

WHIP-POOR-WILL.

Frederick Manley.

W. W. Gilchrist.

Whippoor-

1. The ves-per sparrow now has sung His farewell to the
 2. A vagabond that shuns the way His woodland breth'ren 3. The children tuck'd in bed can hear The plaintive trem-u - will, whip-poor, whip-poor-will, day, keep, lo, The Who And, The whip'ring breeze of night has swung The birds to sleep on bough and trusts to chance from day to day, Who holds the rights of bird-ies, Bil-ly thinks he says, "O dear," Be-cause in day-light he must Whip-poor-will, Whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor-will, spray; cheap; go, But from the val-ley and the The nests he steals when-e'er he To sleep while oth-ers play and

whip-poor - will,

whip - poor-will,

hill . . . There comes a voice, a bro - ken lay, will, . . . The rest he breaks when oth - ers sleep, trill, . . . And on - ly wake when things are drear;

And "Whip-poor-will" it
With "Whip-poor-will" sung
"I wish," says Bill, "some

hill . . . There comes a voice, a bro - ken lay,
will, . . . The rest he breaks when oth - ers sleep, trill, . . . And on - ly wake when things are drear;

And "Whippoorwill" it
With "Whippoorwill" sung
"I wish," says Bill, "some

whip-poor - will,

Whip-poor-will, Poor whip-poor-will,

Whip-poor -

seems to say, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill, loud and deep, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill, bird would hear And play with Will, poor whippoorwill,

whip - poor-will,
whip - poor-will,
whip - poor-will,

seems to say, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill,
loud and deep, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill,
bird would hear And play with Will, poor whippoorwill,

whip - poor-will,
whip - poor-will,
whip - poor will,

whip-poor-will,

whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor - will.

whip-poor-will,

whip-poor-will,

whip - - poor-will."

whip-poor-will,

whip-poor, whippoor, whip - - poor-will."