

COMPANION SONG TO "THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL" 162.

THE TRAIL THAT LEADS TO HOME

No 1 in F.

No 2 in Ab.

L. And. W. Ellman

WRITTEN BY EDWARD LOCKTON

COMPOSED BY HERBERT
MACKENZIE

Philip Greaves

COPYRIGHT MCMXVI
BY WEST & CO.

WEST & CO.,
23-24, RATABONE PLACE,
OXFORD STREET, LONDON, W.

PRICE 1/6 NET CASH.

PRINTED IN GREAT BRITAIN

"The Trail that leads to Home"

Companion Song to "THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL"

Words by
EDWARD LOCKTON.

Music by HERBERT MACKENZIE.

VOICE.

PIANO.

1. Though I wan - der
2. In those dreams di -

far, - vine      'Neath a dis - tant star,
Hap - py fa - ces shine,

The right of public performance upon or by means of any Mechanical Instrument is strictly reserved.
Copyright MCMXVI by West & Co. for all countries.

W & C? 1935A

Hap - py dreams for ev - er wa - king Keep my lone - ly heart from ach - ing.
Back at home a - gain I wan - der, Ab - sence makes the heart grow fond - er.

Voi - ces soft and free Oft are call - ing me,
Friends a - cross the blue Give their love a - new,

L.H. L.H.

There's a gold - en path - way shin - ing Far a - cross the sea.
There's a wel - come wait - ing there When all my dreams come true.

rit.

CHORUS.

There's a trail that calls me home - ward Night and day,

p a tempo.

In my dreams the loved ones beck - on Far a - -

Red *

- way. Through the sha - dows and the sun - shine

Some day I shall roam Down that long, long trail a - ten.

wind - ing, The trail that leads back to home. home.

1. 2.

D.C.