

Song

on

PEACE,

Set to Music by

W. Carnaby.

Organist of Huntingdon. Late of His Majesty's Chapel Royal.

Ent. Nat. Hall.

Pr 1/.

London, Printed & Sold by Chappell & Co. 50. New Bond Street.

Recit: Tell me, on what ho-ly ground May Do-mes-tic peace be found, Halc'yon daughter of the Skies; Far on fearful wing she flies from the Tyrants scepter'd state, from the Rebels noi-sy hate.

AIR.

3

p f p h

In a Cottag'd vale she dwells list'ning to the sabbath bells, p p In a Cottag'd vale she dwells list'ning to the sabbath bells, p While all a-round her steps are seen spot-less ho-nors meeker mien, While all a-round her steps are seen spotless honors meeker mien. f p

2. p

Love the Sire of pleasing fears,
Sorrow smiling thro' her tears;
And mindful of the past employ,
Mem'ry; bosom spring of joy.

