The image shows a handwritten musical score for guitar, consisting of two staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature. It contains six lines of sixteenth-note patterns. The second staff begins with a bass clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature. It also contains six lines of sixteenth-note patterns. Below the first staff, the text "Var:3." is written, followed by "dol.". Below the second staff, the text "Var:4." is written. The music is written in a clear, cursive hand, typical of early printed music notation.

The sheet music consists of two staves of musical notation for guitar. The first staff, labeled 'Var. 3.', begins with a dynamic of ff and consists of six measures of sixteenth-note patterns. The second staff, labeled 'Var. 4.', begins with a dynamic of f and consists of eight measures of sixteenth-note patterns. Both staves are in common time (indicated by '2/4') and major key (indicated by a single sharp sign). The notation uses standard musical symbols like quarter notes, eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and rests, with various slurs and grace marks.
