

NO

93-OCT 3 0
Copy 1973

Once In The Bygone Days

Ballad

WORDS & MUSIC

by

R. M. STULTS

PRICE 50¢

PHILADELPHIA: THEO. PRESSER, 1712 CHESTNUT ST.

ONCE IN THE BYGONE DAYS

Once in the bygone days, now gone forever,
 Life then seemed a blissful summer dream;
 Fragrant was the air with perfume laden,
 From the wild flow'r's growing by the stream.
 In the trees the birds were singing blithely,
 Summer's glory glistened ev'rywhere,
 All the world seemed like a fairy dreamland,
 Nature's beauty bright beyond compare.

Once in the bygone days, dear,
 In golden sunny June;
 Once when the birds sang sweetly,
 Their voices all atune;
 Once when we wandered idly,
 Down where the brooklet plays,
 You whisper'd the words "I love you,"
 Once in the bygone days.

Once in the bygone days I heard you whisper
 Words that told me that your love was true,
 Side by side among the fragrant blossoms,
 There I learned the lesson sweet from you;
 Where the brooklet softly, gently murmured,
 Crooning o'er the pebbles clear and bright,
 Where the sunbeams kissed the rippling water,
 Sparkling in the golden summer light.

No. 5913

ONCE IN THE BYGONE DAYS

BALLAD

Words and Music by

R. M. STULTS

Andante

Moderato con espress.

The musical score continues with three staves. The vocal line begins with the lyrics "Once in the by-gone days, now gone for - ev - - er," followed by "Once in the by-gone days I heard you whis - - per." The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with sustained chords. The vocal line then continues with "Life then seemed a bliss - ful, sum - mer dream; — Words that told me that your love was true, —". The piano accompaniment features eighth-note patterns and sustained notes.

The musical score concludes with three staves. The vocal line begins with "Fra - grant was the air with per - fume la - - den," followed by "Side by side a - mong the fra - grant blos - - soms,". The piano accompaniment consists of simple harmonic chords and eighth-note patterns.

f

From the wild flow'r's growing by the stream. In the trees the birds were singing
There I learned the les-son sweet from you. — Where the brooklet soft- ly, gen-tly mf accel.

f

blithe - - - ly, Summer's glo - ry glistened ev - 'ry - mur - - mured, Crooning o'er the peb-bles clear and a tempo

a tempo

Ad. * Ad. * Ad. * Ad. *

where. All the world seemed like a fai - ry.
bright; Where the sun - beams kissed the rip - pling

rall.

mp

mp a tempo

dream - land, Na-ture's beau - ty, bright be-yond com - pare. — wa - ter, Sparkling in the gol - den sum-mer light. —

f

rit.

5

Slow Waltz tempo

Once in the by-gone days, dear, In gol-den sun-ny June; —

p

Once when the birds sang sweet - ly, Their voi-ces all a - tune —

mf

cresc.

f

Once when we wandered id - ly, Down where the brook-let plays, — You

p

f

ff

p ral - len - tan - do

ff

p ral - len - tan - do

pp