She Has My Heart: Bass Clarinet & Harp Suite

Opus 35; 2nd Edition

Thank you so much for taking the time to study this music. This opus was originally conceived November 8th, 2017, I was only composing for about two-three months, and somehow was inspired by the instrument, bass clarinet, which was foreign to me before this point in time. I was enamoured by its timbre, and how it was capable of four octaves. It startled me that all the contemporary music that was being written for it was all pretty atonal and scary.

I believe the bass clarinet to be more lyrical than that when given the chance. Anyhow, this is the second edition because, again, I was extremely new to composing and there were many "rules of etiquette" in composing for these instruments that I wasn't aware of and I also have had the PDFs on imslp.org in shambles for far too long.

So I chose to start revising these works now, April 4th, 2018, at a time when my musical imagination was lower. Re-writing slur markings and dynamics, adding harp pedaling diagrams. Things that I wasn't aware of before now. Also, I've taken up bass clarinet as a hobby now for eight months now and I cringed at the former edition of this work, knowing better how bass clarinet music is supposed to be presented.

Alas, now the music is revised and more bearable for the musicians performing and studying this work. I hope you've enjoyed this piece just as much as I had enjoyed creating it in the past. This piece, the first opus I've ever shared, inspired me to take up the instrument and to keep writing afterwards as well. Thanks for reading.

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff is for B. Cl. (Bass Clarinet) and the bottom staff is for Hp. (Piano). The key signature has three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The time signature is not explicitly shown but appears to be 4/4. The score starts at measure 58. Above the B. Cl. staff, the tempo marking 'molto rit. al fine' is written. The B. Cl. staff has a melodic line with a slur over measures 58-60 and a final note in measure 61. The Hp. staff has a dense chordal texture with a triplet in measure 60 and an 8va marking in measure 61. Dynamics range from fff to mp. The tempo marking 'molto rit. al fine' is present above both staves.
