Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff is marked 2mo. pp (second movement, pianissimo). The bass staff is marked f e brillante (forte, brilliant). The system includes a repeat sign and a first ending bracket.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble staff has a melodic line with a first ending bracket and a forte dynamic (fz). The bass staff has a forte dynamic (fz) and a first ending bracket.

The musical score is written for piano in a key of two flats (B-flat major or D-flat minor) and 3/4 time. It consists of six systems of music, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system includes the tempo marking istesso tempo. and the performance instruction ben cantando. The melody in the right hand is characterized by long, flowing lines with many ties, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. The fourth system features a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand, marked with an '8' above it. The fifth system continues the melodic development. The sixth system concludes with a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand, marked with a '3' above it, and a crescendo marking cresc. in the left hand. The piece ends with a final chord in the right hand.
