Come On Over Here

It's A Wonderful Place

By WILLIAM JEROME

1. Come over, come over, come on over here,
It's a wonderful place, it's a wonderful place;
It's seldom a rich man is brought into Court.
And milk for the babies is twelve cents a quart.
In the subway the people are packed like sardines
While the Belmonts and Shonts ride around in machines,
In the subway at night you'll see marvelous scenes
It's a wonderful, wonderful place.
2. Come over, come over, come on over here,
It's a wonderful place, it's a wonderful place;
And Sir Thomas Lipton from over the sea
Makes all his wealth here selling coffee and tea.
At the Waldorf you'll meet all the swagger set bunch
And a dollar will buy you a lovely milk punch
And for ten I've been told you can get a light lunch
It's a wonderful, wonderful place.
3. Come over, come over, come on over here,
It's a wonderful place, it's a wonderful place;
A girl that does housework has nothing to do
The lady you work for, sure she waits on you.
Everyone that you meet owns an automobile
And the man that I work for his name is O'Neal
And you'll find an O Sullivan on ev'ry heel
It's a wonderful, wonderful place.
