

2 For lo, the ungodly bend their bow, and make ready their ârrows withîn the quiver : that they may privily shôot at thém which-are true of heart.

3 For the foundâtions will be cást down :
and wâth hath-the right-eous done?

p 4 The LÔrd is in his hô-ly temple : the Lôrd's séat is-in hêa-ven:

5 His eyes consid-er-the poor : and his eyelids try the chil-dren of men.

6 The LÔrd allôw-eth-the righteous :
but the ungodly, and him that delighteth
in wickedness dôth his sôul abhor.

7 Upon the ungodly he shall rain f
snares, fire and brîmstone, stôrm and

PSALM xii. Salvum me fac.

p HELP me, ' Lord, for there is not ône
gôd-ly-man left : for the faithful are mînished from 'a-mông the chil-dren-of men.

2 They talk of vanity êvery one with his neighbour : they do but flatter with their lips, and dissē·m·ble in their dou·ble heart.

3 The Lord shall root out all deceit·ful lips : and the tōngue · that speak·eth prōd things ;

4 Which have said, With our tōngue will we pre·vail : we are they that ought to speak, whō · is lōrd o·ver us ?

mf 5 Now for the comfortless tōubles' s·ake of the needy : and because of the dēep sigh·ing of the poor,

6 I will ūp, saith the Lord : and will help every one from him that swell·eth against him, and · will sēt him at rest.

7 The words of the Lōrd are pūre words : even as the silver, which from the earth is tried, and pūrifi · ed sēven times in the fire.

8 Thōu shalt kēep them, O Lord : thou shalt preserve him from this ge · ne·rā·tion for ē·ver.

9 The ungodly walk on ē·ve·ry side : when they are exalted, the children of mēn · are pūt to re·buke.

No. II. 2.

PSALM xiii. Usque quo, Domine ?

p HOW long wilt thou for·gēt me, O Lōrd, for ever : how long wilt thou hīde · thy face from me.

2 How long shall I seek counsel in my soul, and be so vex·ed in my heart : how long shall mine ē · nemies tri·umph o·ver me ?

3 Consider, and hēar me, O Lōrd my God : lighten mine eyes, that · I sleep not in death.

4 Lest mine enemy say, I have pre·vail·ed a·gainst him : for if I be cast down, they that tōuble me will · re·jōice at it.

mf 5 But my t·rust is in thy mercy : and my heart is jōy · ful in thy sal·vā·tion.

6 I will sing of the Lord, because he hath dēalt so lō·vingly with me : yea, I will praise the Nāme of · the Lōrd most High·est.

THE fōol hath said in his heart : Thēre mf is nō God.

2 They are corrupt, and become abōminable in their doings : there is none that dō · eth good, no not one.

3 The Lord looked down from heāven upon the chīl·dren of men : to see if there were any that would understand, · and sēek af·ter God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are alto·gether be·come abō·mi·nable : there is none that dō · eth good, no not one.

5 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tōngues hāve they de·ceived : the pōison of āsps is under their lips.

6 Their mōuth is full of cūrs·ing and bitterness : their fēt · are swift to shēd blood.

7 Destruction and unhappiness is in their ways, and the way of pēace hāve they not known : there is no fēar · of Gōd be·fore their eyes.

8 Have they no knowledge, that they p are all such work·ers of mischief : eating up my people as it were brēad, · and call not upon the Lōrd ?

9 There were they brought in great fear, ēven where nō fear was : for God is in the gēne · rā·tion of the right·eous.

10 As for you, ye have made a mock at the cōnsel of the poor : because he pūt · teth his t·rust in the Lord.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence : and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal.

3 Thou hast proved and visited mine heart in the night-season ; thou hast tried me, and shalt find no wickedness in me : for I am utterly purposed that my mouth shall not offend.

4 Because of men's works, that are done against the words of thy lips : I have kept me from the ways of the destroyer.

8 Keep me as the apple of an eye : hide me under the shadow of thy wings,

9 From the ungodly that trouble me : mine enemies compass me round about to take away my soul.

10 They are inclosed in their own fat : and their mouth speaketh proud things.

11 They lie waiting in our way on every side : turning their eyes down to the ground ;

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey : and as it were a lion's whelp, lurking in secret places.

13 Up, Lord, disappoint him, and cast him down : deliver my soul from the ungodly, which is a sword of thine ;

14 From the men of thy hand, O Lord, from the men, I say, and from the evil world : which have their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hidden treasure.

15 They have children at their desire : and leave the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will behold thy presence in righteousness : and when I awake up after thy likeness, I shall be satisfied with it.

PSALM xviii. Diligam te, Domine.

mf I WILL love thee, O Lord, my strength ; the Lord is my stony

2 I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised : so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The sorrows of death compassed me : and the overflowings of ungodliness made me afraid.

p 4 The pains of hell came about me : the snares of death overtook me.

5 In my trouble I will call upon the Lord : and complain unto my God.

mf 6 So shall he hear my voice out of his holy temple : and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter even into his ears.

f 7 The earth trembled and quaked : the very foundations also of the hills shook, and were removed, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out of his presence : and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coals were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down : and it was dark under his feet.

10 He rode upon the cherubims, and did fly : he came flying upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place : his pavilion round about him with dark water, and thick clouds to cover him.

12 At the brightness of his presence his clouds removed : hailstones, and coals of fire.

13 The Lord also thundered out of heaven, and the Highest gave his thunder : hailstones, and coals of fire.

14 He sent out his arrows, and scattered them : he cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discovered, at thy chiding, O Lord : at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

No. I. 2.

No. II. 2.

mf 16 He shall send down from on high to fetch me : and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shall deliver me from my strongest enemy, and from them which hate me : for they are too mighty for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my trouble : but the Lord was my upholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of liberty : he brought me forth, even because he had a favour unto me.

20 The Lord shall reward me after my righteous dealing : according to the cleanness of my hands shall he recompense me.

21 Because I have kept the ways of the Lord : and have not forsaken my God, as the wicked doth.

22 For I have an eye unto all his laws : and will not cast out his commandments from me.

23 I was also uncorrupt before him : and eschewed mine own wickedness.

24 Therefore shall the Lord reward me

After my right-eous dealing : and according unto the cleanness of my hands in his eye-sight.

p 25 With the holy thou shalt be holy : and with a perfect man thou shalt be perfect.

26 With the clean thou shalt be clean : and with the forward thou shalt learn forwardness.

27 For thou shalt save the people that are in adversity : and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle : the Lord my God shall make my darkness to be light.

29 For in thee I shall discomfit an host of men : and with the help of my God I shall leap over the wall.

30 The way of God is an undefiled way : the word of the Lord also is tried in the fire ; he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.

mf 31 For who is God, but the Lord : or who hath any strength, except our God ?

32 It is God, that girdeth me with strength of war : and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like harts' feet : and setteth me up on high.

34 He teacheth mine hands to fight : and mine arms shall break even a bow of steel.

35 Thou hast given me the defence of thy salvation : thy right hand also shall hold me up, and thy loving correction shall make me great.

36 Thou shalt make room enough under me for to go : that my foot-steps shall not slide.

37 I will follow upon mine enemies, and overtake them : neither will I turn again till I have destroyed them.

38 I will smite them, that they shall not be able to stand : but fall under my feet.

39 Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle : thou shalt throw down mine enemies under me.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their backs upon me : and I shall destroy them that hate me.

41 They shall cry, but there shall be none to help them : yea, even unto the Lord shall they cry, but he shall not hear them.

42 I will beat them as small as the dust before the wind : I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.

43 Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings of the people : and thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whom I have not known : shall serve me.

45 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me : but the strange children shall dissemble with me.

46 The strange children shall fail : and be afraid out of their prisons.

47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my strong helper : and praised be the God of my salvation.

48 Even the God that seeth that I be avenged : and subdueth the people unto me.

49 It is he that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries : thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

50 For this cause will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles : and sing praises unto thy Name.

4 Grant thee thy heart's de-sire : and fulfil all thy mind.

6 Now know I, that the Lord helpeth his Anointed, and will hear him from his ho-ly heaven : even with the wholesome strength of his right hand.

PSALM XXI. Domine, in virtute tua.

3 For thou shalt prevent him with the bless-ings of goodness : and shalt set a crown of pure gold up-on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life : even for ever-and-ever.

5 His honour is great in thy sal-va-tion : glory and great worship shalt thou lay up-on him.

6 For thou shalt give him everlast-ing felicity : and make him glad with the joy of thy counte-nance.

7 And why ? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord : and in the mercy of the most Highest he shall not miscar-ry.

8 All thine enemies shall feel thy hand : thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery oven in time of thy wrath : the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth : and their seed from among the chil-dren of men.

11 For they intended mis-chief-a-against thee : and imagined such a device as they are not able to-per-form.

8 I will be glad, and rejoice in thy mercy : for thou hast considered my trouble, and hast known my soul in adversities.

2d Pt. 9 Thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy : but hast set my feet in a large room.

10 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble : and mine eye is consumed for very heaviness ; yea, my soul and my body.

11 For my life is waxen old with heaviness : and my years with mourning.

12 My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquity : and my bones are consumed.

13 I became a reproof among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours : and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me ; and they that did see me without conveyed themselves from me.

14 I am clean forgotten, as a dead man out of mind : I am become like a broken vessel.

15 For I have heard the blasphemy of the multitude : and fear is on every side, while they conspire together against me, and take their counsel to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath been in thee, O Lord : I have said, Thou art my God.

17 My time is in thy hand ; deliver me from the hand of mine enemies : and from them that persecute me.

18 Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance : and save me for thy mercy's sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee : let the ungodly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the grave.

20 Let the lying lips be put to silence : 2d Pt. which cruelly, disdainfully, and despitefully, speak against the righteous.

21 O how plentiful is thy goodness, mf which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee : and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, even before the sons of men !

22 Thou shalt hide them privily by thine own presence from the provoking of all men : thou shalt keep them secretly in thy tabernacle from the strife of tongues.

23 Thanks be to the Lord : for he hath shewed me marvellous great kindness in a strong city.

24 And when I made haste, I said : I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

25 Nevertheless, thou heardest the voice 2d Pt. of my prayer : when I cried unto thee.

26 O love the Lord, all ye his saints : mf for the Lord preserveth them that are faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

27 Be strong, and he shall establish your heart : all ye that put your trust in the Lord.

mf BLESS-ED ¹ is he whose un-sin is cover-ed.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lôrd impu-teth no sin : and in whose spí-rit there is no guile.

p 3 For while I held my tongue : my bones consumed away through my day-ly complain-ing.

4 For thy hand is heavy upôn me day

drought in sum-mer.

5 I will acknowledge my sin unto thee :
and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

6 I said, I will confess my sins un-to the Lord : and so thou forgavest the wick-edness of my sin.

7 For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou may-est be found : but in the great waterfloods they shall not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve me from trouble : thou shalt compass me about with songs of deli-verance.

9 I will inform thee, and teach thee in mf
the way wherein thou shalt go : and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse and mule,

REJOICE in the Lōrd, Ó ye righteous :

3 Sing unto the Lōrd a new song :

10 The Lōrd bringeth the cōunsel of

from the habitation of his dwelling he considereth all thēm that dwell on the earth.

14 He fāshioneth all the hēarts of them :
and ūnderstānd-eth all their works.

15 There is no king that can be saved

2 Lay hand upon the shield and buckler :

3 Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and be doing good : dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

8 Leave off from wrath, and let go displeasure : fret not thyself, else shalt thou be moved to do evil.

9 Wicked doers shall be rooted out : and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherit the land.

10 Yet a little while, and the ungodly shall be clean gone : thou shalt look after his place, and he shall be a-way.

11 But the meek-spirited shall possess the earth : and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The ungodly seeketh counsel against the just : and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

35 Hope thou in the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall promote thee, that thou shalt possess the land : when the ungodly shall perish, thou shalt see it.

36 I myself have seen the ungodly in mf great power : and flourishing like a green bay-tree.

37 I went by, and lo, he was gone : I sought him, but his place could not where be found.

38 Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing that is right : for that shall bring a man peace at the last.

13 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel : world without end. Amen.

PSALM xlii. Quemadmodum.

LIKE as the hart desireth the water-mf brooks : so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul is athirst for God, yea, even p for the living God : when shall I come to appear before the presence of God ?

3 My tears have been my meat day and night : while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God ?

4 Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself : for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God ;

5 In the voice of praise and thanks-giving : mf 2d P among such as keep holy-day.

6 Why art thou so full of heaviness, pp O my soul : and why art thou so disquieted with-in me ?

7 Put thy trust in God : for I will yet mf give him thanks for the help of his counsel-te-nance.

8 My God, my soul is vex-ed-with-in-me : p therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan, and the little hill of Hermon.

9 One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the water-pipes : all thy waves and storms are gone over me.

10 The Lord hath granted his loving-kindness in the day-time : and in the night-season did I sing of him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

11 I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgot-ten me : why go I thus heavily, while the enemy-op-press-eth me ?

12 My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword : while mine enemies that trouble me cast me in the teeth ;

13 Namely, while they say da-ly-un-to-me : Where is now thy God ?

pp 14 Why art thou so vexed, O my soul : and why art thou so disquiet-ed-with-in me ?

mf 15 O put thy trust in God : for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM xliii. Judica me, Deus.

mf GIVE sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungod-ly people : O deliver me from the deceit-ful-and wick-ed man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put me from-thee : and why go I so heavily, while the enemy-op-pres-eth me ?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead-me : and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to-thy dwell-ing.

4 And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness : and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou so heavy, O my soul : pp and why art thou so disquiet-ed-with-in me ?

6 O put thy trust in God : for I will mf yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

mf WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fa-thers have told-us : what thou hast done in their time of old ;

2 How thou hast driven out the heathen with thy hand, and planted them in : how thou hast destroyed the na-tions, and cast them out.

3 For they gat not the land in possession through their own sword : neither was it their own arm that helped them ;

4 But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance : because thou hadst a fa-vour un-to them.

f 5 Thou art my King, O God : send help unto Ja-cob.

6 Through thee will we overthrow our

7 For I will not trust in my bow : it is not my sword that shall help me ;

8 But it is thou that savest us from our enemies : and putttest them to confu-sion-that hate us.

9 We make our boast of God all day 2d Pt. long : and will praise thy Name for ever.

5 Good luck have thou with thine honour : ride on, because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness ; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

6 Thy arrows are very sharp, and the people shall be subdued un-to thee : even in the midst among the King's enemies.

7 Thy seat, O God, endureth for ever : the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

8 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity : wherefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

p 9 All thy garments smell of myrrh, of aloes, and cassia : out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

10 Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women : upon thy right hand did stand the queen in a vesture of gold, wrought about with divers colours.

11 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, incline thine ear : forget also thine own people, and thy father's house.

12 So shall the King have pleasure in thy beauty : for he is thy Lord God, and worship thou him.

16 With joy and gladness shall they be brought : and shall enter into the King's palace.

17 Instead of thy fathers thou shalt have children : whom thou mayest make princes in all lands.

PSALM xlvii. Deus noster refugium.

3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell : and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

3 He shall subdue the people un-der us : and the na-tions under our feet.

4 He shall choose out an hē-ritage for us : even the worship of Jâcob, whom he lōv-ed.

f 5 God is gone up with a mē-ry noise : and the Lōrd with the sōund of the trump.

6 O sing praises, sing praises un-to-our God : O sing praises, sing prais-es unto our King.

7 For God is the Kîng of all the earth : sing ye praises with un-der-stānd-ing.

8 God reigneth o-ver the heathen : God sitteth upon his hōly seat.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom : and

4 I will incline mine ear to the parable ;
and shew my dark speech up-on the harp.

p 5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of wickedness : and when the wickedness
of my heels compasseth me round a-bout ?

6 There be some that put their trust in their goods ; and boast themselves in the multitude of their rich-es.

7 But no man may deliv-er his brother :

8 For it cost more to redeem their souls :
so that he must let that alone for e-ver ;

9 Yea, though he live long : and see
not the grave.

mf 10 For he seeth that wise men also die, ignorant and foolish, and leave their

11 And yet they think that their houses shall conti-nue for ever : and that their dwelling-places shall endure from one generation to another ; and call the lands

12 Nevertheless, man will not abide in honour : seeing he may be compared unto the beasts that perish ; this is the way of them.

13 This is their foolishness : and their posterity praise their say-ing.

14 They lie in the hell like sheep, death
gnaweth upon them, and the righteous shall have domination over them in the morning : their beauty shall consume in the sepulchre out of their dwell-ing.

15 But God hath delivered my soul from the place of hell : for he shall receive me.

THE Lord, even the most mighty God, hath spoken : and called the world, from the rising up of the sun, unto the going down there-of.

2 Out of Sion hath God appeared : in perfect beauty.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence : there shall go before him a consuming fire, and a mighty tempest shall be stirred up round about him.

4 He shall call the heaven from above : and the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather my saints together unto me : those that have made a covenant with me with sacrifice.

6 And the heaven shall declare his righteousness : for God is Judge himself.

p 7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak : I myself will testify against thee, O Israel ; for I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt-offerings : because they were not all-way before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thine house : nor he-goat out of thy folds.

10 For all the beasts of the forest are mine : and so are the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls upon the mountains : and the wild beasts of the field are in my sight.

12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thee :

for the whole world is mine, and all that is there-in.

13 Thinkest thou that I will eat bulls' flesh : and drink the blood of goats ?

14 Offer unto God thanks-giving : and pay thy vows unto the most High-est.

15 And call upon me in the time of trouble : so I will hear thee, and thou shalt praise me.

16 But unto the ungodly said God : my Why dost thou preach my laws, and takest my covenant in thy mouth ;

17 Whereas thou hast to be re-formed : and hast cast my words behind thee ?

18 When thou sawest a thief, thou consentedst unto him : and hast been partaker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy mouth speak wickedness : and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.

20 Thou satest, and spakest against thy brother : yea, and hast slandered thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly, that I am even such a one as thyself : but I will reprove thee, and set before thee the things that thou hast done.

22 O consider this, ye that forget God : lest I pluck you away, and there be none to deliver you.

5 Behold, I was shapeless in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

PSALM lviii. Si vere utique.

mf A RE your minds set upon righteousness, O ye cón-gre-gation : and do ye judge the thing that is right, O ye sôns of-men ?

2 Yea, ye imagine mischief in your héart upôn the earth : and your hânds deal with wick-edness.

3 The ungodly are froward, êven from their mó-ther's womb : as soon as they are born, they gô astráy, and spêak lies.

4 They are as venomous as the poíson of a serpent : even like the deaf ádder that stóp-peth hêr ears ;

5 Which refuseth to hêar the vóice of-the charmer : chârm he né-ver-so wise-ly.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouths ; smite the jáw-bones of the lí-ons, O Lord : let them fall away like water that runneth apace ; and when they shoot their árrows lét them-be rôt-ed-out.

7 Let them consume away like a snail, and be like the untímelý frúit of-a woman : and lét them-not sêe the-sun.

8 Or ever your pôts be made hót with thorns : so let indignation vex him, êven as a thîng that is raw.

9 The righteous shall rejoíce when hemf sé-eth-the vengeance : he shall wash his fôotsteps in the blôod of-the-un-gôd-ly.

10 So that a man shall say, Verily there ís a réwârd for-the righteous : doubtless there ís a Gôd that judg-eth the-earth.

PSALM lix. Eripe me de inimicis.

f DË'LIVER me from mine ênemies, O God : defend me from thên that rise up against me.

2 O deliver me from the wick-ed doers :
 and save me from the blood-thirsty men.

mf 3 For lo, they lie wâiting for my soul :
 the mighty men are gathered against me,
 without any offence or fault of me, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault : arise thou therefore to help me, and be-hold.

5 Stand up, O Lord God of hosts, thou God of Israel, to visit all the heathen :
 and be not merciful unto them that offend
 of malf-cious wick-edness.

6 They go to and fro in-the evening :
 they grin like a dog, and run about through-the ci-ty.

f 7 Behold, they speak with their mouth,
 and swôrds are in their lips : for whô dôth hear ?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt hâve them in de-ri-sion : and thou shalt laugh all the hea-then-to scorn.

9 My strength will I ascribe unto thee :
 for thou art the God of my re-fuge.

10 God shêweth me his good-ness plenteously : and God shall let me see my desîre upon mine ê-nemies.

11 Slay them not, lêt my péo-ple-for-mf

 the people, and pût them down, O Lord,

12 For the sin of their mouth, and for the words of their lips, they shall be tâken
 in their pride : and why ? their prêaching is of cursing and lies.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, consume
 them, that they may perish : and know that it is God that ruleth in Jacob, and unto the ênds of the world.

14 And in the êvening they will-re-turn :
 grin like a dog, and will go about the ci-ty.

15 They will run hêre and thêre for 2d Pt.
 meat : and grudge if they be not sa-tis-fied.

16 As for me, I will sing of thy power, f
 and will praise thy mêrcy betwîmes in-the morning : for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the dáy of my trôu-ble.

PSALM lx. Deus, repulisti nos.

p O GOD, thou hast cast us out, and scattered us a-broad : thou hast also been displeased ; O turn thee ún-to us a-gain.

2 Thou hast moved the lând, and divid-ed it : heal the sôres thereof, for-it shâk-eth.

3 Thou hast shewed thy pœple héa-vy things : thou hast given us a drink of deadly wine.

4 Thou hast given a tôken for such as fear-thee : that they may triumph because of the truth.

5 Therefore wêre thy belôv-ed-de-livered : help me with thy right hând, and héar me.

mf 6 God hath spoken in his holiness, I will rejoice, and divide Sichem : and mete out the vá-l-ley-of Sîc-coth.

7 Gilead is mîne, and Manâs-see-is mine : Ephraim also is the strength of my head ; Júdah is my lãw-giv-er ;

8 Moab is my wash-pot ; over Edom will I cast out my shoe : Philístia, bó thou glâd of-me.

p 9 Who will lead me ín-to the strong city : who will bring me ín-to Ê-dom ?

10 Hast not thou cast us out, O God : wilt not thou, O Gôd, go out with our hosts ?

11 O be thên our hélp in trouble : fôr vâin is-the help of man.

12 Through God will we dô grêat acts : f for it is he that shall tread down our è-nemies.

PSALM lxi. Exaudi, Deus

2 From the ends of the êarth will I cáll up-on-thee ; wêhen my héart is in hêa-viness.

3 O set me up upon the rôck that is high-er-than I : for thou hast been my hope, and a strong tower fôr me against the è-nemy.

4 I will dwell in thy tâberná-cle-for ever : and my trust shall be únder the cõ-vering of thy wings.

5 For thou, O Lôrd, hast héard mf my-de-sires : and hast given an heritage únto those that fear thy Name.

6 Thou shalt grant the Kîng a lóng life : that his years may endure throughout all gé-ne-rã-tions.

PSALM lxi. Nonne Deo?

f MY soul ! truly waiteth still upon God :
for of him cometh my sal-vä-tion.

2 He verily is my strength and my sal-va-tion : he is my defence, so that I shall not great-ly fall.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against é-very man : ye shall be slain all the sort of you ; yea, as a tottering wall shall ye bë, and like a bro-ken hedge.

p 5 Nevertheless, my soul, wait thou still upon God : for my hope is in him.

6 He truly is my strength and my sal-va-tion : he is my defence, so that I shall not fall.

7 In God is my health, and my glory : the rock of my might, and in Gód is my trust.

8 O put your trust in him ál-way, ye people : pour out your hearts before him, for Gód is our hope.

9 As for the children of mên, they are but vanity : the children of men are deceitful upon the weights, they are altogether lighter than vá-ni-ty it-self.

10 O trust not in wrong and robbery, give not yourselves ún-to vanity : if riches increase, sêt not your héart up-on them.

11 God spake once, and twice I have álso héard the same : that pówér belong-eth ún-to God ;

12 And that thóu, Lórd, art merciful : for thou rewardest every mán accórd-ing to his work.

PSALM lxxiii. Deus, Deus meus.

mf O GOD, thou art my God : early will I seek thee.

2 My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee : in a barren and dry land where no water is.

3 Thus have I looked for thee in holiness : that I might behold thy power and glory.

4 For thy loving-kindness is better than the life itself : my lips shall praise thee.

5 As long as I live will I magnify thee on this manner : and lift up my hands in thy Name.

6 My soul shall be satisfied, even as it were with marrow and fatness : when my mouth praiseth thee with joyful lips.

7 Have I not remembered thee in my bed : and thought upon thee when I was waking?

8 Because thou hast been my helper : therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

9 My soul hangeth upon thee : thy right hand hath upheld me.

10 These also that seek the hurt of my soul : they shall go under the earth.

11 Let them fall upon the edge of the sword : that they may be a portion for foxes.

2 Hide me from the gathering together of the froward : and from the insurrection of wicked doers ;

mf 3 Who have whet their tongue like a sword : and shoot out their arrows, even bitter words ;

4 That they may privily shoot at him that is perfect : suddenly do they hit him and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in mischief : and commune among themselves how they may lay snares, and say, that no man shall see them.

6 They imagine wickedness, and practise it : that they keep secret among themselves, every man in the deep of his heart.

7 But God shall suddenly shoot at them with a swift arrow : that they shall be wounded.

8 Yea, their own tongues shall make them fall : inasmuch that whoso seeth them shall laugh them to scorn.

9 And all men that see it shall say, This hath God done : for they shall perceive that it is his work.

4 Blessed is the man, whom thou choos-est, and receiv-est ún-to thee : he shall dwell in thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, even ôf thy hó-ly tē-ple.

3 For all the world shall wôr-ship thee : sing of thee, and praise thy Name.

mf 4 O come hither, and behold the works of God : how wonderful he is in his doing tôward the chîl-dren ôf men.

5 He turned the sea into dry land : so that they went through the water on foot ; there did we re-joice there-of.

6 He ruleth with his power for ever ; his eyes behôld the people : and such as will not believe shall not be able to ex-alt them-selves.

f 7 O praise our Gôd, ye people : and make the voice of his praise to be heard ;

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, sô shalt thou drive them a-way : and like as wax melteth at the fire, so let the ungodly pèrish at the pre-sence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glâd and rejoice before God : let them also be méri-ry and jöy-ful.

f 4 O sing unto God, and sing praises ún-to-his Name : magnify him that rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horse ; praise him in his Name JĀH, and rejoice be-före him.

5 He is a Father of the fatherless, and defendeth the cause of the widows : even God in his hōly há-bi-tā-tion.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of cap-tiv-ity : but letteth the rúnagates conti-nue in scárce-ness.

7 O God, when thou wentest fōrth befóre the people : when thou wēntest thrōugh the wil-der-ness,

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye bē as the wings of a dove : that is covered with silver wings, and her féa-thers like gold.

19 Praise be the Lord daily : even the God who helpeth us, and poureth his be-nefits upon us.

20 He is our God, even the God of whom com-eth-sal-va-tion : God is the Lord, by whom we escape death.

21 God shall wound the head of his enemies : and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his wick-edness.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people again, as I did from Basan : mine own will I bring again, as I did sometime from the deep of the sea.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee : stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us,

29 For thy temple's sake at Jeru-sa-lem : so shall kings bring pre-sents unto thee.

31 Then shall the princes come out of Egypt : the Morians' land shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

32 Sing unto God, O ye kingdoms of the earth : O sing praise un-to the Lord ;

PSALM lxi. Salvum me fac.

p SÄVE 'mê, Ô God : for the waters are come in, 6-ven unto my soul.

2 I stick fast in the deep mire, where no ground is : I am come into deep waters,
so that the floods run o-ver me.

3 I am weary of crying ; my throat is dry : my sight faileth me for waiting so long up-on my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head : they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guilt-less, are might-y.

mf 5 I paid them the things that I never took : God, thou knowest my simpleness,
and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause : let not those that seek thee be confounded through me, O Lord God of Is-ra-el.

7 And why? for thy sake have I suffer'd re-proof : shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger un-to my brethren : even an alien unto my mother's children.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath even eat-en me : and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee are fall-len upon me.

10 I wept, and chastened myself with fasting : and that was turn-ed to my re-proof.

11 I put on sack-cloth also : and they jest-ed upon me.

12 They that sit in the gate speak
a-against me : and the drunkards make songs up-on me.

13 But, Lord, I make my prayer unto thee : in an ac-cept-able time.

14 Hear me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercy : even in the truth of thy sal-vä-tion.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I sink not : O let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep wa-ters.

16 Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the deep swal-low-me up : and let not the pit shut her mouth up-on me.

17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy loving-kindness is com-forta-ble : turn thee unto me according to the multitude of thy mer-cies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy servant, for I am in trouble : O haste thee, and hear me.

19 Draw nigh unto my soul, and save it :
O deliver me, because of mine e-ne-mies.

20 Thou hast known my reproof, mf

my shâme, and my dis-honour : mine adversaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart ; I am full of heaviness : I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to com-fort me.

22 They gâve me gall to eat : and when I was thirsty they gâve me vinegar to drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves with-al : and let the things that should have been for their wealth be unto them an occas-ion of fall-ing.

24 Let their eyes be blinded, that they see not : and ever bow thou down their backs.

25 Pour out thine indigna-tion-up-on-them : and let thy wrâthful displea-sure take hold of them.

26 Let their hâbita-tion be void : and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten : and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wound-ed.

28 Let them fall from one wickedness to a-nother : and not come in-to thy right-eous-ness.

29 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living : and not be written among the right-eous.

3 The mountains also shall bring peace : and the little hills righteousness un-to the peo-ple.

4 He shall keep the simple fôlk by their right : defend the children of the poor, and pûnish the wrông dô-er.

5 They shall fear thee, as long as the sùn and mûon en-dureth : from one generation to a-nô-ther.

PSALM lxxiii. Quam bonus Israel!

mf TRU-LY ' God is loving unto Is-ra-el :
even unto such as are of a clean heart.

2 Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone : my tread-ings had well-nigh slipped.

p 3 And why? I was grieved at the wicked : I do also see the ungodly in such pros-per-ity.

4 For they are in no per-il-of death :
but are lus-ty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folk : neither are they plagu-ed-like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they are so hold-en-with pride : and overwhélmed with cru-el-ty.

7 Their eyes swell with fatness : and they do even what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speak of wicked blasphemy : their talking is against the most High.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth
un-to-the heaven : and their tongue go-eth
through the-world.

10 Therefore fall the people un-to them : and thereout suck they no small ad-van-tage.

2d Pt. 11 Tush, say they, how should God per-ceive-it : is there knowledge in the most High?

mf 12 Lo, these are the ungodly, these prosper in the world, and these have riches in pos-session : and I said, Then have I cleansed my heart in vain, and washed mine hands in in-nocen-cy.

13 All the day long have I been punished : and chastened eve-ry morn-ing.

14 Yea, and I had almost said even-as they : but lo, then I should have condemned the generation of thy chil-dren.

15 Then thought I to un-derstand this :
but it was too hard for me,

16 Until I went into the sanctu-ry-of God : then understood I the end of these men ;

17 Namely, how thou dost set them in slip-pery places : and castest them down,
and destroy-est them.

18 Oh, how suddenly do they-con-sume :
perish, and come to-a fear-ful end!

19 Yea, even like as a dream when one-a-waketh : so shalt thou make their image to vanish out of the ci-ty.

20 Thus my heart was grieved : and it p
went even through my reins.

21 So foolish was I, and ignorant : even as it were a beast be-fore thee.

22 Nevertheless, I am al-way by-thee :
for thou hast holden me by my right hand.

23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel : and after that receive me-with glô-ry.

24 Whom have I in heaven but thee :
and there is none upon earth that I desire
in com-pa-rison of thee.

25 My flesh and my heart faileth : but God is the strength of my heart, and my por-tion-for ever.

26 For lo, they that forsake thee-shall f perish : thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornic-ation against thee.

27 But it is good for me to hold me fast
by God, to put my trust in the Lord God :
and to speak of all thy works in the gates of the daugh-ter-of Si-on.

PSALM lxxiv. Ut quid Deus?

mf O GOD, wherefore art thou absent from us so long : why is thy wrath so hot against the sheep of thy päs-ture ?

2 O think upon thy cön-gre-gation : whom thou hast purchased, and re-deemed of old.

3 Think upon the tribe of thine in-heritance : and mount Sion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift up thy feet, that thou mayest utterly destroy eve-ry enemy : which hath done evil in thy sanc-tua-ry.

f 5 Thine adversaries roar in the midst of thy cön-gre-gations : and set up their banners for to-kens.

6 He that hewed timber afore out of the thick trees : was known to bring it to an ex-cel-lent work.

7 But now they break down all the carved work there-of : with axes, and häm-mers.

8 They have set fire upon thy hö-ly places : and have defiled the dwelling-place of thy Náme, e-ven un-to the ground.

9 Yea, they said in their hearts, Let us make hä-voek of them ál-to-gether : thus have they burnt up all the höuses of Gód in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one pró-phét more : no, not one is there among us, that under-stánd-eth a-ny more.

mf 11 O God, how long shall the adversary do this-dis-honour : how long shall the enemy blasphemé thy Náme, for é-ver ?

12 Why with-drawest thou thy hand : why pluckest thou not thy right hand out of thy bosom to consume the é-nemy ?

13 For Gód is my Kíng of old : the help that is done upon éarth he dó-eth it him-self.

14 Thou didst divide the sea through thy power : thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the wä-ters.

15 Thou smotest the hêads of Levi-athan in pieces : and gavest him to be meat for the people in the wil-derness.

16 Thou broughtest out fountains and waters out of the hârd rocks : thou driedst up migh-ty wä-ters.

17 The day is thine, and the night is thine : thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

18 Thou hast set all the bôrders of the earth : thou hast mâde süm-mer and win-ter.

19 Remember this, O Lord, how the p é-nemy hath re-buked : and how the foolish people hath blasphem-ed thy Name.

20 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the mûltitude of the enemies : and forget not the congregation of the pöör for é-ver.

21 Lóok upon the covenant : for all the earth is full of darkness, and crûel há-bi-tä-tions.

22 O let not the simple gó awáy a-shamed : but let the poor and needy give praise unto thy Name.

23 Arise, O God, maintain thine own cause : remember how the foolish mán blasphem-eth thee dai-ly.

HEAR my 'lâw, Ó my people: incline

2 I will ôpen my móuth in-a parable :
I will declâre hard sên-ten-ces of old ;

3 Which we have héard and known :
and sùch as our fâ-thers have tóld us ;

4 That we should not hide them from the children of the gênerâ-tions to come :
but to shew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wónderful wórk's that he bath done.

mf 5 He made a covenant with Jacob, and gâve Ís-ra-el-a law : which he commanded our forefâthers to teach their chil-dren ;

6 That their postêrity might know-it :
and the children which were yet un-born ;
7 To the intent that wên they came up : they might shêw their chil-dren
the same ;

8 That they might pût their trúst in God : and not to forget the works of God,
bût to keep his-com-mând-ments ;

9 And not to be as their forefathers,
a faithless and stûbborn gê-ne-ration : a generation that set not their heart aright,
and whose spirit cleaveth not stêd-fast-ly
un-to God ;

10 Líke as the chîl-dren-of Ephraim :
who being harnessed, and carrying bows, turned themselves bâck in the dâ-y of bât-tle.

p 11 They kêpt not the cò-venant-of God : and wóuld not wâlk in his law ;

12 But forgât wâht he-had done : and the wónderful works that hê had shêw-ed

fôr them.

13 Marvellous things did he in them, sight of our forefathers, in the lând of Egypt : even in the field of Zô-an.

14 He divided the sêa, and lét them-go through : he mâde the wâters to stand on an-heap.

15 In the day-time also he lêd them with a cloud : and all the night through with-a light of fire.

16 He clâve the hârd rôcks in-the 20 They spake against Gôd ál-so, saying : Shall God prepare a tâ·ble in the wil·derness ?

21 He smote the stony rock indeed, that the water gushed out, and the strêams flôw·ed·with·al : but can he give bread also, or provîde flesh for-his pëo·ple ?

22 When the Lord hêard this, he was wroth : so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up hêavy ·dis·plêasure·a·gainst Is·ra·vel ;

23 Because they believed nô't in God : and pût not ·their trûst in his help.

24 So he commanded the clôuds a·bove : and ó·pen'd the doors of heaven.

26 So mân did eat án·gels' food : fôr ·he sênt them mêat enough.

56 He cast out the héathen ál-so-be-

mf SING we merrily únto Gód our strength :

2 Take the psálm, bring hí-ther-the tabret : the mérry hárp with the lute.

3 Blow up the trumpet ín the nêw-moon :
even ín the time appointed, and upôn our só-lemn féast-day.

p 4 For this was made a státute for
Is-ra-el : and a láw of the Gód of Já-cob.

5 This he ordained ín Jôseph for a tés-ti-mony : when he came out of the land of Egypt, and had héard a stránge lán-guage.

mf 6 I eased his shóulder fróm the burden :
and his hands were delívered fróm mak-ing

7 Thou calledst upón me ín troubles,
and I delí-vered thee : and heard thee

9 Hear, O my people, and I will assúre thee, O Is-ra-el : íf thou wilt héark-en

10 There shall no stránge gód be

11 I am the Lord thy God, who brought 2d Pt.

mouth wíde, and I shall fill it.

12 But my people wóuld not héar

PSALM lxxxii. Deus stetit.

f GÖD standeth in the congrega-tion of princes : he is a Judge a-mong gods.
2 How long will ye give wrong judgment : and accept the persons of the ungod-ly?

3 Defend the poor and fatherless : see that such as are in need and neces-sity have right.

4 Deliver the out-cast and poor : save them from the hand of the ungod-ly.

mf 5 They will not be learned nor understand, but walk on still in darkness : all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

6 I have said, Ye are gods : and ye are all the children of the most High-est.

7 But ye shall die like men : and fall like one of the prin-ces.

f 8 Arise, O God, and judge thou the earth : for thou shalt take all heathen to thine in-he-ri-tance.

PSALM lxxxiii. Deus, quis similis ?

mf HOLD not thy tongue, O God, keep not still silence : refrain not thy-self, O God.

2 For lo, thine enemies make a murmuring : and they that hate thee have lift up their head.

3 They have imagined craftily against thy people : and taken counsel against thy se-cret ones.

4 They have said, Come, and let us root them out, that they be no more a people : and that the name of Israel may be no more in remem-brance.

5 For they have cast their heads together with one con-sent : and are confederate against thee ;

6 The tabernacles of the Edomites, and the Is-mael-ites : the Moabites, and Ha-gar-ens ;

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and A-ma-lek : the Philistines, with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 Assur also is join-ed with them : and have hol-pen the chil-dren of Lot.

9 But do thou to them as unto the f Ma-dian-ites : unto Sisera, and unto Jabin at the brook of Ki-son ;

10 Who per-ish'd at Endor : and became as the dung of the earth.

11 Make them and their princes like O-reb and Zeb : yea, make all their princes like as Zeba and Sal-ma-na ;

12 Who say, Let us take to our-selves : the houses of God in posses-sion.

13 O my God, make them like un-to-a wheel : and as the stub-ble before the wind ;

14 Like as the fire that burneth up the wood : and as the flame that consum-eth the moun-tains.

15 Persecute them even so with thy tempest : and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lord : that they may seek thy Name.

17 Let them be confounded and vexed ever more and more : let them be put to shame, and per-ish.

PSALM lxxxiv. Quam dilecta!

O HOW amiable are thy dwellings :
thou Lord of hosts !

2 My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord : my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young : even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house : they will be all-way praising

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee : in whose heart are thy ways.

misery use it for a well : and the pools are filled with water.

prayer : hearken, O God of Jä-cob.

9 Behold, O God our de-fender : and look upon the face of thine Anointed.

10 For one day in thy courts : is better than a thousand.

11 I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God : than to dwell
in the tents of ungodliness.

12 For the Lord God is a light and defence : the Lord will give grace and worship, and no good thing shall he withhold from them that live a godly life.

13 O Lord God of hosts : blessed is the PSALM lxxxv. Benedixisti, Domine.

2 Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people : and covered all their sins.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy dis-pleasure : and turned thyself
from thy wrathful indignation.

4 Turn us then, O God our Saviour :
and let thine anger cease from us.

5 Wilt thou be displeased at us for ever : and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turn again, and quick-en us : that thy people may rejoice
in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord : and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hearken what the Lord God will say concerning me : for he shall speak peace unto his people, and to his saints ; that they turn not again.

9 For his salvation is nigh them that fear him : that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met to-gether :
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth : and righteousness hath looked down from heaven.

7 For hé is the Lórd our God : and we are the people of his pasture, ánd the p 8 To-day if ye will hear his voice, hárden

not your hearts ; as in the provocation,

and as in the day of temptátiön in the
wil-derness ;

9 When your fátters tépt-ed me :
próved mé, and saw my works.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generá-tiön, and said : It is a people that do err in their héarts, for they háve
not known my ways ;

11 Unto whóm I swáre in-my wráth :

PSALM xcvi. Cantate Domino.

2 Sing únto the Lórd, and praise his Name : be télling of his salvá-tiön-from 3 Declare his hónour ún-to-the heathen :

and his wonders únto éll peo-ple.

4 For the Lord is great, and cännöt wor-thily be praised : he is môre to be fear-ed than all gods.

5 As for all the gods of the hêathen, they are-but idols : but it is the Lórd that made the hêa-vens.

6 Glory and wôrship are be-fore-him ;
power and hônour are in his sanc-tua-ry.

f 7 Ascribe unto the Lórd, O ye kindreds of the people : ascribe unto the Lórd
wôr-ship and pôw-er.

8 Ascribe unto the Lórd the honour due un-to-his Name : bring présents, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the Lórd in the beau-ty-of holiness : let the whole êarth stand in awe of him.

10 Tell it out among the hêathen that the Lórd is King : and that it is he who hath made the round world so fast that it cannot be moved ; and how that he shall jûdge the péo-ple right-eously.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and lêt the êarth be glad : let the sea make a noise, and all that there-in is.

12 Let the field be jôyful, and all that-is in-it : then shall all the trees of the wôod

3 There shall gô a ffre be-fore-him :
and burn up his ênemies on eve-ry side.

4 His lightnings gave shine un-to-the 5 The hills melted like wax at the présence of the Lórd : at the présence of the Lórd of the wôhole earth.

6 The hêavens have declâr-ed-his righteousness : and all the péo-ple have seen his glô-ry.

7 Confounded be all they that worship

carved images, and that delight in vain gods : wôrship him, all ye gods.

8 Sion hêard of it, and re-jôiced : and mf
the daughters of Judah were glad, because of thy jûdg-ments, O Lórd.

9 For thou, Lórd, art higher than all that are in the earth : thou art exâlted

10 O ye that love the Lórd, see that ye p mf HĒAR! my prayer, O Lord : and let my cry'ng come un-to thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble : incline thine ear unto me when I call ; O hear me, and that right soon.

pp 3 For my days are consumed away like smoke : and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass : so that I for-got to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groaning : my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6 I am become like a pelican in the wilderness : and like an owl that is in the de-sert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow : that sitteth alone up-on the house-top.

8 Mine enemies revile me all the-day
long : and they that are mad upon me are sworn to-ge-ther against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread : and mingled my drink with weep-ing ;

10 And that because of thine
indigna-tion and wrath : for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are gone like a shadow :
and I am wi-thered like grass.

p 12 But, thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever : and thy remembrance throughout all ge-ne-ra-tions.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion : for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why ? thy servants think upon her stones : and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall fear thy Name,
O Lord : and all the kings of the earth
thy Ma-jesty ;

16 When the Lord shall build up Sion : mf
and when his glo-ry shall ap-pear ;

17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute : and desp' seth not their de-sire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after : and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from his sanctuary : out of the heaven did the Lord be-hold the earth ;

20 That he might hear the mournings of such as are in cap-tivity : and deliver the children ap-point-ed unto death ;

21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion : and his wor-ship at Je-ru-salem ;

22 When the people are ga-ther'd together : and the king-doms al-so, to serve the Lord.

23 He brought down my strength in my p
journey : and short-ened my days.

away in the midst of mine age : as for thy years, they endure throughout all ge-ne-ra-tions.

25 Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundâtion of the earth : and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure : they all shall wax old as doth a garment ;

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change

4 Who saveth thy life from destruction : and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness ;

2d Pt. 5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things : making thee young and lusty as an eagle.

mf 6 The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment : for all them that are oppressed with wrong.

7 He shewed his ways unto Moses : his works unto the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is full of compassion and mercy : long-suffering, and of great goodness.

9 He will not always be chiding : neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins : nor rewarded us according to our wickednesses.

11 For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth : so great is his mercy also toward them that fear him.

12 Look how wide also the east is from the west : so far hath he set our sins from us.

13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children : even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth whereof we are made : he remembereth that we are but dust.

15 The days of man are but as grass : for he flourisheth as a flower of the field.

16 For as soon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone : and the place thereof shall know it no more.

4 He mâketh his ân-gels spirits : and his mí-nisters a flam-ing fire.

18 Whose feet they hurt in the stocks :
the iron entered into his soul ;

19 Until the time came that his cause was known : the word of the Lord tried him.

20 The king sent, and delivered him :
the prince of the people let him go free.

21 He made him lord also of his house :
and ruler of all his substance ;

22 That he might inform his princes
after his will : and teach his servants wisdom.

mf 23 Israel also came in-to Egypt : and Jacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people ex-hated his people : and dealt untruly with his servants.

and Aaron whom he had chosen.

f 27 And these shewed his tokens a-

Ham.

28 He sent darkness, and it was dark :
and they were not obedient unto his word.

29 He turned their waters in-to blood :
and slew their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogs :
yea, even in their kings chambers.

31 He spake the word, and there came all man-ner of flies : and lice in all their quarters.

32 He gave them hail-stones for rain :
and flames of fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and fig-trees : and destroyed the trees that were in their coasts.

34 He spake the word, and the grasshoppers came, and caterpillars innumerable : and did eat up all the grass in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

35 He smote all the first-born in their land : even the chief of all their strength.

36 He brought them forth also with silver and gold : there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

37 Egypt was glad at their de-parting :
for they were afraid of them.

38 He spread out a cloud to be a covering : and fire to give light in the night-season.

and he filled them with the bread of heaven.

mf 6 We have sinned wíth our fathers :
we have done amíss, and dealt wick-edly.

7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodness in re-membrance : but were disobedient at the sēa, éven at-the Rēd sēa.

8 Nevertheless, he hēlped them for his Nāme's sake : that he might máke his pōw-er to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was drí-ed up ; so he led them through the dēep, as through a wil-der-ness.

10 And he sáved them from the śd-versary's hand : and delivered them from the hánd of the e-ne-my.

wilderness : and they tēpt-ed Gód in-the dē-sert.

15 And he gáve them their de-sire :
and sent léanness 'wíth-śl into their soul.

16 They angered Mōses also ín the tents : and Aaron 'the sáint of the Lōrd.

17 So the earth ópened, and swál-low'd-up Dathan : and cōvered the cōgrega-tion of A-bí-ram.

18 And the fire was kindled ín their company : the fláme 'burnt up the ungód-ly.

19 They máde a cálf in Horeb : and wōrshipped 'the mól-ten í-mage.

20 Thus they turn-ed their glory : into the similitude of a calf that eat-eth hay.

21 And they forgât Gôd their Saviour : who had done so grêat things in E-gypt ;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham : and fearful things by the Rêd sea.

23 So he said, he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap : to turn away his wrathful indignation, lest he should de-stry them.

24 Yea, they thought scorn of that plea-sant land : and gave no crê-dence un-to his word ;

25 But murmured in their tents : and hearkened nôt un-to the voice of the Lord.

26 Then lift he up his hand a-against them ; to overthrow them in the wil-derness ;

27 To cast out their sêed among the nations : and to scat-ter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves unto Bâ-al-peor : and ate the of-ferings of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their own in-ventions : and the plague was grêat a-mông them.

30 Then stood up Phîn-ees and prayed : and so the plague cêas-ed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness : among all pos-têri-ties for e-ver-more.

32 They angered him also at the wa-ters of strife : so that he punished Mô-ses for their sakes ;

33 Because they pro-vôk-ed his spirit : so that he spâke unadvis-edly with his lips.

34 Neither destroy-ed they the heathen : as the Lord com-mand-ed them ;

35 But were mîn-gled-a-mông the heathen : and learn-ed their works.

36 Inasmuch that they worshipped their idols, which turned to their own de-cay : yea, they offered their sons and their daughters un-to dê-vils ;

37 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sôns and of their daughters : whom they offered unto the idols of Canaan ; and the land was defl-ed with blood.

38 Thus were they stained with their own works : and went a whôring with their own in-vên-tions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled-a-against his people : inasmuch that he abhorred his own in-hê-ritance.

40 And he gave them over in-to the hand of the heathen : and they that hated them were lôrds o-ver them.

41 Their ênemies op-press-ed them : and hâd them in sub-jêc-tion.

PSALM cvii. Confitemini Domino.

mf GIVE ' thanks unto the LORD, for hé is gracious : and his mércy endúr-eth for é-ver.

2 Let them give thánks whom the LORD hath re-deemed : and delivered from the hánd of the é-nemy ;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the éast, and from the west : fróm the nórth, and from the south.

p 4 They went astray in the wílderness out of the way : and found no cit-ty to dwell in ;

5 Húngry and thirsty : their soul faint-ed in them.

† 6 So, they cried unto the LORD in their trouble : and he delivered them from their dis-tress.

7 He led them forth by the right way : 2d P. that they might go to the cit-ty where they dwelt.

8 O that men would therefore praise / the LORD for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the chil-dren of men !

9 For he satisfieth the émp-ty soul : and filleth the húngry soul with good-ness.

* 10 Such as sit in darkness, and in the shá-dow of death : being fast bound in mis-ery and í-ron ;

11 Because they rebelled against the words of the LORD : and lightly regarded the counsel of the most High-est.

12 He also brought down their heart through heaviness : they fell down, and there was none to help them.

† 13 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble : he delivered them out of their dis-tress.

Pt. 14 For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shá-dow of death : and brake their bonds in sun-der.

f 15 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the chil-dren of men !

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass : and smitten the bars of iron in sun-der.

p * 17 Foolish men are plagued for their of-fence : and because of their wick-ed-ness.

18 Their soul abhorred all man-ner of meat : and they were even hard at death's door.

† 19 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble : he delivered them out of their dis-tress.

20 He sent his word, and heal-ed them : and they were saved from their de-struc-tion.

22 That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanks-giving : and tell out his works with glád-ness !

my * 23 They that go down to the sea in ships : and occupy their business in great wá-ters ;

24 These men see the works of the Lord : and his wón-ders in the deep.

25 For at his word the stormy wind a-riseth : which lifteth up the waves there-of.

26 They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep : their soul melteth away because of the trôu-ble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunk-en man : and are at their wit's end.

† 28 So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble : he delivereth them out of their dis-tress.

29 For he maketh the storm to cease : so that the waves there-of are still.

30 Then are they glad, because they are at rest : and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

31 O that men would therefore praise f the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the chil-dren of men !

32 That they would exalt him also in in the congrega-tion of the people : and praise him in the seat of the El-ders !

33 Who turneth the floods in-to-a-my wilderness : and drieth up the wa-ter-springs.

34 A fruitful land mak-eth-he barren : for the wickedness of them that dwell there-in.

35 Again, he maketh the wilderness a stand-ing water : and wá-ter-springs of a dry ground.

36 And there he set-teth the hungry : that they may build them a ci-ty to dwell in ;

37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards : to yield them fruits of in-crease.

38 He blesseth them, so that they multiply ex-ceedingly : and suffereth not their cat-tle to de-crease.

39 And again, when they are minished, and brought low : through oppression, through any plague, or trôu-ble ;

40 Though he suffer them to be evil intréat-ed-through tyrants : and let them wander out of the way in the wil-derness ;

41 Yet helpeth he the poor out of misery : and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.

42 The righteous will consider this, and-re-joice : and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stôp-ped.

43 Whoso is wise will pôn-der these things : and they shall understand the loving-kind-ness of the Lord.

THOU art my por-tion, O Lord : I have pró-mis'd-to keep thy law.

59 I called mine own ways to-re-mem-brance : and turned my feet ún-to thy tes-timo-nies.

60 I made haste, and prolonged not the time : to keep thy commánd-ments.

61 The congregations of the ungodly have rob-bed me : but I have not forgót-ten thy law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee : because of thy right-eous jüdgm-ents.

63 I am a companion of all them that fear-thee : and keep thy commánd-ments.

75 I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right : and that thou of very faithfulness hast caused me to be troubled.

76 O let thy merciful kindness be my comfort : according to thy word unto thy servant.

77 O let thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live : for thy law is my delight.

5 If I forget thée, O · Je-rú-sa-lem : let

6 If I do not remember thee, let my they said, Down with it, dōwn with it,

above all things.

3 When I called upōn thee, thou heard-

4 All the kings of the eārth shall praise

PSALM CXXXIX. Domine, probasti.

f Ö LORD, thou hast searched me out,
and known me : thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising ; thou understandest my thoughts long be-fore.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed : and spiest out all my ways.

3 For lo, there is not a word in my tongue : but thou, O Lord, knowest it all-to-ge-ther.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behind and be-fore : and laid thine hand up-on me.

Pt. mf 5 Such knowledge is too wonderful and ex-cel-lent for me : I cannot attain un-to it.

6 Whither shall I go then from thy Spirit : or whither shall I go then from thy pre-sence ?

7 If I climb up into heaven, thou art
there : if I go down to hell, thou art there al-so.

8 If I take the wings of the morning :
and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea ;

9 Even there also shall thy hand lead me : and thy right hand shall hold
me.

10 If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall co-ver me : then shall my night be turn-ed to-day.

11 Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day : the darkness and light to thee are both a-like.

2d Pt. 12 For my reins are thine : thou hast covered me in my mo-ther's womb,

13 I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and won-derfully made :
marvellous are thy works, and that my soul know-eth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from thee :
though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance,
yet be-ing-im-perfect : and in thy book
were all my mem-bers writ-ten ;

16 Which day by day were fashioned :
when as yet there was none of them.

17 How dear are thy counsels unto me, p O God : O how great is the sum of
them !

18 If I tell them, they are more in number than the sand : when I wake up I am pre-sent with thee.

19 Wilt thou not slay the wick-ed, O
God : depart from me, ye blood-thirsty
men.

20 For they speak unrighteously against thee : and thine enemies take thy Name
in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee : and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee ?

22 Yea, I hate them right sore : even as though they were mine e-nemies.

23 Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart : prove me, and exa-mine my thoughts.

24 Look well if there be any way of wick-edness in me : and lead me in the way e-ver-last-ing.

2 Who imagine mischief in their hearts : and stir úp strife all-the dáy long.

3 They have sharpened their tóngues líke a serpent : adder's póison is únder their lips.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from the hânds of the-un-godly : préserve me from the wicked men, who are pûrposed to overthrow my gô-ins.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me, and spread a nêt abroad with cords : yêa, and set trâps in my way.

p 6 I said unto the Lôrd, Thôu art-my God : hear the vóice of my pray-ers, Ó Lôrd.

7 O Lord Gôd, thou stréngth of-my health : thou hast covered my hêad in the dáy of bât-tle.

8 Let not the ungodly hâve his desíre, O Lord : let not his mischievous imagination prospér, lest they be too proud.

10 Let hot burning coâls fall up-on-them : let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they nêver rise up a-gain.

13 The righteous also shall give thâinks ún-to-thy Name : and the júst shall cont-nue in thy sight.

2 Let my prayer be set fôrth in thy sight as the incense : and let the lifting up of my hânds be an éve-ning sa-cri-fice.

3 Set a watch, O Lôrd, befóre my mouth : and kêep the dôor of my lips.

4 O let not mine heart be inclined to any é-vil thing : let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, lest I éat of such things-as plêase them.

5 Let the righteous râther smíte me friendly : and re-prôve me.

6 But let not their précious bâlms bréak my head : yea, I will pray yet agâinst their wick-ed-ness.

7 Let their judges be overthrowen in mf stô-ny places : that they may hêar my wóords, for they are sweet.

8 Our bones lie scâttèred befóre the pit : líke as when one breaketh and hêweth wôod up-on the earth.

9 But mine eyes look unto thêe, O Lôrd God : in thee is my trûst, O cást not out my soul.

3 Great is the Lord, and marvellous, worthy to be praised : there is no end of his greatness.

PSALM CX. Dixit Dominus.

mf THE Lord said ún-to-my Lord : Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thine é-nemies-thy foot-stool.

2 The Lord shall send the rod of thy power out of Sion : be thou ruler, even in the midst among thine é-nemies.

3 In the day of thy power shall the people offer thee free-will offerings with an hó-ly worship : the dew of thy birth is of the womb of the morn-ing.

5 The Lórd upon thy right hand : shall wound even kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen ; he shall fill the places with the dead bodies : and smite in sunder the heads over dí-vers cōun-tries.

PSALM CXXII. Memento, Domine.

mf L ÓRD, remém-ber David : and ál his trōu-ble ;

2 How he swáre ún-to the Lord : and vowed a vow unto the Almighty Gód of Já-cob ;

3 I will not come within the tábernacle of mine house : nór climb up into my bed ;

4 I will not suffer mine eyes to sléep, nor mine éye-lids to slumber : neither the temples of my head to táke a-ny rest ;

5 Until I find out a place for the temple of the Lord : an habitation for the mighty Gód of Já-cob.

6 Lo, we heard of the sáme at Eph-ra-ta : and found it in the wood.

7 We will gó into his tá-ber-nacle : and fall low on our knées before his foot-stool.

12 Of the fruit of thy body : shall I sét up-on thy seat.

13 If thy children will keep, my covenant, and my téstimonies that I shall learn-them ; their children also shall sit upon thy seat for e-ver-more.

14 For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be an habítatíon for him-self : hé hath lóng-ed for her.

15 This shall be my rést for ever : here will I dwéll, for I háve a-de-light there-in.

17 I will déck her priests with health : f and her sánts shall-re-joyce and sing.

18 There shall I make the hórns of Dá-vid-to flourish : I have ordáined a lántern for míne A-noint-ed.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lôrd, for I am weak : O Lord, hêal me, for my bônes

3 My soul âlso is sôre troubled : but,
Lôrd, how lóng wilt-thou pun-ish me?

4 Turn thee, O Lôrd, and delf-ver-my

5 For in dêath no man remém-bereth

the-pit?

6 I am weary of my groaning ; every night wash I my bed : and wâter my côuch with my tears.

7 My beauty is gône for vé-ry trouble :
and worn away because of âll mine

f 8 Away from me, all vê that wôrk

of my wêep-ing.

PSALM xxxii. Beati, quorum.

BLESSED is he whose un-righteousness mf is for-given : and whose sîn is côver-ed.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lôrd impu-teth no sîn : ând in whose spî-rit there is no guile.

3 For while I hêld my tongue : my p bones consumed awây through my daf-ly
complain-ing.

4 For thy hand is heavy upôn me dâ-y

drougnt in stûm-mer.

5 I will acknôwledge my sîn unto thee :
and mine unrighteousness hâve I nôt hid.

6 I said, I will confess my sîns
ûn-to the Lord : and so thou forgâvest the wick-edness of my sîn.

7 For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a tîme when thou máy-est be found : but in the great waterfloods they shall nôt come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thôu shalt compass me about with sôngs of deli-verance.

9 I will inform thee, and teach thee mf

in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.

PSALM xxxviii. Domine, ne in furore.

mf PUT me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thine anger : neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me : and thy hand press-eth me sore.

pp 3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure : neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 For my wickednesses are gone over my head : and are like a sore burden, too heavy for me to bear.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt : through my foolishness.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and misery : that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a sore disease : and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble, and sore smitten : I have roared for the very discomfort of my heart.

p 9 Lord, thou knowest all my desire : and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me : and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble : and my kinsmen stood afar off.

12 They also that sought after my life laid snares for me : and they that went about to do me evil talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not : and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14 I became even as a man that hear-eth not : and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust : thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me : for when my foot slipped, they rejoiced greatly against me.

17 And I, truly, am set in the plague : and my heaviness is over in my sight.

18 For I will confess my wickedness : and be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies live, and are mighty : and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reward evil for good are against me : because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God : be not thou far from me.

PSALM cii. Domine, exaudi.

mf HEAR my prayer, O Lord : and let my cry'ng come un-to thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble : incline thine ear unto me when I call ; O hear me, and that right soon.

pp 3 For my days are consumed away like smoke : and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass : so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groaning : my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6 I am become like a pelican in the wilderness : and like an owl that is in the desert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow : that sitteth alone upon the house-top.

8 Mine enemies revile me all the day long : and they that are mad upon me are sworn to gether against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread : and mingled my drink with weep'ing ;

10 And that because of thine indignation and wrath : for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are gone like a shadow : and I am withered like grass.

p 12 But, thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever : and thy remembrance throughout all ge-ne-ra-tions.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion : for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why ? thy servants think upon her stones : and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord : and all the kings of the earth thy Majesty ;

16 When the Lord shall build up Sion : mf and when his glory shall appear ;

17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute : and despiteth not their desire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after : and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from his sanc-tu-ary : out of the heaven did the Lord be-hold the earth ;

20 That he might hear the mournings of such as are in cap-tiv-ity : and deliver the children ap-point-ed unto death ;

21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion : and his wor-ship at Je-ru-salem ;

22 When the people are gathered to-gether : and the king-doms also, to serve the Lord.

23 He brought down my strength in my journey : and shortened my days.

24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age : as for thy years, they endure throughout all ge-ne-ra-tions.

25 Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth : and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure : they all shall wax old as doth a garment ;

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change

them, and they shall be changed : but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

POUT of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.*

2 O let thine ears consider well : the voice of my complaint.

3 If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done a-miss : O Lord, who may abide it ?

4 For there is mercy with thee : therefore shalt thou be merciful.

pp 5 I look for the Lord ; my soul doth wait for him : in his word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord : before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

mf 7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy ; and with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And he shall redeem Israel : from all his sins.

PSALM cxliii.† Domine, exaudi.

PHEAR my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire : hearken unto me for thy truth and righteousness' sake.

2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant : for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

mf 3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul ; he hath smitten my life down to the ground : he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me : and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the time past ; I muse upon all thy works : yea, I exercise myself in the works of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee : my soul gaspeth unto thee as a thirsty land.

7 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint : hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 O let me hear thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust : shew thou me the way that I should walk in, for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies : for I flee unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God : let thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Name's sake : and for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodness slay mine enemies : and destroy all them that vex my soul ; for I am thy servant.

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hear-est not : and in the night-season also I take no rest.

mf 3 And thou conf-estest holy : O thou wor-ship of Is-ra-el.

4 Our fathers ho-ped in thee : they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They called upon thee, and were holpen : they put their trust in thee, and were not confound-ed.

6 But as for me, I am a worm, and no man : a very scorn of men, and the out-cast of the peo-ple.

7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn : they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, say-ing,

8 He trusted in God, that he would deliver him : let him deliver him, if he will have him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb : thou wast my hope, when I hanged yet upon my mother's breasts.

10 I have been left unto thee ever since I was born : thou art my God even from my mother's womb.

p 11 O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand : and there is none to help me.

12 Many oxen are come a-bout me : fat bulls of Basan close me in on every side.

13 They gape upon me with their mouths : as it were a ramping and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint : my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaveth to my gums : and thou shalt bring me in-to the dust of death.

16 For many dogs are come a-bout me : and the council of the wicked layeth siege a-against me.

17 They pierced my hands and my feet ; I may tell all my bones : they stand staring and looking upon me.

18 They part my garments a-mong them : and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But be not thou far from me, O Lord : thou art my succour, haste thee to help me.

mf LORD GOD of my salvation, I have cried day and night be-fore thee : O let my prayer enter into thy presence, incline thine ear un-to my call-ing.

3 I am counted as one of them that go

doun in-to the pit : and I have been even as a man that hath no strength.

4 Free among the dead, like unto them that are wounded, and lie in the grave : who are out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.

5 Thou hast laid me in the low-est pit : in a place of dark-ness, and in the deep.

6 Thine indignation hath hard up-on-me : and thou hast vexed me with all thy storms.

7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me : and made me to be abhor-red of them.

8 I am so fast in prison : that I can-not get forth.

9 My sight faileth for ve-ry trouble : 21 Pt Lord, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched forth my hands un-to thee.

10 Dost thou shew wonders among the dead : or shall the dead rise up again, and praise thee?

11 Shall thy loving-kindness be shewed in the grave : or thy faithfulness in de-struc-tion?

12 Shall thy wondrous works be known in the dark : and thy righteousness in the land where all things are for-got-ten?

13 Unto thee have I cried, O Lord : and early shall my prayer come be-fore thee.

14 Lord, why abhorrest thou my soul : p and hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am in misery, and like unto him that is at the point to die : even from my youth up thy terrors have I suffered with a trou-bled mind.

16 Thy wrathful displeasure goeth o-ver me : and the fear of thee hath undone me.

p For in that he died, he died unto sin once : but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

Like-wise 'reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin : but alive unto God through Je-sus Christ our Lord.

[Rom. vi. 9.]

CHRIST is 'risen from the dead : and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

For 'since by man came death : by man p came also the resurrec-tion of the dead.

For 'as in Adam all die : even so in Christ shall all be made a-live. [1 Cor. xv. 20.]

PSALM ii. Quare fremuerunt gentes?

WHY do the heathen so furiously rage to-gether : and why do the people ima-gine-a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take coun-sel-to-gether : against the LORD, and against his Anointed.

3 Let us break their bonds a-sunder :
and cast away their cords from us.

f 4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them-to scorn : the LORD shall have them in de-ri-sion.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath : and vex them in his sore dis-plea-sure.

6 Yet have I set my King : upon my holy hill of Si-on.

p 7 I will preach the law, whereof the LORD hath said unto me : Thou art my Son, this day have I be-got-ten thee.

8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee
the heathen for thine in-heritance : and the utmost parts of the earth for thy pos-ses-sion.

9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron : and break them in pieces like a pot-ter's ves-sel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings : mf be learned, ye that are judg-es of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD in fear : and rejoice unto him with rever-ence.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and so be kindled, (yea, but a little,) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM cxi. Confitebor tibi.

sought out of all thēm that have plea-sure therein.

3 His work is worthy to be praised, and hāl in honour : and his righteousnēss endūr-eth-for ē-ver.

4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath sō done his mār-vellous wōrks : that they ought to be hād in remēm-brance.

mf GREAT is the Lord, and highly to be praised : in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.

2 The hill of Sion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth : upon the north-side lieth the city of the great King ; God is well known in her palaces as a sure refuge.

p 3 For lo, the kings of the earth : are gathered, and gone by to-gather.

4 They marvelled to see such things : they were astonished, and suddenly cast down.

5 Fear came there upon them, and sorrow : as upon a woman in her travail.

6 Thou shalt break the ships of the sea : through the east-wind.

7 Like as we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God : God upholdeth the same for ever.

mf 8 We wait for thy loving-kindness, O God : in the midst of thy temple.

9 O God, according to thy Name, so is thy praise unto the world's end : thy right hand is full of righteousness.

10 Let the mount Sion rejoice, and the daughter of Jerusalem be glad : because of thy judgments.

f 11 Walk about Sion, and go round about her : and tell the towers thereof.

12 Mark well her bulwarks, set up her houses : that ye may tell them that come after.

13 For this God is our God for ever and ever : he shall be our guide unto death.

PSALM lxxviii. Eurycat Deus.

mf LET God arise, and let his enemies be scattered : let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drive them away : and like as wax melteth at the fire, so let the ungodly perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God : let them also be merry and joyful.

4 O sing unto God, and sing praises unto his Name : magnify him that rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horse ; praise him in his Name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 He is a Father of the fatherless, and defendeth the cause of the widows : even God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivity : but letteth the ruffians continue in scarcity.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people : when thou wentest through the wilderness,

8 The earth shook, and the heavens dropped at the presence of God : even as Sinai also was moved at the presence of God, who is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious rain upon thine inheritance : and refreshedst it when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell there-in : for thou, O God, hast of thy goodness prepared for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word : great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited : and they of the house hold divided the spoil.

13 Though ye have lien among the

20 He is our God, even the God of whom cometh salvation : God is the Lord, by whom we escape death.

21 God shall wound the head of his enemies : and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his wickedness.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people again, as I did from Basan : mine own will I bring again, as I did sometime from the deep of the sea.

2d Pt. 23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies : and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the same.

f 24 It is well seen, O God, how thou goest : how thou, my God and King, goest in the sanctuary.

25 The singers go before, the minstrels follow after : in the midst are the damsels playing with the timbrels.

26 Give thanks, O Israel, unto God the Lord in the congregations : from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes of Judah their counsel : the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nephthali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee : stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us.

29 For thy temple's sake at Jerusalem : so shall kings bring presents unto thee.

30 When the company of the spear-men, and multitude of the mighty are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people, so that they humbly bring pieces of silver : and when he hath scattered the people that delight in war ;

31 Then shall the princes come out of Egypt : the Moabites' land shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

32 Sing unto God, O ye kingdoms of the earth : O sing praises unto the Lord ;

2 Every dây will I give thânk's unto thee : and praise thy Nâme for e-ver-and e-ver.

3 Great is the Lord, and marvellous, wôrthy tó be praised : thêre is no end of his grêat-ness.

4 One generation shall praise thy wôrks
ûn-to-a-nother : ând declâre thy pôw-er.

5 As for me, I will be tâlking ôf thy worship : thy glôry, thy praise, and won-drous works ;

6 So that men shall speak of the might of thy mar-vellous acts : and I will âlso
têll of thy grêat-ness.

7 The memorial of thine abundant kîndness shâll be shewed : and mên shall sing of thy right-eousness.

8 The Lôrd is grâ-cious, and merciful : p
lông-suffering, and of grêat gôod-ness.

9 The Lord is lôving unto e-ver-y man :
and his mêr-cy is e-ver all his works.

10 All thy wôrks praise thee, O Lord : f
and thy sâints give thânk's ûn-to-thee.

11 They shew the glôry ôf thy kingdom :
ând tâlk of thy pôw-er ;

12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightness ôf thy kingdom : might be known ûn-to-mên.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlast-ing kingdom : and thy dominion endureth throughout all æ-ges.

p 14 The Lord upholdeth all such as fall : and lifteth up all those that are down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord : and thou givest them their meat in due sea-son.

16 Thou openest thine hand : and fillest all things liv-ing with plen-tiousness.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his ways : and holy in all his works.

18 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call up-on him : yea, all such as call upon him faith-fully.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him : he also will hear their cry, and will help them.

20 The Lord preserveth all them that love him : but scattereth abroad all the ungod-ly.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord : and let all flesh give thanks unto his holy Name for ever and ever.

mf O LORD our Governour : how excellent is thy Name in all the world !

[Psalm viii. 1.]

Lord, what is man, that thou hast such respect unto him : or the son of man, that thou so re-gard-est him ? [Psalm cxliv. 3.]

The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his mar-vellous works : that they ought to be had in remem-brance.

[Psalm cxi. 4.]

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doeth for the chil-dren of-men ! [Psalm cvii. 21.]

p Behôld, O Gôd our-de-fender : and look upon the face of thine A-nointed. [Psalm lxxxiv. 9.]

O hold thou up her goings in thy paths : that her foot-steps slip not. [Psalm xvii. 5.]

Grant the Queen a long life : and make her glâd with the joy of thy cōunten-ance. [Psalm lxi. 6 & xxi. 6.]

Let her dwell before thee for ever : O prepare thy loving mercy and faithfulness, that they may preserve her. [Psalm lxi. 7.]

In her time let the right-eous flourish : and let peace be in all our bōr-ders. [Psalm lxxii. 7 & cxlvii. 14.]

As for her enemies, clothe them with shame : but upon herself let her crown flourish. [Psalm cxxxii. 19.]

Blessed be the Lord God, even the Gôd of Is-ra-el : which only do-eth won-drous things. [Psalm lxxii. 18.]

And blessed be the Name of his Mâ-jesty for ever : and all the earth shall be filled with his Mâ-jesty. A-men, A-men. [Ver. 19.]

Glory be to the Fâther, and to the Son : and to the Ho-ly Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : wôrld with-out end A-men.

PSALM XX. Exaudiat te Dominus.

m THE Lord hear thee in the day of trouble : the Name of the Gôd of Já-cob defend thee ;

2 Send thee help from the sanc-tu-ary : and strengthen thee out of Si-on ;

3 Remem-ber all thy offerings : and accept thy burnt-sacri-fice ;

4 Grant thee thy heart's de-sire : and fulfil all thy mind.

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and triumph in the Name of the Lord our God : the Lord perform all thy petitions.

p 6 Now know I, that the Lord helpeth his Anointed, and will hear him from his ho-ly heaven : even with the wholesome strength of his right hand.

7 Some put their trust in châr-iots, and some in horses : but we will remem-ber the Name of the Lord our God.

8 They are brought down, and fallen : but we are risen, and stand up-right.

9 Save, Lord, and hear us, O King of heaven : when we call up-on thee.

PSALM xxi. Domine, in virtute tua.

THE King shall rejoice in thy strength, mf O Lord : exceeding glad shall he be of thy sal-vä-tion.

2 Thou hast given him his heart's de-sire : and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt prevent him with the bless-ings of goodness : and shalt set a crown of pure gold up-on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life : even for ever-and-ever.

No. I. 2.

No. II. 2.

No. III. 2.

5 His honour is gréat in thy sal-va-tion :
glory and great wórship shalt thou láy
up-ón him.

6 For thou shalt gíve him everlásting fe-licity : and make him glád with the jóy of thy còunte-nance.

7 And why? because the Kíng putteth
his trúst in the Lord : and in the mercy of the most Híghest he sháll not miscär-ry.

f 8 All thine énemies shall féel thy hand :
thy right hand shall fínd out thém that háte thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery óven in tíme of thy wrath : the Lord shall destroy them in his displéasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their frúit shalt thou root óut of the earth : and their séeđ from among the chil-dren of men.

11 For they inténded mís-chief against thee : and imagined such a device
as they áre not á-ble tó per-form.

12 Therefore shalt thou pút them tó flight : and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make réady agáinst the fáce of them.

13 Be thou exalted, Lórd, in thine ówn strength : sô will we síng, and praise thy power.

No. I. 3.

No. II. 3.

PSALM CI. Misericordiam et judicium.

mf MY song shall bê of mër-cy and judgment : unto thee, O Lórd, will I sing.

2 O let me háve ún-der-standing : ín
the wáy of god-li-ness.

3 Wén wilt thou cóme unto me : I will wálk in my hóuse with a per-fect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand ;
I háte the síns of un-faithfulness : there shall nô such cleáve un-to me.

5 A froward heart shall depárt fróm
me : I will not knów a wick-ed pèr-son.

6 Whoso prívily slán-dereth his neighbour : hím will I de-stroy.

7 Whoso hath also a proud lóok and hígh stomach : I wíll not suf-fer him.

8 Mine eyes look upon such as áre faithful ín the land : thát they may dwell with me.

9 Whoso léadeth a gód-ly life : he shall
bê my sèr-vant.

10 There shall no deceitful pèrson dwell ín my house : he that tel-leth lies shall not tár-ry in my síght.

11 I shall soon destroy all the un-gódly that áre ín the land : thát I may root out all wicked dōers from the cí-ty of the Lórd.
