The musical score consists of two systems of six staves each. The top system starts with a treble clef, followed by three more staves with treble clefs, and ends with a bass staff. The bottom system starts with a treble clef, followed by three more staves with treble clefs, and ends with a bass staff. Measures are separated by vertical bar lines. The music includes various note heads (solid black, open, dotted), stems (upward or downward), and rests. Measure numbers 5 and 6 are indicated above the staves. Key signatures are shown at the beginning of each measure, consisting of sharp symbols (#) and a Roman numeral 6.

A musical score for a choir or ensemble. The score consists of six staves, each with a different vocal range (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass, etc.). The music is in common time (indicated by 'C') and is written in G major (indicated by a G clef). The lyrics 'prædicare et testificari,' are repeated three times in each section. The vocal parts are mostly sustained notes, with some rhythmic patterns like eighth-note chords and sixteenth-note figures. The score is divided into sections by vertical bar lines.
