WE SHALL MEET NO MORE

The Words by the Rev. Mr. W. D. Howells

VERSE 1.

"WE SHALL MEET NO MORE,"

The Words by The Hon^{ble} Mrs Norton.

1st VERSE.

ANDANTE

The musical score is written for voice and piano. The voice part is on a single staff with a treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and the time signature is 6/8. The tempo is marked 'ANDANTE'. The score is divided into three systems. The first system shows the beginning of the first verse, with the words 'We shall' appearing below the voice staff. The second system continues the verse with the words 'meet no more on the sun..ny hill, Where the lone..ly wild flower'. The third system concludes the verse with the words 'springs and dies! We shall meet no more by the mur..muring rill, Where the'. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and moving lines in both hands, providing harmonic support for the vocal melody.

We shall meet no more on the sun..ny hill, Where the lone..ly wild flower springs and dies! We shall meet no more by the mur..muring rill, Where the cool blue wa-ters id...ly rise. The Sun.. shine and Flow-ers all bright re...main in their love.....ly beau...ty, as of yore; But to me 'twill ne...ver, be bright again— We shall meet no more— We shall meet no more.

2nd VERSE.

We shall meet no more in the light-ed halls, Amid hap-py faces and gay young hearts; I may listen in vain as each foot...step falls I may watch in vain as each form de-parts.

There are laugh-ing voices, but thy young tone, Its cheer....ful greeting hath ceas'd to pour! Thy form from the danc...ing Train is gone, We shall meet, We shall

pp Rallén

meet no more!
