MUSIC BY
AUG. W. JUNKER.

Andante con moto.

PIANO. mf

Staccato

I was dreaming, I was dream . . . . . ing, There was music in the air ;

There was sunlight on the water, There was gladness everywhere, There was gladness every - where; For the Wedding Bells were ring - ing, ring - ing,

poco rit tempo cres en out so merri - ly, And I fancied in my dreaming That they rung for you and

p f

me. I was dream-

lento tempo mf

ing, Oh! how glad it all did seem, But I'm waking now, I'm waking, and I know t'was all a dream, But I'm waking now, I'm waking, and I know t'was but a starg dream.

I was dreaming, I was dream - - - - - ing, In the twilight soft and grey. There were shadows on the water, There was sorrow in the day, There was sorrow in the day, For the old church bell was

poco rit tempo cres ring - ing, Chiming out so mournful - ly, And I fancied in my dreaming Was it parting you and

en do f

me ? I was dream-

ing, Oh! how sad it all did seem, But I'm waking now, I'm waking, And I know t'was all a dream, But I'm waking now I'm waking And I f staccato

know t'was but a dream.

f tempo
