The image displays a handwritten musical score for a piece titled "Campanella" in D major (Ddur.). The tempo is marked "presto alrai." The score is written on a six-line staff, characteristic of French lute tablature, where letters (a, b, c, d, e, f) represent fret positions instead of standard musical notes. The piece consists of two systems of music, each spanning six staves. The first system concludes with a measure marked "4" and a decorative flourish. The second system concludes with a measure marked "41." and a large, ornate decorative flourish. The handwriting is in a historical style, and the paper shows signs of age.
