Trio, a Viola d'amore e
C. 1732. Blank. Grav. 471/244

Christoph Graupner

Handwritten musical score for Trio, a Viola d'amore e. The score is written on ten staves, featuring complex polyphonic textures with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The tempo/mood marking "Largo e giusto" is written below the second staff. The manuscript is aged and shows signs of wear, including stains and foxing.

Handwritten musical score on ten staves, featuring complex notation with many beamed notes and rests. The notation is in a historical style, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The word "Allegro" is written in the left margin of the third staff. The manuscript shows signs of age, including some staining and wear at the edges.

Handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring multiple systems of staves with musical notation. The notation includes various note values, rests, and bar lines, characteristic of 18th or 19th-century manuscript notation. The score is organized into several systems, each containing three staves. The final system includes the word "Allegro" written in cursive.

Handwritten musical score on ten systems of three staves each. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and clefs. The word "Haupt" is written in the first system. The word "Fine" is written at the end of the score. A large, stylized signature or flourish is present at the bottom left of the page.
