PREFACE.

THE author of the following original tunes wished to get some person better educated than himself to write a preface or introduction to his little work; but on reflection it occurred to him that he could tell the public all about it as well as any one else; so he concluded to make the attempt. He is, however, fully aware of the difficulties attendant upon an attempt to appear successfully as an author before a scrutinizing and discerning public, especially when unaided by the influence of wealth, or a long list of influential friends; and whatever may be the fate of this production, he feels that he must stem the current of public opinion alone. Add to this the circumstance of having been born, not only in obscurity, but being descended from that unfortunate and proscribed people, the Indians, with whose name a considerable portion of the enlightened American people are unwilling to associate even the shadow of anything like talent, virtue, or genius, and as being wholly incapable of any improvement, either moral, mental, or physical, and the wonder will cease to be a wonder. In view of all these disadvantages, it is not without great diffidence that he attempts to appear at the bar of public opinion, not knowing but JUDGE PREJUDICE may preside, and condemn his work to the deep and silent shades of everlasting oblivion, without even a hearing. Should this be its fate with the generality of the public, still he thinks he has a claim upon a certain portion of the Christian public, he means his brethren of the Methodist Episcopal Church: for if there be any meaning in that clause of our excellent Discipline which recommends the "employing of members in preference to others; helping each other in business, &c.," the author feels that he has a claim upon them, and he humbly trusts, judging from Christian feelings, that that claim will not be wholly disregarded. The work now offered to the public, small as it is, has occupied the attention of the author for the space of seven years; and it may not be amiss to state, that it was not until the year 1836 that he first commenced trying to learn, scientifically, the art of singing; in the acquirement of which, from that time to the present, he has had to encounter and overcome the difficulties attending the same alone, and unaided by any instruction, except what he could obtain by simply reading the rules contained in the few musical works to which he has had access. From these works he has been enabled, under the blessing of God, to obtain that amount of theoretical knowledge in music which has prompted him to offer this little volume to the public.

The author had inserted in his original manuscript a number of airs which have been long in use among the Brothertown Indians, which it was thought inexpedient to publish, as it might interfere with the rights of the authors of those tunes. Had it occurred sooner to the author of these original melodies, he would have solicited from several well-known authors permission to copy into this work a few tunes from each of their published works, as they contain some which would grace any volume of music in which they might be inserted: and should this work be favorably received by the public, so that the author should feel encouraged to add a supplement in future, he will take the earliest opportunity to solicit permission to insert a few of those tunes in such supplement.

The author has not inserted any rudiments of the art of music in this work, principally for the reason that he could do no more than copy from some other author: and it is his desire and intention, if he should hereafter publish anything of the kind, to offer it in some respects on a new plan, adapted to the capacities of children. He will therefore do no more at present than state some of the reasons which induced him to offer this little volume to the public. The first is, that no "son of the forest," to his knowledge, has ever undertaken a task of the kind. Secondly, he is feeble in health, and has a family of seven in number to provide for. Thirdly, the cause of missions, and other religious and charitable institutions, lie very near his heart, and he is frequently solicited to aid in donations for these purposes; but having to contend with poverty, hitherto he has been able to do but very little for these institutions, but would willingly and cheerfully do more were he in possession of the means. And here he begs to be excused for stepping a little aside from the path generally traveled by authors, and telling "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth." He has never known authors to acknowledge their desire of making money by their publications: they generally wind up by declaring, that if such and such an object has been "secured," they feel amply repaid for all their toils. Not so with the author of the Indian Melodies: he feels willing to acknowledge openly and frankly the truth, and he assures his friends and the public, that notwithstanding all other ends which may result from the publication of this work, his object is to make a little knowledge of the Redeemer and his kingdom through-money, whereby he may be enabled, by wise and pru- out the world.

dent management, to provide for the comfortable subsistence of his household, and be enabled, from time to time, to cast in his mite to aid in relieving the wants and distresses of the poor and needy, and to spread the

NAMES OF TUNES IN THIS WORK.

As the tunes in this book are the work of an Indian, it has been thought proper by the author to have it all of a piece. The tunes therefore will be found to assume the names of noted Indian chiefs, Indian females, Indian names of places, &c. This has been done merely as a tribute of respect to the memory of some tribes that are now nearly if not quite extinct; also as a mark of courtesy to some tribes with whom the author is acquainted.

HYMN 220.

SHENANDOAH. S. M.

Let all who truly bear The bleeding Saviour's name, Their faithful hearts with us prepare, And eat the Paschal Lamb—And eat the Paschal Lamb.

HYMN 330.

CUMMANCHE. S. M.

Fa - ther, I dare be - lieve Thee mer - ci - ful and true ; Thou wilt my guilty soul for - give, My fall - en soul re - new.

HYMN 551.

QUAPAW. S. M.

And am I born to die? To lay this bo-dy down? And must my trembling spi-rit fly In-to a world unknown?

HYMN 452.

HURON. S. M.

Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Christian love; The fel-low-ship of kindred minds Is like to that a-bove.

10

HYMN 445.

FLATHEAD. S. M.

Blest are the sons of peace, Whose hearts and hopes are one; Whose kind de - signs to serve and please Through all their ac - tions run—Through all their ac - tions run.

Blest is the pious house
Where zeal and friendship meet,
Their songs of praise, their mingled vows,
Make their communion sweet.

Thus on the heavenly hills
The saints are blest above,
Where joy, like morning dew, distils,
And all the air is love.

IROQUOI. S. M.

HYMN 233

111

Glo - ry to God on high; Our peace is made with Heav'n; The Son of God came down to die, That we might be for - giv'n—That we might be for - giv'n.

His precious blood was shed,
His body bruised for sin;
Remember this in eating bread,
And this in drinking wine.

Approach his royal board,
In his rich garments clad;
Join every tongue to praise the Lord,
And every heart be glad.

The Father gives his Son;
The Son his flesh and blood:
The Spirit applies, and faith puts on
The righteousness of God.

HYMN 372.

MONTAUK. S. M.

ESS 100H

Lord, in the strength of grace, With a glad heart and free, My - self, my re - si - due of days,

I con - se - crate to thee— I con - se - crate to thee.

Lord, in the strength of grace,
With a glad heart and free,
Myself, my residue of days,
I consecrate to thee.

Thy ransom'd servant I,
Restore to thee thy own;
And from this moment live or die,
To serve my God alone.

Hymn 235.

FOX. S. M.

My Saviour's pierced side Pour'd out a dou - ble flood: By water we are pu - ri - fied, And pardon'd by his blood.

The musical score for Hymn 235 consists of four staves. The top staff is the vocal line in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The second staff is the vocal line with lyrics. The third staff is the piano accompaniment in treble clef, and the fourth staff is the piano accompaniment in bass clef. The lyrics are: "My Saviour's pierced side Pour'd out a dou - ble flood: By water we are pu - ri - fied, And pardon'd by his blood."

Hymn 293.

OSHKOSH. S. M.

Fa - ther, in whom we live, In whom we are, and move; The glory, power, and praise re - ceive, Of thy cre - a - ting love.

The musical score for Hymn 293 consists of four staves. The top staff is the vocal line in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 2/4 time signature. The second staff is the vocal line with lyrics. The third staff is the piano accompaniment in treble clef, and the fourth staff is the piano accompaniment in bass clef. The lyrics are: "Fa - ther, in whom we live, In whom we are, and move; The glory, power, and praise re - ceive, Of thy cre - a - ting love."

HYMN 276.

JERSEY. S. M.

Al - migh - ty Ma - ker, God, How glo - rious is thy name! Thy won - ders how diffused a - broad,

Throughout cre - a - tion's frame! Throughout cre - a - tion's frame!

In native white and red
The rose and lily stand,
And free from pride, their beauties spread,
To show thy skilful hand.

The lark mounts up the sky,
With unambitious song;
And bears her Maker's praise on high,
Upon her artless tongue.

Fain would I rise and sing
To my Creator too;
Fain would my heart adore my King,
And give him praises due.

15

O Je - sus! full of grace, To thee I make my moan, Let me a - gain be - hold thy face, Call home thy ban - ish'd one— Call home thy ban - ish'd one.

Again my pardon seal,
Again my soul restore,
And freely my backslidings heal,
And bid me sin no more.

Wilt thou not bid me rise?
Speak, and my soul shall live;
Forgive, my gasping spirit cries,
Abundantly forgive.

For thine own mercy's sake
Relieve my wretchedness,
And O my pardon give me back,
And give me back my peace!

O come, and dwell in me, Spi - rit of pow'r with - in: And bring the glo - rious li - ber - ty

From sor - row, fear, and sin!—From sor - row, fear, and sin!

This inward, dire disease,
Spirit of health remove,
Spirit of finish'd holiness,
Spirit of perfect love.

Hasten the joyful day,
Which shall my sins consume;
When old things shall be done away,
And all things new become.

I want the witness, Lord,
That all I do is right,
According to thy will and word,
Well pleasing in thy sight.

HYMN 276.

SENECA. S. M.

YAMASSEE. S. M.

Je - sus, my Truth, my Way, My sure, un - err - ing Light ; On thee my fee - ble steps I stay, Which thou wilt guide aright.

On thee my fee - ble steps I stay, Which thou wilt guide a - right.

My Wisdom and my Guide,
My Counsellor thou art ;
O never let me leave thy side,
Or from thy paths depart.

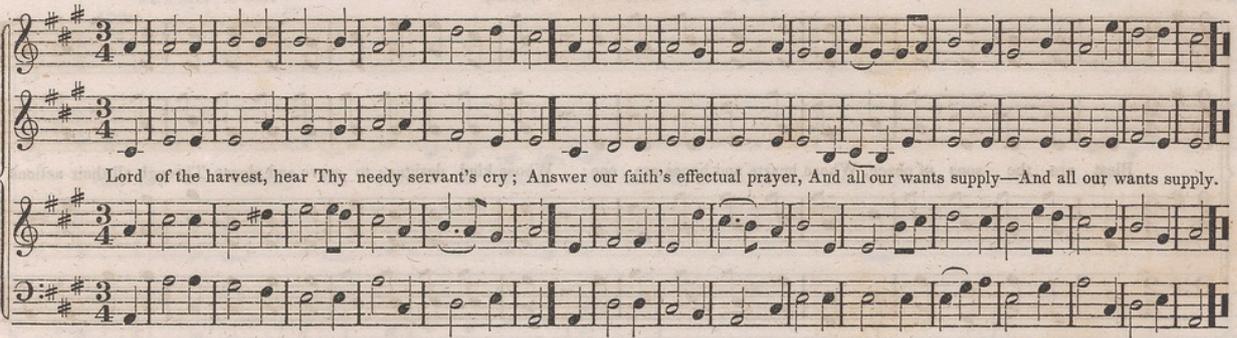

I lift mine eyes to thee,
Thou gracious bleeding Lamb,
That I may now enlighten'd be,
And never put to shame.

Never will I remove
Out of thy hands my cause ;
But rest in thy redeeming love,
And hang upon thy cross.

HYMN 455.

DELAWARE. S. M.

OKAWWUCK. S. M.

Allegro.

See how the morning sun Pursues his shining way ; And wide proclaims his Maker's praise, With ev'ry bright'ning ray—

And wide proclaims his Maker's praise, With ev' - ry bright'ning ray.

Thus would my rising soul,
Its heavenly Parent sing ;
And to its great Original,
The humble tribute bring.

Serene I laid me down,
Beneath his guardian care ;
I slept, and I awoke, and found
My kind Preserver near !

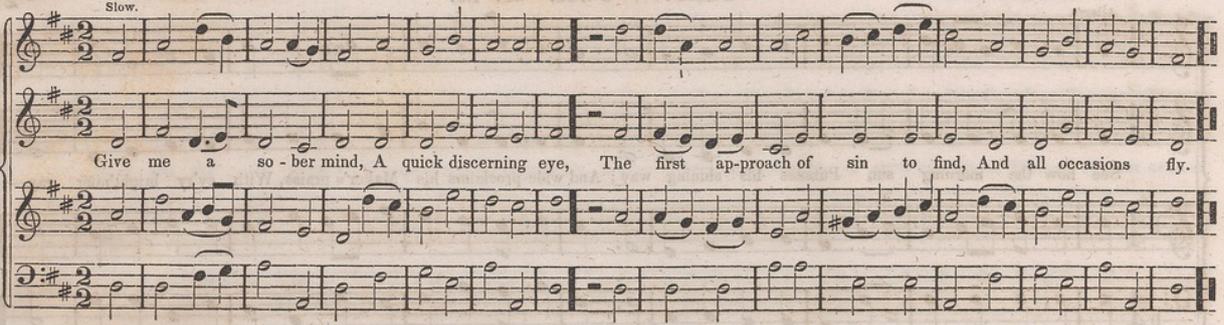

My life I would anew
Devote, O Lord, to thee ;
And in thy service I would spend
A long eternity.

Give me a so-ber mind, A quick discerning eye, The first ap-proach of sin to find, And all occasions fly.

BRALTON. S. M.*

1. I lift my soul to God! My trust is in his name; Let not my foes, that seek my blood, Still triumph in my shame.

2. From ear-ly dawning light, Till evening shades a-rise, For thy sal-va-tion, Lord, I wait, With e-ver-longing eyes.

HYMN 440.

SCATAKOOK. L. M.

23

Sa - viour of all, to thee we bow, And own thee faithful to thy word; We hear thy voice, and o - pen now Our hearts to en - ter - tain our Lord.

Come in, come in, thou heavenly Guest,
Delight in what thyself hast given;
On thy own gifts and graces feast,
And make the contrite heart thy heaven.

Smell the sweet odor of our prayers,
Our sacrifice of praise approve;
And treasure up our gracious tears,
Who rest in thy redeeming love.

Beneath thy shadow let us sit,
Call us thy friends, and love, and bride;
And bid us freely drink and eat
Thy dainties, and be satisfied.

HYMN 126.

OTTOE. L. M.

When, gra-cious Lord, when shall it be That I shall find my all in thee? The fulness of thy promise prove, The seal of thine e - ter - nal love!—The seal of thine e - ter - nal love!

A poor blind child I wander here,
If haply I may feel thee near :
O dark! dark! dark! I still must say,
Amidst the blaze of gospel day.

Thee, only thee, I fain would find,
And cast the world and flesh behind ;
Thou, only thou, to me be given,
Of all thou hast in earth or heaven.

When from the arm of flesh set free,
Jesus, my soul, shall fly to thee :
Jesus, when I have lost my all,
I shall upon thy bosom fall.

HYMN 391.

YARACO. L. M.

25

Peace, trou - bled soul, thou need'st not fear! Thy great Pro - vi - der still is near: Who fed thee last, will feed thee still, Be calm, and sink in - to his will.

The Lord who built the earth and sky,
In mercy stoops to hear thy cry ;
His promise all may freely claim,
" Ask and receive in Jesus' name."

His stores are open all, and free
To such as truly upright be ;
Water and bread he'll give for food,
With all things else which he sees good.

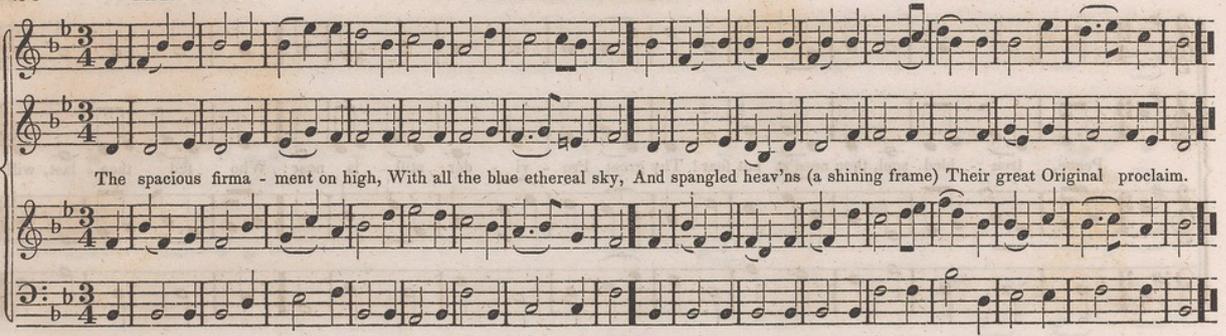

Your sacred hairs which are so small,
By God himself are number'd all ;
This truth he's publish'd all abroad,
That men may learn to trust the Lord.

noun, And wear our prai - ses as thy crown.

Let every act of worship be,
Like our espousals, Lord, to thee;
Like the blest hour, when from above
We first received the pledge of love.

The gladness of that happy day,
O may it ever, ever stay!
Nor let our faith forsake its hold,
Nor hope decline, nor love grow cold!

Each following minute as it flies,
Increase thy praise, improve our joys,
Till we are raised to sing thy name,
At the great supper of the Lamb.

Th' unwearied sun from day to day,
Doth his Creator's power display,
And publishes to every land
The work of an Almighty hand.

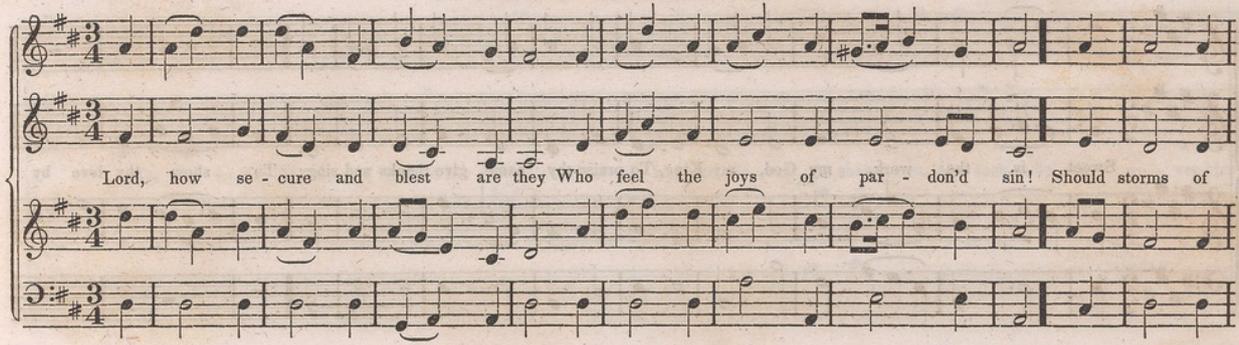

Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wond'rous tale,
And nightly to the list'ning earth
Repeats the story of her birth:
While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

The day glides sweetly o'er their heads,
Made up of innocence and love ;
And soft, and silent as the shades,
Their nightly minutes gently move.

Quick as their thoughts, their joys come on,
But fly not half so swift away :
Their souls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as summer evenings be.

How oft they look to th' heavenly hills,
Where groves of living pleasure grow !
And longing hopes, and cheerful smiles,
Sit undisturb'd upon their brow.

Sweet is the day of sacred rest,
No mortal cares shall seize my breast;
O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound.

When grace has purified my heart,
Then I shall share a glorious part;
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil to cheer my head.

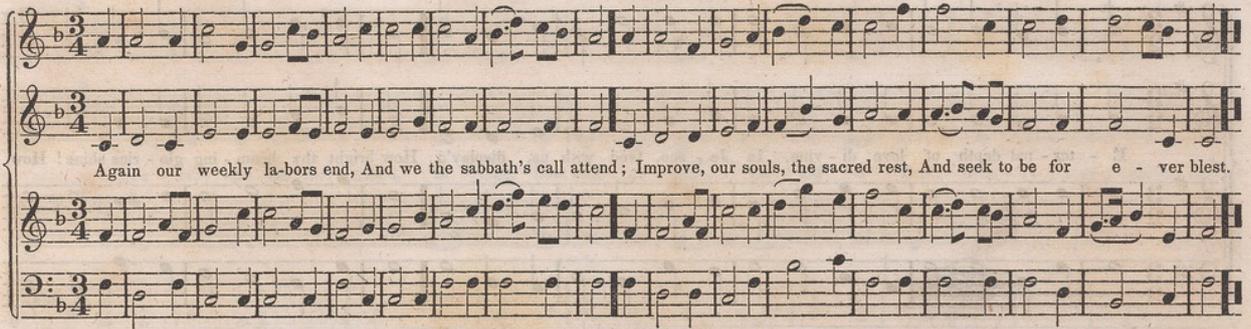

Then shall I see, and hear, and know,
All I desired or wish'd below;
And every power find sweet employ,

With whom dost thou delight to dwell ?
Sinners, a vile and thankless race ;
O God, what tongue aright can tell
How vast thy love, how great thy grace !

The dictates of thy sovereign will
With joy our grateful hearts receive :
All thy delight in us fulfil ;
Lo ! all we are to thee we give.

To thy sure love, thy tender care,

Awake, the woman's conquering Seed,
Awake, and bruise the serpent's head !
Tread down thy foes, with power control
The beast and devil in my soul.

Soon as we draw our infant breath,
The seeds of sin grow up for death;
Thy law demands a perfect heart,
But we're defiled in every part.

Great God, create my heart anew,
And form my spirit pure and true;
O make me wise betimes to see
My danger and my remedy.

Behold, I fall before thy face;
My only refuge is thy grace:
No outward forms can make me clean;
The leprosy lies deep within.

Poor worms of earth, to thee we cry,
For grace to guide what grace has given;
We ask for wisdom from on high,
To train our infant up for heaven.

We tremble at the danger near,
And crowds of wretched parents see,
Who, blindly fond, their children rear
In tempers far as hell from thee.

Themselves the slaves of sense and praise,
Their babes they pamper and admire;
And make the helpless infants pass
To murderer Moloch, through the fire.

SHAWNEE. L. M.

41

He wills that I should ho - ly be; That ho - li - ness I long to feel; That full, di - vine con-for - mi - ty To all my Sa - viour's right - eous will.

See, Lord, the travail of thy soul,
Accomplish'd in the change of mine;
And plunge me, every whit made whole,
In all the depths of love divine!

On thee, O God, my soul is stay'd,
And waits to prove thine utmost will:
The promise, by thy mercy made,
Thou canst, thou wilt in me fulfil.

No more I stagger at thy power,
Or doubt thy truth, which cannot move:
Hasten the long-expected hour,
And bless me with thy perfect love.

HYMN 480.

PEORIA. L. M.

Arm of the Lord, a - wake, a - wake! Thy own im - mor - tal strength put on! With ter - ror clothed, hell's king - dom shake, And cast thy foes with fu - ry down.

As in the ancient days appear!
The sacred annals speak thy fame;
Be now omnipotently near,
To endless ages still the same.

By death and hell pursued in vain,
To thee the ransom'd seed shall come;
Shouting their heavenly Sion gain,
And pass through death triumphant home.

The pain of life shall then be o'er,
The anguish and distracting care;
There sighing grief shall weep no more,
And sin shall never enter there.

43

Fain would I go to thee, my God, Thy mer - cies and my wants to tell; To feel my par - don seal'd in blood: Sa - viour, thy love I wait to feel.

Freed from the power of cancell'd sin,
When shall my soul triumphant prove?
Why breaks not out the fire within,
In flames of joy, and praise, and love?

Jesus, to thee my soul aspires;
Jesus, to thee I plight my vows:
Keep me from earthly, base desires,
My God, my Saviour, and my Spouse.

Fountain of all-sufficient bliss,
Thou art the good I seek below;
Fulness of joy in thee there is;
Without, 'tis misery all, and wo.

HYMN 390.

MIAMI. V. L. M. (Double.)

A - way, my unbelieving fear! Fear shall in me no more have place; My Saviour doth not yet appear, He hides the bright-ness of his face:

But shall I therefore let him go, And basely to the tempt - er yield? No, in the strength of Jesus, no, I ne - ver will give up my shield.

383 HYMN

45

How do thy mer - cies close me round! For - e - ver be thy name a - dored; I blush in all things to a - bound; The ser - vant is a - bove his Lord!

Inured to poverty and pain,
A suffering life my Master led;
The Son of God, the Son of man,
He had not where to lay his head.

But lo! a place he hath prepared
For me, whom watchful angels keep;
Yea, he himself becomes my guard;
He smooths my bed, and gives me sleep.

Jesus protects; my fears begone:
What can the Rock of Ages move!
Safe in thy arms I lay me down,
Thy everlasting arms of love.

HYMN 562.

KISKARRAH. L. M.

388 388H

Why should we start and fear to die! What tim'rous worms we mor - tals are; Death is the gate to end - less joy, And yet we dread to en - ter there—And yet we dread to en - ter there.

The pains, the groans, the dying strife,
Fright our approaching souls away;
And we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.

O, if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul would stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she past!

Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there.

HYMN 568

47

The morn - ing flow'rs display their sweets, And gay their silk - en leaves un - fold ; As care - less of the noon - tide heats, As fear - less of the evening cold—As fear-less of the evening cold.

Nipt by the wind's unkindly blast,
Parch'd by the sun's directer ray,
The momentary glories waste,
The short-lived beauties die away.

So blooms the human face divine,
When youth its pride of beauty shows :
Fairer than spring the colors shine,
And sweeter than the virgin rose.

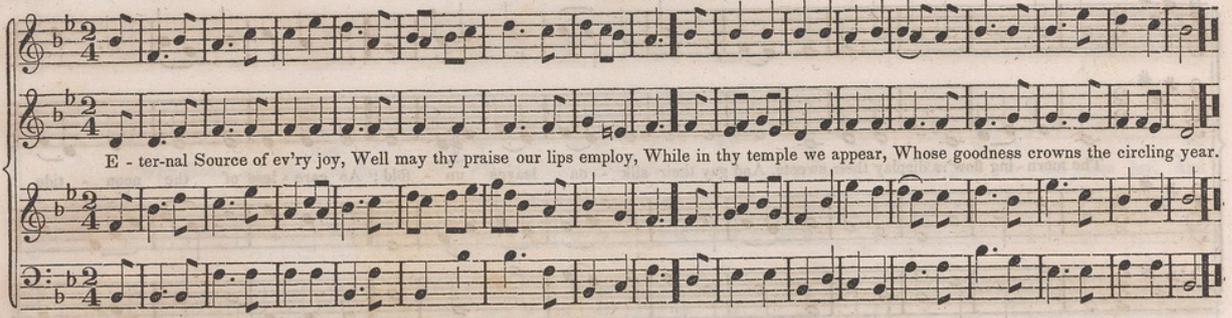

Or worn by slowly-rolling years,
Or broke by sickness in a day,
The fading glory disappears,
The short-lived beauties die away.

I find him lifting up my head,
He brings salvation near;
His presence makes me free indeed,
And he will soon appear.

He wills that I should holy be!
What can withstand his will?
The counsel of his grace in me
He surely shall fulfil.

Jesus, I hang upon thy word;
I steadfastly believe
Thou wilt return, and claim me, Lord,
And to thyself receive.

Come, let us join our cheer - ful songs With an - gels round the throne; Ten thousand thou - sand are their tongues, But all their joys are one— But all their joys are one.

Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry,
To be exalted thus:
Worthy the Lamb, our hearts reply,
For he was slain for us.

Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine.

The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name
Of Him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

It makes me cry, My Lord, my God,
And that without control.

There is a stream that issues forth
From God's eternal throne,
And from the Lamb, a living stream,
Clear as a crystal stone.

* The Narragansett Indians have a tradition, that the following tune was heard in the air by them, and other tribes bordering on the Atlantic coast, many years before the arrival of the whites in America; and that on their first visiting a church in Plymouth Colony, after the settlement of that place by the whites, the same tune was sung while performing divine service, and the Indians knew it as well as the whites. The tune therefore is preserved among them to this day, and is sung to the words here set.

POTTAWATTAMIE. (4 8's & 2 6's.)

001 2415

How hap - py are the lit - tle flock, Who, safe be - neath their guar - dian rock, In all com - mo - tions rest!

The first system of the musical score for 'Pottawattamie' consists of four staves. The top staff is the vocal line, followed by a piano accompaniment consisting of three staves (treble and bass clefs). The lyrics are written below the vocal staff.

When war's and tu - mult's waves run high, Un - moved a - bove the storm they lie, They lodge in Je - sus' breast.

The second system of the musical score continues with four staves, including the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff.

HYMN 281.

PENOBSCOT. (8's & 7's.)

388 21711

89

Hail! thou once de - spi - sed Je - sus, Hail, thou everlasting King! Thou didst suffer to re - deem us, Thou didst free sal - va - tion bring.

Hail, thou a - go - niz - ing Saviour, Bearer of our sin and shame! By thy merits we find fa - vor; Life is giv - en through thy name.

90

HYMN 586.

NIANTICK. (8's & 7's.)

Righteous God! whose vengeful phials All our fears and thoughts exceed; Big with woes and fiery tri - als, Hanging, bursting o'er our head:

While thou vis - it - est the na - tions, Thy se - lect-ed people spare; Arm our caution'd souls with patience, Fill our humbled hearts with prayer.

HYMN 250

✓ KEOKUCK. (8's & 7's.)

018 20711

91

Come, thou fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing thy grace:
Streams of mercy never ceasing, Call for songs of loud-est praise. } Teach me some melodious sonnet, Sung by flaming tongues above: Praise the mount—I'm fix'd upon it; Mount of thy re-deem-ing love!

Here I'll raise mine Ebenezer,
Hither by thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wand'ring from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood!
O! to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrain'd to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wand'ring heart to thee:
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
Prone to leave the God I love—
Here's my heart, O take and seal it;
Seal it for thy courts above.

92

HYMN 310.

POQUYANTUP. (8's & 7's.)

HYMN 310

Love divine, all loves ex - celling, Joy of heaven to earth come down; Fix in us thy humble dwell - ing, All thy faith - ful mercies crown!

Je - sus, thou art all com - pas - sion, Pure unbounded love thou art; Vis - it us with thy sal - va - tion; En - ter every trembling heart.

HYMN 226.

ONONDAGA. (8's & 7's.)

93

Come, thou e - ver - last - ing Spirit, Bring to ev' - ry thankful mind All the Saviour's dy - ing merit, All his sufferings for mankind :

True re - cord - er of his pas - sion, Now the liv - ing fire impart, Now reveal his great salvation, Preach his gos - pel to our heart.

HYMN 342.

OSAGE. (6 LINES 7's.)

302 1877

Since the Son hath made me free, Let me taste my li - ber - ty! Thee behold with o - pen face, Triumph in thy saving grace!

Thy great will de - light to prove, Glo - ry in thy per - fect love.

Abba, Father, hear thy child,
Late in Jesus reconciled;
Hear, and all the graces shower,
All the joy, and peace, and power;
All my Saviour asks above,
All the life and heaven of love.

Lord, I will not let thee go
Till the blessing thou bestow:
Hear my Advocate divine!
Lo! to his my suit I join:
Join'd to his, it cannot fail:
Bless me; for I will prevail.

HYMN 9.

SIPPICAN. (6 LINES 7's.)

95

Wear - ry souls that wan - der wide From the cen - tral point of bliss, Turn to Je - sus cru - ci - fied, Fly to those dear wounds of his ;

Sink in - to the pur - ple flood ; Rise in - to the life of God.

Find in Christ the way of peace,
Peace unspeakable, unknown !
By his pain he gives you ease,
Life by his expiring groan ;
Rise exalted by his fall,
Find in Christ your all in all.

O believe the record true,
God to you his Son hath given ;
Ye may now be happy too ;
Find on earth the life of heaven :
Live the life of heaven above,
All the life of glorious love.

96

HYMN 179.

UMPAME. (4 6's & 2 8's.)

A - rise, my soul, a - rise, Shake off thy guil - ty fears, The bleed - ing Sac - ri - fice In my be - half ap - pears;

Be - fore the throne my Sure - ty stands, My name is written on his hands—My name is writ - ten on his hands.

HYMN 693.

(SIOUX. (4 6's & 2 8's.)

97

The Lord Je - ho - vah reigns, His throne is built on high; The garments he assumes Are light and ma - jes - ty :

His glo - ries shine with beams so bright, No mor - tal eye can bear the sight—No mor - tal eye can bear the sight.

HYMN 249.

SEMINOLE. (8 LINES 8's.)

308 444H

How tedious and tasteless the hours, When Jesus no longer I see; Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flow'rs, Have all lost their sweetness to me:

The midsummer sun shines but dim, The fields strive in vain to look gay; But when I am happy in him, De-cember's as pleasant as May.

HYMN 290.

CAYUGA. (8 LINES 8's.)

384 0099

A fountain of life and of grace In Christ, our Redeemer, we see: For us, who his offers embrace; For all it is o-pen and free:

Je - hovah himself doth in - vite To drink of his pleasures unknown; The streams of immortal delight, That flow from his heavenly throne.

HYMN 485.

KUSICK. (8 LINES 8's.)

003 44411

All glory to God in the sky, And peace upon earth be restored! O Jesus, ex - alt - ed on high, Appear our om - ni - po - tent Lord!

Who meanly in Bethlehem born, Didst stoop to redeem a lost race, Once more to thy creatures return, And reign in thy kingdom of grace.

HYMN 319.

MASSASOIT. (8 LINES 8's.)

Hymn 319

101

What now is my object and aim? What now is my hope and de - sire? To follow the hea-ven-ly Lamb, And af - ter his image as - pire:

My hope is all centred in thee; I trust to re - cover thy love; On earth thy sal - va - tion to see, And then to en - joy it a - bove.

feel-ings, at rest is my soul, The tears are all wiped from my eyes.

The cause of my Master propell'd me from home,
I bid my companion farewell;
I left my sweet children (who for me do mourn)
In far distant regions to dwell.

I wander'd an exile and stranger below,
To publish salvation abroad;
The trump of the gospel endeavor'd to blow,
Inviting poor sinners to God.

But when among strangers, and far from my home,
No kindred or relative nigh,
I met the contagion, and sunk in the tomb,
My spirit to mansions on high.

O tell my companion and children most dear
To weep not for JOSEPH, though gone! [dear,
The same hand that led me through scenes dark and
Has kindly conducted me home.
