I Anches. Récit

Handwritten musical score system 1, featuring treble and bass staves with complex melodic lines and various accidentals. The notation includes many sharps and naturals, suggesting a key signature of multiple sharps.

Handwritten musical score system 2. It includes the tempo marking "Andante" and a circled "GJ" with an "E" next to it. There are handwritten annotations "rall." and a sharp sign "#". The system shows a change in the musical texture with more complex chords and melodic fragments.

Handwritten musical score system 3. It features the tempo marking "1^o Tempo" and a circled "GJ" with an "E" next to it. There are handwritten annotations "rall." and "G.O. Anches". The system shows a change in the musical texture with more complex chords and melodic fragments.

Tirasses et Anches

Handwritten musical score system 4. It includes a large handwritten "F4" above the staff. The system shows a change in the musical texture with more complex chords and melodic fragments.

Handwritten musical score system 5. It includes the tempo marking "rall:" and the word "long" written twice. The system shows a change in the musical texture with more complex chords and melodic fragments.

First system of a musical score. The treble staff contains a melodic line with many beamed sixteenth notes. The bass staff contains a harmonic accompaniment. A handwritten bracket spans across both staves. The text "Anches. 16 p." is written in the upper left of the system.
