

CATCH, A. 3. Voc.

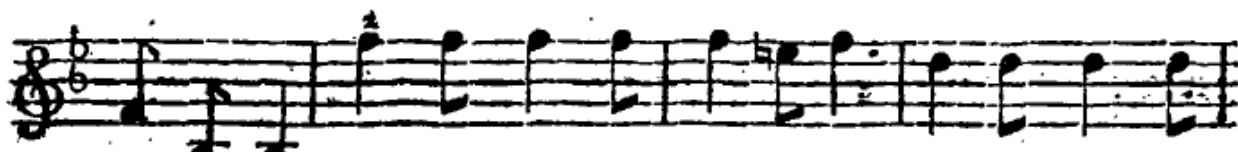

Mr. Charles Burney.

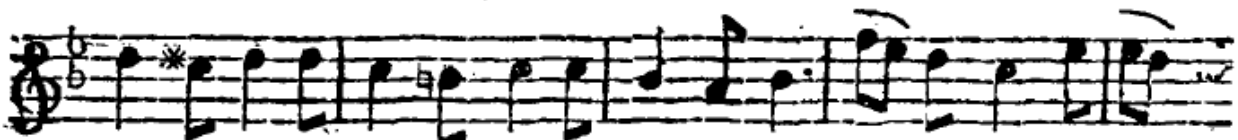

Mortals learn your lives to measure, Not by length of time, but pleasure, your pleasure, your pleasure, Not by length of time, but pleasure; Soon your spring must have a fall, Loosing youth is loosing all, is losing all, is losing all, Loosing youth is loosing all. Then you'll ask, but none will give, You may linger, but not live; may lin — ger, may linger, but not live.

C A T C H. A. 4. Voc. Mr. Charles Burney.

Jack and Jill Went up the hill, To fetch a pail of wa-ter;

Jack fell down, And broke his crown, And Jill came tumbling af-ter.

C A T C H. A. 4. Voc.

Mr. Charles Burney.

Pe-er White, who ne-ver goes right, Wou'd you know the reason why; He follows his nose, Where-ever he goes, And that stands

all a-wry, awry; He follows his nose, where-e-ver he goes, And that stands all a--wry, i--vry.