

To Mr George Gray
with best wishes
from his Son Alexander

SELECT SCOTISH SONGS

Arranged in a simple style.

With Symphonies and an Accompaniment

R. A. SMITH.

Ent. Stat. Hall.

Price 1.

Edinburgh.

Printed & Sold by ROBT FURDIE at his Music & Musical Instrument Warehouse

83 Princess Street

NAE MAIR WE'LL MEET AGAIN, MY LOVE.

Gaelic Melody—Robt donadh Gorrach.

SLOW AND TENDERLY.

Nae

mair we'll meet a-gain, my love, by yon burn side, Nae mair we'll wander through the grove, by yon burn side. Ne'er a-gain the ma-vis' lay Will we hail at close o' day, For we ne'er a-gain will stray, down by yon burn side.

2d Verse.

3

X

Yet mem'ry oft will fond-ly brood, on yon burn side, O'er haunts which we sae

X

aft hae trod, on yon burn side; Still the walk wi' me thou'lt share, Tho' thy

X

Espress:
foot can nev-er mair Bend to earth the gow-an fair, down by

X

yon burn side.

Now far remov'd from every care, 'boon yon burn side,
 Thou bloom'st my love, an angel fair, 'boon yon burn side,
 And if angels pity know,
 Sure the tear for me will flow,
 Who must linger here below, down by yon burn side.

