

DREAMING EVER DREAMING.

1859

WRITTEN AND COMPOSED EXPRESSLY FOR

MRS. J. H. LONG

BY

GEO. F. ROOT.

BOSTON, RUSSELL & TOLMAN 291 WASHINGTON ST.

Chicago.
ROOT & CARY.

New York.
WM. HALL & SON

Baltimore.
I. T. STODDARD.

Boston.
GILMORE & RUSSELL.

J. M. Bufford & Co. Lith.

DREAMING EVER DREAMING.

G. F. ROOT.

Cantabile.

VOICE.

PIANO.

Dreaming ev-er dream-ing Dearest one of thee. O the glorious wak-ing When thy form I see, O the glorious wak-ing

When thou greetest me What though called to wan - der, Far from home sweet home. Thought to all a stran - ger, Still I'm ne'er a - lone,

For I'm ev - er dream - ing, Dearest one of thee, Hoping for the wak - ing When thy form I see, For the glorious wak - ing

When with thee.

5

When thou greetest me.

Dearer still and dear-er Every olden tie. Closer still and closer Mem'ry brings them nigh Stronger still and strong-er

As the time goes by. But should all for-sake me— Home and friends be gone, This should not a - - wake me Still I'd slumber on.

For I would be dream - ing Dearest one of thee ——— And my on - ly wak - - ing When thou greetest me ——— And my on - ly wak - - ing

When with thee.

When thou greetest me.