SECOND VERSE.

I love the wave And the sailer brave, Who oft meets his doom: On the ocean vast he sleeps his last In a shell or coral tomb. Chorus.

THIRD VERSE.

And oh in the night, When the moon's soft light; Smiles
sweet on the sparkling wave, And many a star as it twinkles a far, Seems to rise from a watery grave. Chorus.

FOURTH VERSE.

When life is o'er And I sail no more, O'er the ocean I cease to roam, Safe down below 'mid the coral of snow, May the sailor boy find a home. Chorus.
