PRELUDE.

little slower. in time.

what I say is true. The on-ly way to save it, is, let us man to man, Be Un-cle Sammy's house; But let us be u-nit-ed—come, do it, while we can; Be friendly to the U-nion, and shake hands with Un-cle Sam.

friendly to the U-nion, and shake hands with Un-cle Sam.

day has come at last, my boys, When you and I must choose ; We'll hoist the good old Flag again—come,

day has come at last, my boys, When you and I must choose ; We'll hoist the good old Flag again—come,

do it, while you can ; Be friendly to the U-nion, and shake hands with Uncle Sam.

do it, while you can ; Be friendly to the U-nion, and shake hands with Uncle Sam.

3.

Remember, this great nation belongs to you and I ;
 Truth, Freedom, Peace, and Union, should be our battle-cry.
 Let Carolina, side by side, with Massachusetts stand ;
 Be friendly to the Union, and give Uncle Sam your hand.

Cho.—United we have all to gain, &c.

Let brothers live as brothers ; all angry passions cease ;
 Bury deep the hatchet, and we'll smoke the pipe of peace.
 We'll have one Flag, one Country—if we will man to man
 Be friendly to the Union, and shake hands with Uncle Sam.

Cho.—United we have all to gain, &c.
