"A WARM RECEPTION"

Is certainly the WARMEST thing that ever happened.

Published for Band and Orchestra. Also for Two Mandolins, Guitar, Two Banjos and Piano.

"It gives me great pleasure to state that in my opinion 'A Warm Reception' stands in the front rank with anything of the kind yet published. With the suggestive title, and the piece itself a winner, this will probably be the greatest selling cake-walk ever placed on the market."

FRANK L. COLLINS,
1st Regiment Band,
Boston, Mass.

"I write you congratulating you upon your issue of that 'warm' piece of music 'A Warm Reception.' I play it with my band often, and have many requests to play same, as you will see by program."

MACE GAY,
Brockton, Mass.

"Your selection entitled 'A Warm Reception' was received by me a few days ago and was played to-day on Boston Common by the Municipal Band of Boston. The immense crowd present gave it the greatest applause and a very 'Warm Reception.' I predict a great success for this selection."

J. THOMAS
Boston

"A Warm Reception is very effective. In fact, rag time artistically written. We play it often."

D. W. REEVES,
American Band,
Providence, R.

A WARM RECEPTION

as a Piano Piece—has no equal.
as a March—full of brilliancy and fire.
as a Two-Step—the favorite of the ball room.
as a Cake Walk—the warmest thing that ever happened.
