The musical score consists of five systems of two staves each. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The music is written in a style characteristic of early 20th-century piano repertoire, featuring dense chordal textures and melodic lines. The second system contains the instruction 'somente para acabar' (only to finish) above the staff and 'FIM' (The End) below the staff. The third system includes the instruction 'f com entusiasmo' (forte with enthusiasm). The fourth system features first and second endings, indicated by '1.^a' and '2.^a' above the staff. The fifth system concludes with the instruction 'D.C. al $\%$ ' (Da Capo al Fine), where the symbol is a stylized percentage sign.
