THE SONG THAT WILL LIVE FOR EVER

CHORUS.

The song that will live for ever, as years go rolling by,
Ages may come and ages may go, the song will never die.
While human hearts are beating on the land or foam,
The song that will live for ever is "Home, Sweet Home."

THE SONG THAT WILL LIVE FOR EVER.

WRITTEN BY TOM BROWNE.

COMPOSED BY FELIX McGLENNON.

Moderato.

VOICE.

Musical score for Voice and Piano. The score consists of two staves. The top staff is for the Voice, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The bottom staff is for the Piano, starting with a common time and a bass clef. The piano staff includes dynamic markings f and p. The music begins with a series of eighth-note chords followed by a single note, then continues with a sequence of eighth-note chords.

PIANO.

Musical score for Voice and Piano, continuing from the previous system. The Voice part starts with a series of eighth-note chords. The Piano part follows with a series of eighth-note chords, including a dynamic marking rall. (rallentando) over a sustained note. The score ends with a final chord on the piano staff.

As a - round the camp fires the sol - diers lay; Their Ev' - ry warm true heart breath'd a si - lent pray'r; For they hearts were bold, and they beat, ah, so light - ly!

 thought of home the dear home of their child - hood,

Though they might be still'd in the com - ing fray. It was
 And the ones they lov'd who were wait - ing there. Ah! they all thought in vain that they court - ed slum - ber,

of pa - rents, of wives and chil - dren,

So they rous'd and sat there the whole night long, Tell - ing Sweet - hearts, friends and play - mates a - cross the foam. There were tales brave and men's tears talk - ing in the old hus - times o - ver, brave men's tears talk - ing in the old hus - times o - ver,

old hus - times o - ver, voi - ces

When at last one sang cho - them a sweet old song.
As they join'd the cho - rus a of "Home, sweet Home."
