

A Song Set by M<sup>r</sup>. John Weldon & exactly engrav'd by Tho: Cross.

The wa ... ..-keful Nightingale,
The wa ... ..-keful Nightingale that takes no rest, while Cupid warms, while Cupid warms his lit ... ..-le lit-tle Breast.
All night how sweetly how sweetly he complains & makes us fear that Lov ... ..
... ..e has pains. No, no, no, no 'tis no such thing; no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no 'tis no such thing, for Love that makes him make, for Love that makes him wa ... ..
... ..-ke makes him sing; no, no, no, no 'tis no such thing, for Love that makes him wa ... ..-ke makes him Sing

For the Flute.

Flute part of the musical score, consisting of four staves of music.