My Fond Desire Waltz.

The image shows five staves of musical notation for a piano waltz. The top staff is treble clef, the bottom staff is bass clef. Measure 1 starts with a piano dynamic (p) and a forte dynamic (f). Measure 2 begins with a dolce dynamic. Measures 3 and 4 are numbered 1 and 2 respectively. Measure 5 begins with a grazioso dynamic and a mezzo-forte dynamic (mf). Measures 6 and 7 are numbered 1 and 2 respectively. Measure 8 begins with a crescendo dynamic (cres.). Measures 9 and 10 are numbered 1 and 2 respectively. Measure 11 begins with a piano dynamic (p). Measures 12 and 13 are numbered 1 and 2 respectively. Measure 14 begins with a piano dynamic (p).

A handwritten musical score for a waltz. The score consists of six systems of music, each with two staves: treble and bass. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The time signature is common time (indicated by a 'C'). Measure numbers 6 through 11 are present above the staves. The music features various note values including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Measures 6-7 show eighth-note patterns. Measures 8-9 show sixteenth-note patterns. Measures 10-11 show eighth-note patterns. Measure 12 begins with a dynamic 'p' (piano) and a forte section. Measure 13 starts with 'cres.' (crescendo), followed by a forte section with dynamic 'f', and ends with 'dim.' (diminuendo). The score is written on aged paper with some water damage visible at the top.

My Fond Desire Waltz.

A handwritten musical score for a waltz, consisting of five staves of music. The score is written in common time and uses a key signature of one flat. The vocal line is in soprano C-clef, and the piano accompaniment is in bass F-clef. The vocal part begins with a sustained note followed by eighth-note chords. The piano part features sustained notes and eighth-note chords. The score includes dynamic markings such as dolce., marcato., and poco rit.. The page number '7' is located at the top right of the score. The bottom left of the page contains the title 'My Fond Desire Waltz.' and the bottom right contains the publisher information 'Wm. H. Kepner & Co., Boston Typographers, 101 Atlantic St., Boston.'

INCOMPARABLY THE BEST—THE KING OF PIANO INSTRUCTORS—ENDORSED BY PRESS AND PROFESSION.

NATIONAL SCHOOL FOR THE PIANO-FORTE.

BY W. F. SUDDS.

It is designed, not only for those who desire to become professional pianists, but also for those who aim to become accomplished amateurs, while for those who are compelled to become self-taught players, it will be found the most valuable aid ever published. We would call attention briefly to the following points:

1. It teaches the first principles of music, partly by means of musical writing lessons, to be filled out by the pupil, affording a much clearer and easier way of overcoming first difficulties than other works of the kind contain.
2. The exercises are more carefully graded, introducing the pupil to but one new feature at a time, while in each case the necessary explanations, which are usually left for the teacher to give orally, are, as far as possible, written in detail.
3. The art of fingering, touch, accent, etc., is more fully treated than in average works.
4. It contains full and complete instructions in Harmony and Thorough-base, subjects all-important, and yet scarcely hinted at in other Piano-forte Methods.
5. It instructs the student in the principles of vocal accompaniment, including playing from a vocal score, thereby preparing him to be an efficient church organist, when necessary; this, too, is peculiar to the work.

The following are selected from hundreds of testimonials fully endorsing the above claims:

WHAT NEW ENGLAND SAYS:

THOMAS P. I. MAGGON, Duxbury, Mass.

The "National School" is rightly named. From what I have seen of it, I consider it the best piano school in the country. "Anton Diess," I had reason to expect much in your new work, and my expectations were more than met. I find as many new features as any book I have ever seen. The book is well written, that I can only say—it is just what we teachers, and our pupils, need. No instruction so much as to clear up details, what they do embrace. I hope it may meet the success it merits.

JULIUS RICHARDSON (Boston Conservatory of Music), Boston, Mass.

I find "National School" a useful and well-constructed work, well adapted to its purpose and a welcome addition to the many excellent methods that have been published here and in Europe. I wish all success.

The Pilot, Boston, Mass.

An exhaustive and valuable book.

S. SCHAFFER, New Haven, Conn.

Our teachers consider "National School" the best of all piano schools published in the United States.

C. H. KIRKMAN, Manchester, N. H.

The publishers do not claim enough for "National School" to meet a demand never so thoroughly supplied before.

F. A. FOWLER, New Haven, Conn.

I consider that "National School" has no rival among American publications.

A. H. BELLOCQ, Pittsburgh, Mass.

I can confidently recommend "National School" to all who wish for an instruction complete in all the details of piano-forte playing.

DR. LOUIS MAAS, Boston, Mass.

After a careful survey of "National School," I am very glad to tell you that I think it one of the very best books of that class that has been brought under my notice. It is simple, forcible, massive and yet exhaustive—containing everything that can be sought for in any of its kind. I shall be glad to recommend and use it as far as it is in my power.

WHAT THE MIDDLE STATES SAY:

Albion (N. Y.) Morning Express.

Destined to have a large sale.

MORGAN & HANFORD, Middlebury, Vt.

Our teachers are well pleased with "National School."

Male (Pa.) Chronicle-Herald.

An admirable and exhaustive work.

Harrisburg (Pa.) Independent.

Contains more than twice the amount of musical information found in any other book of the kind.

JOHN F. HARRIS, Philadelphia, Pa.

I find "National School" an excellent work, and a book for teachers of the piano-forte, and more than met. I find as many new features as any book I have seen. The book is well written, that I can strongly recommend it.

Harrisburg Evening Patriot, Pa.

I have been very partial to Richardson's most popular method, but hoped some time to see a method more complete in some respects than his. I have now done so, and am satisfied of many pleasing details. I find that "National School" has all the merits of Richardson's, with the following additional ones, viz.: Entertainment and interest, ready remarks upon the use of the pedal, and especially upon the various embellishments; latest studies of modern masters, Heller, Kohler, Lortzing, and others; clear directions upon accompaniment and biographical dictionary, and, by no means the least important, the fine treatise on harmony with numerous examples.

JAS. N. BROWN, Philadelphia, Pa.

The "National School" has been examined at length. It gives me pleasure to endorse its completeness and the clearness with which all the rudimentary points have been therein set forth, as well as the great interest manifested in the retention of the various studies, etc.

Nothing but praise, furthermore, for the writing nothing but praise, furthermore, for the writing of the several dictionaries, and the short but satisfying treatise on "touch."

A. H. EYRE, Allentown, Pa.

The "National School" is thorough and minute work. It certainly contains everything that can be desired by teacher or pupil.

ADAM GREENE, Philadelphia, Pa.

In every way I find "National School" the best piano work for that kind of instruction—the piano teacher's work. I have read it through to my notes, and I feel that I can say coolly, and without presumption, that it is not only a good instructor, but also an encyclopedic work, which can be recommended most heartily to the profession.

A. H. ROSEN, Philadelphia, Pa.

I have thoroughly examined "National School," and have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best and most thorough instructor I have seen. Mr. Sudds has made many new and original ideas in his work, which cannot fail to prove of great value.

JAS. H. SWENSON, Chester, Pa.

I think "National School" a grand success in every way.

JAS. H. SWENSON, Chester, Pa.

"National School" is, doubtless, the best piano instructor ever published in this country.

G. W. SHAWFIELD, Akron, N. Y.

I consider "National School" worth double that of any piano school I have ever seen.

WHAT THE SOUTHERN STATES SAY:

WM. H. BROWN, Wheeling, W. Va.

I consider "National School" the best and most comprehensive I have ever had for sale.

W. H. BROWN (W. Va.) Register.

A valuable book of instruction and reference.

B. H. BOYLE, Washington, D. C.

I consider "National School" a very complete work.

It contains all the requisites of an instructor—thoroughness, progression, and definiteness—in a word, completeness, leaving the pupil with nothing to be desired.

WHAT THE WESTERN STATES SAY:

J. H. CAMMEN, Indianapolis, Ind.

"National School" suggests a long list want. All teachers pronounce it first class.

Sacramento (Cal.) Daily Record-Democrat.

This book is all that is claimed for it.

Chicago (Ill.) State-Journal.

A valuable book of instruction and reference.

SEE FULL LIST OF TESTIMONIALS.

PRICE, HANDSOMELY BOUND IN HALF CLOTH, $3.25.

6. It is the only piano school which treats, at any length, on the proper use of the so-called, and much-abused, "loud pedal." On this subject alone, the work is of priceless value to the young student.

7. We find among its contents, the subject of musical form, phrasing, etc., made plain and interesting to the pupil.

8. Aside from more than the usual amount of so-called technical matter, there is interspersed a valuable repertoire of piano music, selected from the works of Schubert, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Bach, Beethoven, Rubinstein, Morzowski and others, with explanatory notes concerning the peculiarities and proper performance of each.

9. And last but not least, is included a dictionary of music, with proper pronunciation of names and musical terms, with biographies of prominent artists and modern musicians and composers.

That the "National School" opens to the student the shortest and best possible road to proficiency, is beyond a doubt, especially when we consider the well-known ability and recognized talent of the editor, as evinced in former works. And after a glance at the foregoing, it is almost superfluous to say that this book contains more than double the amount of musical information found in any other work of the kind.

WHAT THE SOUTHERN STATES SAY:

W. W. GILCHRIST, Philadelphia, Pa.

"National School" is a most excellent and progressive work, and I am sure any student, and I am pleased to have the opportunity of expressing my approval of its many good points.

MARSHAL M. WADDELL, Philadelphia, Pa.

"National School" is an admirable work, having the distinct advantage of being a work of great merit, and sufficiently varied, without being too voluminous.

LOUIS IRISH, New York.

I have carefully examined "National School" and find it a very thorough work, superior to any music published.

ALICE BROWN, Elkhornville, Pa.

"National School" is a valuable work.

It will give me pleasure to recommend it.

DUDLEY BUCK, Brooklyn, N. Y.

I have examined "National School" and am glad to say that I think you have a most excellent work, covering all essential points of piano playing, and properly made use of, cannot fail to produce good players. I trust that you will find it a valuable work.

LOCUS IRISH, New York.

"National School" will prove an exceedingly useful work, containing, as it does, a vast amount of information in a condensed form and of the greatest value, and pieces are such as will prove useful to the student in forming the hand and acquiring "touch."

WHAT THE SOUTHERN STATES SAY:

WM. H. BROWN, Wheeling, W. Va.

I consider "National School" the best and most comprehensive I have ever had for sale.

W. H. BROWN (W. Va.) Register.

A valuable book of instruction and reference.

B. H. BOYLE, Washington, D. C.

I consider "National School" a very complete work.

It contains all the requisites of an instructor—thoroughness, progression, and definiteness—in a word, completeness, leaving the pupil with nothing to be desired.

CANADA'S VERDICT.

GARRETT MARTIN, Toronto, Ontario.

I can truly say that I see much to admire in your "National School." I think it is the best book of its kind, and it will certainly have a very large sale amongst the more prominent teachers in Canada and the United States.

LONDON (Ont.) Catholic Record.

It will be found the most valuable aid ever published.
