stand be-side a lone-ly grave, Where dew-y lil-ies scent the air; I yon-der ma-ple in the lane, By trembling winds at twi-light stirred; Her look for peace and rest in vain, Where Au-tumn walks in so-ber gray; For hear a whis - per soft and low, That stirs my spi - rit like a prayer. A - las that ten - der lips ca - ressed my cheek, My heart was like a hap - py bird; And tho' since years and years of toil and pain, Have stole the bloom from life a - way; And now these we were doomed to part, A - las that a - ny life should lose The then these ach - ing feet, Have strayed a - mid earth's dust and grime; I eyes through shine and storm, Are look - ing up to yon - der clime; Where sooth - ing sun - shine of a heart, Whose love is like the sum - mer dews.

still have kept her memory sweet, She loved me in the sun - mer time.
an - gels guard the gen - tle form, Whose love was mine in sum - mer time.
