Valse.

The musical score is written for piano and features a waltz tempo. It consists of four systems of staves. The first system includes a treble staff with a melody marked mf and a grand staff (treble and bass) with accompaniment also marked mf. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system introduces a new section marked con delicatezza and p (piano), with the piano part featuring a triplet of eighth notes. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final melodic phrase and accompaniment.

First system of musical notation. The top staff (treble clef) contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together. The bottom staff (bass clef) contains a series of chords, primarily triads and dyads, with some eighth notes.

Second system of musical notation. The top staff continues the melodic line. The bottom staff continues the chordal accompaniment. A mf (mezzo-forte) dynamic marking appears in the bottom staff towards the end of the system.

Third system of musical notation. This system includes tempo and dynamic markings. Above the first measure of the top staff is riten. (ritardando). Above the second measure is a tempo. Below the first measure of the bottom staff is riten.. Below the second measure of the bottom staff is a tempo. A mf marking is also present above the second measure of the top staff.

Fourth system of musical notation. The top staff features a melodic line with eighth notes and some rests. The bottom staff continues with chords and some eighth notes.

Fifth system of musical notation. The top staff begins with a f (forte) dynamic marking. The bottom staff also begins with a f marking. The system concludes with a double bar line.
