Violine.

Piano.

First system of musical notation. It consists of a single melodic line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on grand staves (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has one sharp (F#). The melody features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes with slurs. The piano part includes chords and moving lines in both hands.

Second system of musical notation. It continues the melodic and piano parts from the first system. The piano accompaniment features more complex chordal textures and moving lines.

Third system of musical notation. The melodic line continues with a slight upward inflection. The piano part includes the instruction accelerando in both the treble and bass staves, indicating a gradual increase in tempo.

Fourth system of musical notation. This system includes dynamic markings and tempo changes. The melodic line starts with a forte (f) dynamic, followed by a fortissimo (ff) section, and then a piano (p) section marked ritenuto. The piano accompaniment also features these dynamics and a ritenuto section. The tempo changes to Lento. (Slow). The system concludes with a double bar line.

Ländler.

Valse champêtre. - Rustic Waltz. - Baile rustico.

Moderato.

The musical score is written for piano and features a 3/4 time signature with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The score is divided into four systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system includes the dynamic markings 'p espr.' and 'espr.'. The second system continues the melodic and harmonic development. The third system introduces the dynamic marking 'mf' (mezzo-forte). The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, slurs, and dynamic markings.

First system of musical notation. The treble clef staff contains a melody with a trill on the final note, marked f. The piano accompaniment in the grand staff is marked espr. and f. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#).

Second system of musical notation. The treble clef staff features a ritenuto section followed by an a tempo section, marked p. The piano accompaniment also includes a ritenuto section followed by an a tempo section. The key signature is two sharps.

Third system of musical notation. The treble clef staff continues the melody with various phrasing slurs. The piano accompaniment consists of block chords and moving lines in both hands. The key signature is two sharps.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff includes dynamics p, pp, and f, with markings for accel. and pizz.. The piano accompaniment includes pp and accel. markings. The system concludes with a double bar line. The key signature is two sharps.
