PREFACE.

The greater portion of the very graphic parable of our Lord, on which this work is founded, has been allotted to a Narrator (Baritone) in the third person, but two sections—viz., “Give us of your oil” and “Open to us,” seemed more realistic if sung in the first person by female voices. In the two instances of eight-part writing on pages 62-100, it is suggested that, when sung by a limited number, the four upper staves should be rendered by the soloists.

The reflections interspersed are an endeavour to accentuate the spiritual teaching underlying the various sections of the Allegory: that from the Lord’s Prayer has been approached with the utmost reverence (see foot-note, page 11). The use of the ancient German chorale, “Sleepers, wake,” seemed to be a fitting text to the work and has been employed in various numbers.

The parable ends with the ominous words—“And the door was shut”; but I have preferred to end the work with the idea set forth in the words of the Psalmist, “My song shall be of Mercy and Judgment.”

In concluding this brief preface I desire to express my thanks to W. Bassano, Esq., of Old Hill, Staffordshire, for suggesting the subject of “The Ten Virgins” as a fitting one for musical development, and to Mrs. W. Bassano for very valuable assistance in the matter of the libretto; also to F. Mason, Esq., for his artistic illustration. Lastly, I have to acknowledge the courteous manner in which permission has been granted by the Publishers to use Miss Winkworth’s translation of “Sleepers, wake,” and Lord Tennyson’s “Late, late, so late.”

THE TEN VIRGINS.

No. 1.—INTRODUCTION AND CHORUS.

Sleepers, wake, a voice is calling,
Go ye forth to meet your Lord ;
He is the light of the world :
Whoso followeth Him
Shall not walk in darkness,
But shall have the light of life.

John viii. 12.

CHORALE.

Midnight hears the welcome voices,
And at the thrilling cry rejoices ;
Come forth, ye virgins, night is past,
The Bridegroom comes, awake !

Hallelujah !

And for His marriage feast prepare,
For ye must go to meet Him there.

C. Winkworth.

No. 2.—Narrator (Baritone).

*The kingdom of Heaven is like unto ten virgins,
Which took their lamps,
And went forth to meet the Bridegroom.*

Matt. xxv. 1.

No. 2A.*—AIR.—Tenor.

Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done
On earth, as it is in heaven ;
Forgive us our trespasses,
Save us from temptation,
And deliver us from evil,
Our Father which art in heaven.

Matt. vi. 10—13.

* It is suggested that all should stand during the singing of this, the Lord's Prayer.

No. 3.—CHORUS, QUARTET, AND DUET.

Let your loins be girded about,
And your lights be burning,
And ye yourselves
Like unto men
That wait for their Lord.
Blessed are those servants
Whom the Lord when He cometh
Shall find watching.
Therefore watch,
For ye know not at what hour
Your Lord may come.
They that trust in the Lord
Shall be like unto Mount Zion,
Which cannot be removed,
But standeth fast for ever.

*Luke xii. 35—37 ; Matt. xxiv. 42 ;
Ps. cxxv. 1.*

No. 4.—AIR.—Contralto.

Thou art the guide of our youth,
Lead Thou us on day and night ;
Make our path clear as Thy truth,
Clear as Thy truth and Thy light.
Thou art the guide of our youth,
Be Thou so unto the end.
Lead Thou us into all truth,
Our Maker, our Saviour, our Friend ;
Then, though we walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
We will fear no evil, for Thou art with us ;
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort us.

Ps. xxiii. 4.

No. 5.—Narrator.

*The kingdom of heaven is like unto ten virgins,
Which took their lamps,
And went forth to meet the Bridegroom ;
And five of them were wise,
These took oil in their vessels with their lamps ;
And five of them were foolish,
These took their lamps, but took no oil with them.*

SOLO.—Tenor.

Oh ! that they were wise,
That they would consider their latter end.
Deut. xxxii. 29.

SOLO.—Soprano.

Happy are they that get wisdom ;
The fear of the Lord, that is wisdom.
Prov. iii. 13; Job xxviii. 28.

TRIO.—The Virgins.

Come, and let us walk in the light of the Lord.
In Thy light we see light ;
Thy word is a lamp unto our feet
And a light unto our path.
Praise, O ! praise our God.

Ps. cxix. 105.

No. 6.—Narrator.

While the Bridegroom tarried,
They all slumbered and slept.

INTERMEZZO (Instrumental).—“SLEEP.”SOLO.—Baritone.

How long, O heavenly Bridegroom,
How long wilt Thou delay ?
And yet how few are grieving
That Thou dost absent stay !

Oh, wake Thy slumbering virgins,
Send forth the solemn cry,
Let all Thy saints repeat it—
“The Bridegroom draweth nigh.”
J. G. Deck.

They know not, neither will they understand ;
They walk on still in darkness ;
All the foundations of the earth are out of course.
Ps. lxxxii. 5.

No. 7.—Narrator.

And at midnight there was a cry made—
“Behold, the Bridegroom cometh ;
Go ye out to meet Him.”
Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps,
And the foolish said unto the wise :

DIALOGUE CHORUS.—The Virgins.Second Choir.

Give us of your oil, for our lamps have gone out.

First Choir.

*Not so, lest there be not enough for us and you ;
But go ye rather to them that sell and buy for yourselves.*

Wisdom crieth in the streets—
She crieth :
“ How long, ye simple ones, will ye love
simplicity ;
Turn ye at my reproof,
Because I have called, and ye refused ;
I have stretched out my hand
And none regarded.
For that they hated knowledge,
And did not choose the fear of the Lord,
Therefore shall they eat of the fruit
Of their own way,
And the way of peace
Shall they not know.
But whoso hearkeneth unto me
Shall dwell safely,
And shall be quiet from the fear of evil.
Turn ye ! turn ye ! at my reproof,
Why will ye die ? ”

Prov. i. 20—23.

No. 8.—CHORUS.

O how great is Thy goodness,
Which Thou hast laid up
For them that love Thee.

Ps. xxxi. 21.

No. 9.—Narrator.

And while they went to buy,
The Bridegroom came.

MARCH (FESTAL).

No. 10.—Narrator.

And they that were ready
Went in with Him to the marriage ;
And the door was shut.

QUARTET AND CHORUS.

Glory and Worship are before Him,
Power and Wisdom and Honour,
Glory, Worship, Power, Honour,
Are in His Sanctuary.

SOLO (Tenor) AND SEMI-CHORUS.

Ascribe unto the Lord,
O ye kindreds of the people ;
Ascribe unto the Lord,
Worship and power ;
Ascribe unto the Lord
The honour due,
The honour due unto His Name ;
Bring presents, and come into His Courts.

QUARTET AND SEMI-CHORUS.

O worship the Lord,
In the beauty of Holiness ;
Let the whole earth
Stand in awe of Him.

Ps. xvi. 6—9.

No. 11.—INTRODUCTION (Instrumental).
“WEARINESS.”

Narrator.

Afterwards came also the other virgins, saying,
*Lord, Lord, open to us ! **
(Glory and worship are before Him.)

The Virgins.

Open to us, open to us !

Narrator.

But He answered and said—
Verily I say unto you,
I know you not.

The Virgins.

Open to us !

Narrator.

I know you not.

TRIO.—The Virgins.

Late, late, so late ! and dark the night and chill !
Late, late, so late ! but we can enter still.

CHORUS.—Basses.

Too late, too late !
Ye cannot enter now.

The Virgins.

No light had we, for that we do repent ;
And learning this, the Bridegroom will relent.

CHORUS.—Basses.

Too late, too late !
Ye cannot enter now.

The Virgins.

No light ; so late ! and dark and chill the night !
Oh ! let us in, that we may find the light.

* Four voices at a distance from the orchestra—to convey the idea of Wedding Guests singing from within.

CHORUS.—Basses.

Too late, too late !
Ye cannot enter now.

The Virgins.

Have we not heard the Bridegroom is so sweet ?
Oh, let us in, tho' late, to kiss His feet.

CHORUS.—Basses.

No, no ; too late !
Ye cannot enter now.

Tennyson.

No. 12.—CHORUS.

The wicked are like the troubled sea,
Like the sea when it cannot rest ;
There is no peace for the wicked.
Come, and let us reason together, saith the Lord.

Solo Voices.

Though your sins be as scarlet,
They shall be white as snow.

Chorus.

Come, and let us reason together, saith the Lord.

Solo Voices.

Though your sins be red like crimson,
They shall be as wool.

Chorus.

The wicked are like the troubled sea,
Like the sea when it cannot rest ;
There is no peace for the wicked.

Isa. i. 18., lvii. 20, 21.

No. 13.—SOLO (Contralto) AND QUARTET.

God willeth not the death of a sinner, but that all should turn unto Him and live.

Blessed are they, yea, blessed are they which are called to the marriage of the Lamb.

Ezek. xviii. 32 ; Rev. xix. 9.

No. 14.—CHORUS—For a Double Choir.

O, sing unto the Lord a new song,
Sing praises unto the Lord.

Ps. xvi. 1.

A musical score for "The Star-Spangled Banner" featuring five staves of music. The lyrics are repeated across all staves: "burn - ing, your lights be burn - ing, and ye your-selves". The score includes various musical markings such as dynamic signs, key changes, and measure numbers.

A musical score for five voices, likely a soprano quintet, based on the traditional hymn "The Lord's Prayer". The score consists of five staves, each with a different vocal range indicated by a clef: soprano (G-clef), alto (C-clef), tenor (F-clef), bass (B-flat-clef), and bass (B-flat-clef). The lyrics are repeated four times across the staves, with the final repetition ending on a forte dynamic. The music includes various rests and note values, such as eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests of varying lengths.

A musical score for three voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor/Bass) in common time. The vocal parts are arranged in three staves. The Soprano part starts with a melodic line: God, O . . . praise, . . . O praise, . . . O. The Alto part joins in with a rhythmic pattern: God, praise, O praise . . . our God, praise, O praise . . . our God, praise, O. The Tenor/Bass part enters with a harmonic bass line. The vocal entries are separated by rests. The music concludes with a dynamic instruction 'Psd' followed by a fermata over the bass staff.
