

No 5 of Carr's Canzonetts Op 14 — Entered according to Act of Congress the 18 twelfth day of June 1824. by Benjamin Carr. of the State of Pennsylvania.

SEA OF SUSA

Canzonetto

The Words translated from a Moorish Ballad.

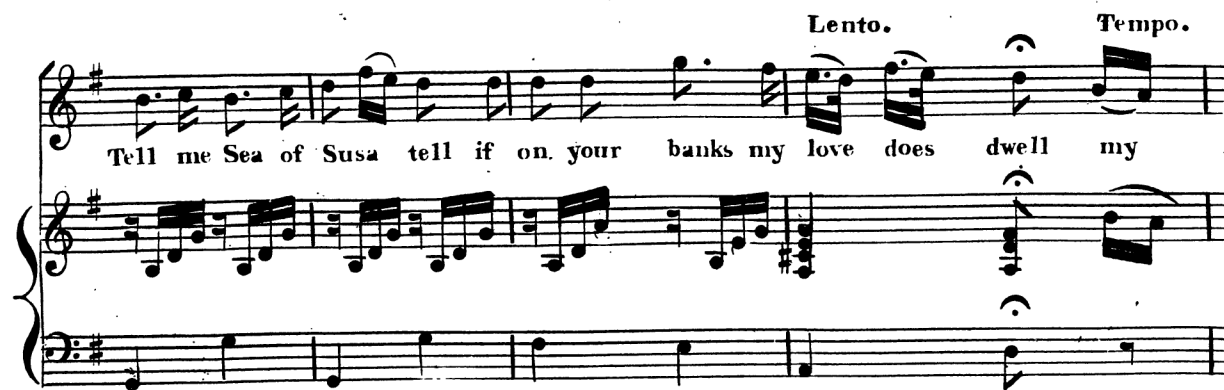

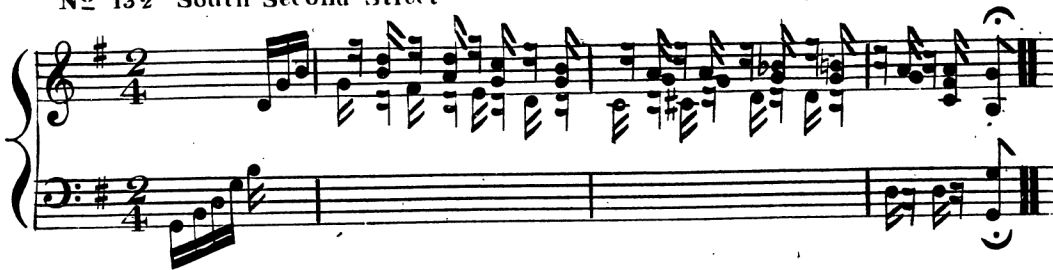

— COMPOSED BY —

B. Carr.

Philadelphia. Printed for the Composer, and sold at T. Carrs Music Store
No 132 South Second Street

Price 25 Cents

*Adantino.
Espressivo*

(19)

3^d Verse both these Bars Lentando.
Poco Lento.

Love whom well you might have known with eyes so dark and eyes brow's brown Oh!

Tell me Sea of Susa! tell if on your banks my Love does dwell

2

'Twas from my window first I spied
My love, as past he chanc'd to ride:
In gayest colours was he drest'd
With crimson robe and yellow vest.
Oh! tell me Sea of Susa tell &c.

3

Before my friends, dear youth! I seem
Thy worth but little to esteem;
But in my heart couldst thou but see
I languish & I die, for thee.
Oh! tell me Sea of Susa tell? &c.

Sea of Susa.