*T*a planè est, R^{nde} D^{ne}, ita tua ipsius Vox nobis testata est. Qui te viderunt, (ij sunt tota nostra Civitas) ij scient; qui te non viderunt, huic programmi credent. Quid si etiam hi te videant? Minus credent, quia hujusmodi vocem in sene negabunt. Quid si verò audiant? Tunc ob vocem, senem te negabunt. Nam raro avis in terris, Senex Musicus; quem Aegyptij Sacerdotes per hieroglyphicam Cygni effigiem significabant: quippe quem omnes eo suavius modulari ferunt, quo magis in senium vergit. Hunc tu imitari perge, canta, vel ad mortem usq; latus. En, tibi ego materiam subministro, unde unde collectam, Ergo, inquis, nihil tuum, nihil non alienum offers. Hoc ipso, R^{nde} D^{ne}, tibi placere, commendari tibi volo. De meo non possum, studui igitur, ut possem de alieno. Si namq; de arte, quam amas, hi auctores tibi commendantur, salva res est; ego de utilitate tibi commendabor, quia hos tuâ gratiâ collegi; his tu nunc patrocinare. Musica, ut audio, præter alias liberales artes, tibi olim ad dignitatem, in qua nunc es, multum patrocinata est, quo tu jure non vicissim ejusdem Patronus eris?

*Fac ergo rogatus, id, quod debes facere, hos auctores à me benignè suscipe, quos nosti: tuere, quos potes: ama, quos soles. Deus ter
Opt. te suum Psalten remunerabitur, quando non fabulosus

A single staff of handwritten musical notation. The notes are diamond-shaped, some with stems and some without. The staff begins with a C-clef and a 6 below it. The notation includes various note values and rests, ending with a 3/2 time signature.

Handwritten musical notation on a five-line staff. The notation includes various note values (semibreves, minims, crotchets), rests, and a 3/2 time signature. The notes are decorated with diamond-shaped ornaments.

A single staff of handwritten musical notation. The notation includes various note values (minims, crotchets, quavers), accidentals (sharps, flats, naturals), and a 3/2 time signature. The handwriting is in a historical style, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The staff is a single line with a C-clef. The notes are written in a stylized, somewhat irregular manner, with some notes having stems that are not perfectly vertical. The accidentals are clearly marked. The 3/2 time signature is written as a circle with '3' over and '2' under. The notation ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.
